Small entry. The Challenge male which wasn't in the best of coat condition won over a very nice promising youngster that was under weight. However he had good head type. Best of Breed (which was the Challenge Bitch) was of excellent breed type with good bone, front and full, deep brisket, firm top line and a very sound mover

Nice entry, good overall quality. Three exhibits stood out, two males and my winning female. They had excellent breed type, substance, movement, angulation and pleasing expressions.

The decision in the male Challenge was like "splitting hairs", but I was going for a better front.

Excellent quality!! I've judged some excellent, short, cobby dogs with excellent spring of ribs.
The faults I've seen here have been much better than in its country of origin!!
I've ended up with a really nice male and female. They should win in any big shows in Europe!!

An array of different types of heads on such a small number of entries! Some dogs were too heavy and straight in shoulders. Best of Breed had a fantastic head with correct head expression.

Mrs Anne Katona
Cairn Terrier

What a joy to judge this breed today. They are such a nice little family dog who loves children. All exhibits were very good with weather resistant coats. Most were properly trimmed, however a few exhibits were a bit over trimmed for the breed. The overall balance, small movement, agile, alert and active was all present in my Challenge dog and bitch. However, the dog won out for Best of Breed with the bitch a very close second.

Mrs Anne Katona
Cavalier King Charles Spaniel

There were some very nice balanced entries in this breed today. A few were well over the 12 – 18 lbs range. Most had very pretty heads, with gentle expressions, dark, large round eyes and beautiful ear sets. Most of the short coupled bodies with good spring of rib and level top lines were in the bitch classes. Depth of quality in the classes was definitely in the bitches. It was a pleasure to judge this breed today

Chihuahua (Long)

Very nice entry of Long Coat Chihuahuas. Most were alert, little dogs with brisk movement and saucy expressions. A few "newies" that should blossom with more ring experience. The breed silhouette was present and good coat texture on most exhibits.

Chihuahua (Smooth)

Most of that mentioned in the Long Coat goes for Smooth Coats also. One word of caution – in the breed standard, "DAINTY" does not refer to TINY, it refers to bone size. A Chihuahua should not get so small in size that it cannot reproduce and perhaps that could happen with some of these exhibits.

Very nice entry, very good overall quality. Some of them were slightly stout on the legs.
My Best of Breed was a truly beautiful short haired male puppy, who was not only q well constructed type with a lovely head, but also a great character. A very reasonable dog.
My best bitch overawed me with her type, head, nice ears and good movement. I had a real problem with big or "Shar Pei" like ears here!!!

I was really excited judging the Cockers here. I have been breeding Cockers for over 30 years, over 30 International Champions, dozens of European and World Champions.
My entry was impressive and the quality of the parti colours was alluring. I found better parti bitches here than in England nowadays (where I was judging the Cockers 3 weeks ago).
They were oozing in type, overall balance and substance. Surprisingly good shoulders and a Cockery movement with good reach and drive.
I ended up with a beautiful blue roan male and female, having completely the same, sound silhouette and melting expressions. It is difficult to find the type, balance, expression and correct movement at the same time nowadays and these two had them all.

I was very pleased with another 8 – 10 exhibits today and I have to mention the lovely golden bitch as well who was my Best Puppy in Breed.

Not a huge entry of 14 but very pleasing quality. All the heads are typey, nothing overdone or too strong, like in many countries. They had excellent balance, substance – most of them had a very well prepared, nice coat.
My best male and female belonged to the same owner, having everything which I count as important in this breed (a head has to be a "masterpiece", good shoulders, cobby body, nice coat and movement).

Ms Carla Molinari
Collie (Rough)

A very mixed type in this large entry of dogs. Many in excellent coat. Some heads lacking in underjaw. Some too high on hind hocks.
My Best of Breed winner, a male of excellent type, with effortless side movement and good size not overdone.
Best bitch and runner up also a lovely headed bitch with excellent movement.

Good head type, size and bone, lovely headpieces – some straight fronts with rounded fore chests rather than keels. Some exhibits were forgiven poor temperaments in search for the correct front assembly. All exhibits were in excellent show condition. Handlers should not straighten Dachshunds feet, thus elbows on some exhibits weren't close fitting to their bodies. Winners were balanced and had the proper fronts.

Dr Tamas Jakkel
Dalmatian

A lovely entry of 55. I've seen all the different types her, but my male line up was very even. I have seen many nice heads and expressions, excellent substances and spring of ribs. The short and too sloping hindquarters are a serious problem here, like anywhere else in the World nowadays in this breed. Don't forget, a short legged Dalmatian can move nicely, but even with that, that is a dog with "out of balance" (I've seen quiet a few of those!) It was interesting to see again, the domination of the "browns" in their quality.
I ended up with a beautiful, masculine, showy, compact male and a lovely, feminine "full of type" bitch. When you have the quality of these two, you don't need to think about their faults!

Dandie Dinmont Terrier

The Dandie entry was not large but of quality. All exhibits had beautiful, large, wise , intelligent eyes and long, low weaselly bodies. Nice short legs, strong and good free movement. Heads were excellent on all exhibits along with wonderful attitudes and temperaments. Today, mustard was the choice with salt and pepper a close second.

This is a German breed of dog bred for character and stamina. Some of my exhibits were too light in bone, to elegant and overdone. The Best puppy was lovely in type and so was the Best of Breed winner - a brown male with correct body length and depth of chest.

Dr Tamas Jakkel
English Springer Spaniel

One of those breeds in which I found the quality a bit disappointing here. Where has the beautiful type English Springers disappeared to from here? Thanks to some breeders, a few of them still exist here – they were my winners.
Both of my Challenge and Reserve Challenge males and females belonged to that breed I fell in love with many years ago, but some of the others!!!!!. I think that is the right time to divide this breed to English Springer Spaniels and American Springer Spaniels. Some of the exhibits carried the pure American type and some others – even worse in my eyes – were typeless, somewhere in the middle of these two breeds, which means they don't belong to either breed. It is a real pity.

I had a nice entry which has become a "rare breed" even in its country of origin. It is good to know this breed is in good hands in Australia.
I've seen lovely type Fields here today. Be careful of the problem being "short legged!!! It is very difficult to breed this fault out.
My Best of Breed male was a wonderful male – possibly the best authentic type. So well balanced!!

Dr Tamas Jakkel
Flat Coated Retriever

A pleasing entry of good quality – I especially liked the bitches. They had lovely heads. The balance and coat quality of the exhibits was good. Their front was surprisingly good as this is a real problematic point of this breed nowadays. I found most of the male's heads too long and coarse.

Nice entry, good quality. Most of them had nice heads and expressions, nice parallel ears. I could wish for some better front and top line.
My best male was a beautiful compact male, excellent movement, pleasing head and excellent character.
My Challenge junior bitch had the best of the heads, excellent pout When she gets all of her substance in the future, it will be hard to beat her.

Ms Carla Molinari
German Shepherd dog

Most of the dogs entered in this breed were in good condition and sound, although overall I would have preferred a more "German" type to the breed i.e. less angulations and more drive on the movement.
Best male and challenge was a sound masculine dog who would have benefited from a better handler as he could go better if not so restrained on the lead.
Best of Breed was the bitch – feminine and free moving – not overdone and in top condition.

JUDGES CRITIQUE

Dr Tamas Jakkel
German Shorthaired Pointer

I've had an excellent entry of over 100. Not only the quantity (I've never judged so many GSP's in Germany in the same Show), but the quality was also very pleasing.
Most of the GSP's had the workmanlike quality together with the necessary elegance.
Every single existing type was presented, and if you saw my line up, it was pleasingly even.
My Challenge dog and the bitch looked like brother and sister, with perfect balance, movement and expression of their head.

A lovely entry. Most of the exhibits had excellent balance, a few of them had a tendency to be short legged. They excelled in coat quality and deportations – they moved well.

My Challenge puppy male is and extremely balanced, solid, honest dog handled with perfection.

My Best of Breed bitch amazed me with her beautiful "foxy" expression.

Dr Tamas Jakkel
Golden Retriever

An excellent entry of 89. There is and excellent quality and breed type her in this country. I felt a slight American influence in some of the head pieces. I found some of my favourite "old fashioned", strongly build, good moving Goldens with plenty of substance and melting expressions, without being too heavy or clumsy.
The overall quality was very high, and I was amazed by my two winners. I was not really surprised when I was told after the Show that they were father and daughter.
My only criticism – there are too many short-legged Goldens here, as this is a problem all over the world nowadays. Don't sacrifice the balance of the Breed for a better movement - please! Some of them had a tendency to get the balance of a Clumber Spaniel.

Excellent overall quality in this breed. A lot of well balanced, good moving, sound, solid exhibits in excellent coat condition. Some of the heads should be more typical, being overdone in skull and in step, causing a bit of a strange expression.
My best male was a beautiful puppy who has a bright future and at the present time having all the important breed details. My best bitch was very feminine, sound, extremely well balanced, moving well and presented in A1 condition.

Nice entry and quality. I've seen some very nice heads and expressions, some of them failed in its "parallelism". Most of the exhibits were typey with good substances. I would accept a bit more strong bones in some of the males.
My Challenge bitch was a fawn one, not ready made, but excelled in her balance, type, head and movement. The Reserve Challenge male was a very impressive blue one.
My Best of Breed male was a very powerful, masculine yet elegant fawn male.
I missed the harlequin ones!!!!
