THIRTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE COUNCIL

OF THE

Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria.

TO THE SUBSCRIBERS.

Ladies and Gentlemen,—

Your Council have pleasure in presenting the following Report of the proceedings of the Society for the year 1908 :—

Permanent Buildings and Works.

Early in the year your Council directed the Works Committee to prepare a report on the improvements they would recommend to be carried out. This was done, and the report was dealt with at a special meeting of Council on the Show Grounds, when a number of items were agreed on, for which tenders were called, and the works let as follows :—Sheep house, west of brick building, £1000; tea room, west of grandstand, £800; renewing seats, front of grandstand, £150; additional seats round the arena, £149; addition to dairy plant shed, £200; alterations and improvements to pig shed, £150; water service and horse troughs, £50; covering for ticket takers, £30; admission gates, north-west corner, £20; and divisions to cattle stalls, £17. Subsequently, on account of the visit of the American fleet, entrance gates were put into the west fence, for visitors via the racecourse platform; a roadway was made, and other minor improvements about the yards effected, making the outlay for the year £2836 12s., and bringing the total expenditure on buildings and maintenance on the grounds up to £62,630 10s.

The Exhibition.

The annual exhibition was at first fixed for 1st to 5th September, but on account of the visit of the American fleet—to which further reference will be made—was afterwards altered so that it should begin on Friday, 28th August, and continue to Saturday, 5th September, inclusive. The programme of prizes was thoroughly revised, and several new sections added, and after the duration of the Show was increased, an additional programme of sporting events was provided for the extra days. The total entries amounted to 6520, establishing another record. The gate money, including £166 10s. at the grandstand, amounted to £4472 9s. which was £542 15s. 3d. behind that of the previous year, notwithstanding the increase in the number of Show days.

The following table gives the number of exhibits in the several sections, together with those of the year before, for purposes of comparison:—

Reviewing the exhibits in their catalogue order, the draught horses again showed a falling off in numbers from the previous year, being short by 62 ; but the quality of the exhibits was well maintained. With a view to the encouragement of the breeding of draught horses, the Government this year instituted a grand Challenge Cup prize of 100 guineas, for the best Australian-bred draught stallion, to be won three times before being finally won, with a cash prize of 25 guineas for the winner each year. Suffolk Punches were the same in number as last year, and do not appear to make any advance in this State, although they are shown in numbers in New South Wales. In Thoroughbreds, the entries were confined to stallions and colts, and two Arab sires were shown. Trotters well maintain their place, and form an interesting section of the Show. In Roadsters, Hackneys (breeding section), and Ponies (breeding section), the entries were in line with those of last year, except that there was a falling off in the number of ponies. The Hunting and Jumping classes filled fairly well, and the extra events of the supplementary schedule also filled well ; the Open-to-all Jumpers' Plate, for jumping only, proving most popular. Hackneys, Carriage and Buggy, and Saddle and Harness Ponies showed a considerable falling off in numbers; the mounted riflemen's being almost a blank. This section, when well filled, is very attractive to the public, and it is matter for regret that the classes do not fill better, though, generally speaking, it appears that good Hackneys, and Carriage and Buggy Horses, are really not procurable as they were in former years. Shorthorn Cattle were rather under last year's exhibits in number, but the high standard of the Melbourne Royal was well maintained in this leading breed of stock. Herefords, Polled Angus, and Red Polled Cattle showed little variation in numbers and quality from last year. Milking Shorthorns again formed a large class, and the other principal breeds of Ayrshires and Jerseys were particularly well represented. The Holsteins, Dairy Cattle, and Fat Cattle sections were fairly well filled, particularly the latter—by excellent exhibits. The several sections of sheep were somewhat short of last year, but were of excellent quality, the competition in many classes being very close and keen. There was a large increase in the Swine entries, and the winning exhibits were of exceptional merit. Poultry also showed a large increase, and formed an excellent display, and there was an increase in the number of dogs shown. In Carriages and Buggies the entries were more numerous than last year, and made an effective show. In Saddlery and Harness there was a slight increase in the number of entries. Farm Produce exhibits were about as last year in numbers, and of excellent quality. In district exhibits there were three entries—all very creditable to the portions of the State they represented. The State School District Competition, instituted this year, drew 12 exhibits, and the first of the Agricultural High Schools Competitions comprised two entries—all creditable to the efforts of the pupils, and the methods of the Education Department in that connection. In this section a prize was offered for the best essay on the Show, or a section of it, from school children under 16, and it drew 46 entries, many of which were creditable productions. In dairy produce the exhibits, though somewhat short of last year, were of a very high standard. The Wine section again filled well, and the sub-section for brandy and cider brought out some superior exhibits, highly spoken of by the judges. Preserves and Fruits were again short, and the section requires further revision, with a view to attracting competition. In Apiculture, for which a separate section was this year allotted, the entries showed a considerable increase, through the extra classes provided.

Artificial Manures comprised eight entries from different firms. In addition to the tabulated exhibits, there were 239 stands of machinery, implements, and general non-competitive exhibits, which made a highly interesting and instructive display. In point of exhibits generally, this Show—though short in some of the stock classes—was well up to the general standard. On account of the visit of the American fleet—already referred to—the Show was begun on the Friday previous to the usual opening Tuesday, so that the judging might be over, and the Show be in working order by Tuesday, the day fixed for the official luncheon, to which 50 officers of the fleet were invited—as the Thursday—the usual official day—was allotted by the Government for the Review at Flemington. This lengthening of the Show did not seem to be popular with exhibitors, who did not appear to realize that the Council were endeavouring to do the best they could in the interests of the Society under very exceptional circumstances. Even with the extra days there was a great shortage in the attendance, as the public seemed to be dominated by the one idea of the presence of the American fleet, which, being a novelty, proved an overwhelming counter attraction, and thus—to the extent stated at the beginning of this section—militated against the financial success of the Show.

Official Opening.

The ceremony of officially opening the Show was performed by his Excellency Sir Thomas Gibson-Carmichael, on Tuesday, when the opportunity was availed of to present his Excellency—who had shortly before arrived in Victoria—with an address of welcome. The address was handsomely engraved and illuminated, and the presentation to his Excellency was made by the president, on the grandstand, in the presence of his Excellency Admiral Sperry, the Admiral of the American fleet, his Excellency Sir Richard Poore, Bart., the British Admiral, and other distinguished visitors. The following is the text of the address, and his Excellency's reply:—

To His Excellency Sir Thomas David Gibson-Carmichael, Bart., M.A., D.L., Governor of the State of Victoria, and its Dependencies in the Commonwealth of Australia.

May it please Your Excellency,—We, the President, Vice-Presidents, and members of the Council of the Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria, beg most respectfully to approach Your Excellency with assurances of devoted attachment and loyalty to His Most Gracious Majesty the King.

We desire to avail ourselves of Your Excellency's visit to our Exhibition to present you with this address, and to cordially welcome Your Excellency and Lady Gibson-Carmichael to our fair and fertile land, assuring Your Excellency of our great gratification at your appointment, as we feel confident that Your Excellency's practical knowledge of stock and agriculture will induce you to attach the fullest importance to our primary producing interests which it is more particularly the province of this institution to foster and support.

We trust that your sojourn amongst us may prove to Your Excellency and Lady Gibson-Carmichael in every way so satisfactory that you will always retain most pleasing recollections of your official connection with Victoria as the representative of His Majesty the King.

On behalf of the Council,

(Signed) THOMAS SKENE, President.

(Signed) THOMAS PATTERSON, Secretary.

September, 1908.

His Excellency replied as follows:—"The president and members of the Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria. I am very pleased to receive the assurances of your devoted attachment and loyalty to His Most Gracious Majesty the King, whom I have the high honour to represent. I thank you for your cordial welcome to Lady Carmichael, as well as to myself. Both she and I expect that among the many pleasant moments which we shall have during our stay in Victoria not the least pleasant will be those when we have the opportunity of seeing what your Society and kindred societies are doing to advance agriculture, and to improve the stock raised in this State. I trust your efforts may be crowned with such success as may lead you to continue them, for in fostering and supporting whatever leads to the full development of the agricultural resources of your country you will be furthering the interests, not only of those directly dependent on these resources, but you will, in no small degree, contribute to the welfare of all who are engaged in any form of commerce or of industry. It affords me the very greatest pleasure to be present to-day at your Show. I thank you for the address, and for the way you have so kindly received me, and as I take a very great interest in stock, I hope to be able to see more of your exhibits at another time."

The Governor-General's Arrival at Show.

Directly after the official opening ceremony, his Excellency the Governor-General, Lord Northcote, arrived on the grounds. His Excellency was received by the President and Council, and attended the official luncheon.

Address to the Governor-General.

Shortly after the arrival of the new Governor-General, Lord Dudley, in Victoria, the Society presented his Excellency with a handsomely engraved and illuminated address at Government House, when, in addition to the signatories to the address (the president and the secretary), there were present Messrs. A. McCracken, D. R. McGregor, D. Mitchell, J. B. Pearson, and C. W. Campbell.

The address and reply were as follows :—

To His Excellency the Right Honourable William Humble, Earl of Dudley, a Member of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Knight Grand Cross of the Royal Victorian Order, Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief of the Commonwealth of Australia,

May it please Your Excellency,—

We, the President, Vice-Presidents, and members of the Council of the Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria, beg most respectfully to approach Your Excellency with sincere and heartfelt assurances of loyalty and attachment to the throne and person of His Most Gracious Majesty the King.

We hail with unfeigned satisfaction the appointment of such a distinguished nobleman to preside over the destinies of the Commonwealth of Australia, and to maintain the Imperial connection between the Motherland and our Island Continent. Your Excellency's past career is a warrant for the effective discharge of these great duties, and we have every confidence that Your Excellency will also assist in the promotion and development of our agricultural and pastoral industries, which are the foundation of our prosperity, and the stay and support of our peace-loving people.

We cordially express the hope that you, and Her Excellency, and your family—during your sojourn in this Southern Sunny Clime—may be abundantly blessed with health and happiness, and that the period of Your Excellency's official career amongst us may be one of the greatest interest and satisfaction to yourself, and of progress and prosperity to the people of Australia.

On behalf of the Council,

Reply to The Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria.

Gentlemen,—

It affords me, as the King's representative, much satisfaction to receive the sincere and heartfelt assurances of loyalty of the Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria, to the throne and person of His Most Gracious Majesty.

I fully recognise the importance of your Society, which is so intimately connected with those great agricultural and pastoral industries which, with you, as with practically every other great country, are the foundation of national prosperity, and the stay and support of a large proportion of the population.

Hence your cordial welcome and your kindly reference to myself and Lady Dudley are particularly gratifying, and they encourage me to hope that our sojourn in Australia may be, not only a time of health and happiness for us, but also one of progress and contentment for the people of this great Continent.

The Late Marquis of Linlithgow.

At the Council meeting in March attention was called to the lamented death of the Marquis of Linlithgow, and a resolution was passed expressive of the great regret of the Society at his early demise, and directing that a letter be written, conveying an assurance of the deepest sympathy with his widow and family. The Marquis, who, as Lord Hopetoun, was patron of the Society as Governor of Victoria, and afterwards as first Governor-General of Australia, endeared himself by his fine personality to all classes in the community, as, wherever he went, he invariably succeeded in charming everyone who had the privilege of meeting him. He liberally assisted the Society by his donations, and took a lively interest in its exhibitions. Your Council had the satisfaction of receiving a communication in reply, conveying the thanks of the Marchioness for their kind letter of condolence.

The Flock Book.

So many entries of new flocks have been received for this book that it is in contemplation to publish Volume IV. next year (1909), although the last volume was published so late as 1907, while there was an interval of five years from the publication of the previous issue. Increased entries make increased entry fees, so that the Flock Book Trust Account is in the very satisfactory financial position of having a credit of £144 8s. 9d., there being already ample funds in hand for the publication of a fourth volume.

Draught Horse Stud Book.

The second volume of the Draught Horse Stud Book of Australia was published in July. Entries have closed for Volume III., which will be published this year, probably at an earlier date than July. Entry forms will, in due course, be issued for Volume IV., to close on 30th September. Your Council, on the recommendation of the Stud Book Committee, have resolved to reduce the entry fee to half the amount charged for entry in the previous volumes, and it is hoped that this concession will result in a material increase in the entries. It is very desirable that breeders should not omit to send in returns of the progeny of their registered mares every year—indeed, it is essential to the complete success of the Stud Book; and owners of registered stock are urged to bear this in mind.

The Chamber of Agriculture.

The Sixth Annual Convention of the Chamber of Agriculture was held at Geelong on the 7th, 8th, and 9th July. Mr. David Gibson, your Council's representative, in a written report of great excellence—for which he received a special vote of thanks—conveyed the intelligence that this yearly gathering of representatives of the producing interests of the State continues to grow increasingly important and influential. The proceedings were officially opened by Sir John Madden, K.C.M.G., and there was a large attendance of delegates, representing the whole of the State, who dealt with the very considerable amount of business on the Agenda with commendable promptitude, thoroughness, and efficiency. Also, the local committee were most hospitable, and made effective provision for very pleasantly and instructively entertaining their visitors, and impressing them with the manifold resources of their town and its surroundings—the event, altogether, being a pronounced success.

The Council.

At the first meeting of the Council, in February, the Hon T. Skene was re-elected President, and Messrs. Robert Clarke, A. McCracken (re-elected) and A. McNaughton were chosen Vice-presidents. In March, the death was reported of the Hon. C. Young, which caused a vacancy in the Trustees, and also in the Council. Mr. Young was elected to the Council in 1894, and in 1896 was elected a Trustee in the room of Dr. Plummer, resigned, and held that office till his decease. Mr. Young, as Minister of Public Works, had been of much assistance to the Society in connection with difficulties that arose in making arrangements for access to the Show, held previous to leaving the St. Kilda Road site, and during his term of office as a member of Council and Trustee was very highly esteemed for his generous character. A letter of condolence was written to his family, expressing appreciation of his long and valuable services to the Society. Mr. A. McCracken was elected a Trustee in the room of Mr. Young, and, in August, Mr. H. A. Anderson was elected to fill the place in the Council, from which Mr. McCracken had been moved up. In July, Mr. J. E. Walter and Mr. B. B. Mogg resigned their seats. Mr. Walter was elected to the Council at the Annual Meeting in 1905, and Mr. Mogg in November, 1906, in the room of Mr. John Hurst, deceased. In September, Mr. A. E. T. Payne was elected in the room of Mr. Walter, and Mr. A. D. Rowan in the place of Mr. Mogg. In the same month, the death was reported of the Hon. Thomas Brunton. Mr. Brunton was elected to the Council in July, 1883, and was President of the Society in 1895 and 1896. In relation to public affairs, Mr. Brunton was broad-minded and liberal, and an enthusiast in the interests of the Society, and, being thoroughly practical, as President he conducted the business most successfully—indeed, as the present President aptly remarked, in speaking of him at the meeting following his decease, he was perhaps the most picturesque figure that ever had filled the chair. The Society was officially represented at his funeral, and a letter of condolence was written to his family, expressive of the high appreciation in which he was held by the Council. Mr. J. Ernest Robertson was elected in the room of Mr. Brunton. In December, the death occurred of Mr. John Blyth, at the advanced age of 84 years. Mr. Blyth, who was elected to the Council in 1887, was a regular attendant at meetings, and an active steward at the shows. He was long and prominently connected with business and charitable institutions in the city, and was much esteemed for his genial qualities.

Question of Horse Parade.

This question of holding a horse parade and sales in the show grounds about the first week in August was again brought before the Council at the monthly meeting in March. After discussion, the motion in favour of a parade was lost by 13 votes to 4.

Lease of Offices.

An extension of the lease of the present offices of the Society, in Equitable Building, has been secured for a further term of five years, to 1st October, 1913.

The Journal.

The agreement with the publishers of the journal, Messrs. J. Twomey and Co., has been renewed for 12 months, the Society paying a premium of £150—an increase of £50, on account of the larger number of subscribers since the amount was fixed at £100 in 1900.

Wines at Cellars.

In October, it was resolved that the wines at the Exhibition cellars, the property of the Society, which had been accumulating for a number of years, should be sold. After they were sorted up, it was found that they amounted to over 200 dozen, for which tenders were called; and they realised £109 14s. 3d.

Acknowledgments.

Your Council desire to record their thanks to His Excellency the Governor-General, Lord Northcote, for visiting the Show on the official opening day. They also warmly thank His Excellency the State Governor, Sir Thomas Gibson-Carmichael, for officially opening the Show, and for the personal interest he displayed in inspecting the exhibits. They thank the Hon. the Minister of Agriculture for again providing champion medals for competition, and for a challenge cup for Australian bred draught stallion. They thank Mrs. Hurst for providing a "John Hurst" medal for yearly competition for best milking Shorthorn cow. They wish to cordially acknowledge the assistance of the donors to the prize fund. They thank the judges for their valuable gratuitous services, and the stewards for their active aid at the Show. They gratefully acknowledge the assistance of the Press, and the prominence given to the Show under very exceptional and crowded circumstances, and they thank all who have helped to carry out the work of the Society for the year.

Finance.

In the audited statement of accounts published herewith, the revenue is shown to be £9825 4s 3d., which is £750 15s.

2d. behind that of last year, being accounted for principally in the shortage of gate takings, the other items of revenue being practically on the same lines as last year. The expenditure, including £2583 14s. 3d. in cash prizes and medals and £2836 12s. in buildings and maintenance, amounted to £10,028 6s., the overdraft being increased from £9264 4s. 4d. to £9467 6s. 1d. Regarding the expenditure in permanent works as an asset, the working expenses show a profit of £2633 10s. 3d. on the year's transactions.

RULES.

1. The Society shall be called The Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria.

2. The objects of the Society shall be to promote the development of the Agricultural, Pastoral and Industrial Resources of the State—

- (1.) By holding Exhibitions at such places and times as the Council shall appoint; and by offering and awarding prizes and premiums at all such Exhibitions, if deemed desirable.
- (2.) By holding meetings at such places and times as the Council shall appoint, at which meetings papers may be read and discussed.
- (3.) By collecting such information from Agricultural publications, scientific, and other works, as may be useful in promoting the objects of the Society.
- (4.) By corresponding with Agricultural and other kindred societies at home and abroad, and collecting from such correspondence all information which, in the opinion of the Council, may lead to practical benefit in the cultivation of the soil and breeding of stock, as well as in the prosecution of other important industries.
- (5.) By encouraging the attention of men of science to the discovery of better methods of cultivation, to the improvement of agricultural implements and machinery, the construction of farm buildings, the application of chemistry to the general purposes of agriculture, the destruction of insects injurious to vegetable life, and the eradication or utilisation of weeds.
- (6.) By promoting the discovery and introduction of new varieties of cereals, vegetables, or grasses suitable to the climate, and capable of being cultivated with profit; and also the introduction of desirable kinds and varieties of live stock.
- (7.) By collecting information regarding the management of plantations, live-fences, and other subjects connected with rural improvement.
- (8.) By investigating the nature of diseases in animals or plants, and taking measures for the publication, at such times and periods as the Council may appoint, of the information thus collected, together with all approved original essays sent in, lectures delivered, or papers read to the Society; besides making provision for the establishment and maintenance of a Library and Reading Room for the use of Members.

(9.) By remunerating any person, if thought fit, who shall ascertain by experiment how far such information may lead to useful results in practice, for any loss incurred by such experiments.

3. The Society shall consist of a President, three Vice-Presidents, three Trustees, Governors, Members, Honorary Members, Honorary Scientific Members (not exceeding six in number), and Corresponding Members.

4. Every candidate for admission into the Society, by giving his name and address, with his subscription, to the Secretary, shall be duly constituted a Member of the same, and shall have all the rights of membership till the day after the Annual Meeting next ensuing. Providing that when any subscription shall be paid in the name of any firm or company, they shall at time of paying such subscription nominate one of the members of the firm or company, who shall be entitled to and exercise the rights and privileges attached to such membership, and may be elected to any office.

5. Governors shall pay a subscription of three pounds, and Members one pound, annually, in advance, with power to compound for life by the payment in one sum of ten annual subscriptions.

6. The Society shall be managed by a Council consisting of thirty-three Members, elected from amongst the Governors and Members of the Society as hereinafter provided, and also the Trustees, who shall be ex officio Members of the Council.

7. One-third of the Council, except the Trustees, shall retire annually in rotation, but shall be eligible for re-election.

8. Land acquired, or to be acquired, for the Society shall be held by and be vested in the Trustees for the time being of the Society for and on behalf of the Society. The Trustees shall hold office until disqualified, or until they are removed in due course at the Annual or at a Special General Meeting of the Society. Any new Trustee or Trustees shall be appointed at the Annual or at a Special General Meeting of the Society, or in accordance with Rule 14. The Trustees shall deal with the lands of the Society as directed by resolution of the Council of the Society (of which an entry in the Minute Book shall be conclusive evidence), and they shall be indemnified against risk and expense out of the Society's property.

9. The Council shall, at their first meeting after the annual election in each year, elect out of their own number (which includes the Trustees), a President, and three Vice-Presidents.

10. The Council shall have the entire management of the income and funds of the Society, and all other affairs thereof.

11. The Council shall have power to appoint and remove all paid officers of the Society.

12. The Council shall have power to elect Honorary, Honorary Scientific, and Corresponding Members; nominations having been submitted at a previous meeting, and a circular having been sent to each Member of the Council. The Honorary Scientific Members shall retire annually, and shall be eligible for re-election.

13. Governors and Honorary Scientific Members may attend meetings of the Council, and take part in discussions thereat, but shall not have power to vote.

14. The Council may fill up any vacancies in its own body created by death, resignation, or occurring in any other way amongst its office-bearers.

15. The Council shall have power to make or amend such regulations as they think necessary.

16. The Council shall be regulated in its proceedings by such By-laws as shall from time to time be enacted by it, conformably with the Constitution and objects of the Society; but no By-law shall in any case be altered, or new one proposed, unless notice of such intention has been given at a previous meeting, and sent to each member of the Council.

17. The Society's financial year shall end on the 31st of December; and a Preliminary General Meeting shall be held on the second Tuesday in January following, to arrange the business and receive notices of motion for the Annual General Meeting, to appoint a paid and an honorary Auditor, and to nominate gentlemen to fill the places of retiring office-bearers. Previous to the meeting, the Council shall have prepared a list of Governors and Members nominated by them to fill the vacancies, to which list of candidates the names of any other Governors and Members may be added on their being duly proposed and seconded at the meeting.

18. The Annual General Meeting shall be held on the first Thursday in February, at which meeting the Annual Report and Balance Sheet shall be submitted, office-bearers elected, and any other business transacted of which due notice may have been given.

19. Fourteen days at least before the Annual General Meeting the President or his Deputy shall send to all subscribers to the Society (Governors or Members) a ballot paper, numbered and initialled by the President or his Deputy, or the Secretary, with the names of all the candidates who have been duly nominated, and each subscriber desiring to vote shall erase therefrom all names he thinks fit. Provided that any ballot paper containing more or less than the required number of names shall be rejected by the President (who shall be Returning Officer) or his Deputy at the election. Every such ballot paper shall be returned sealed, on or before the closing of the poll, which shall be at three o'clock p.m. on the day of the election, and the said ballot papers shall be opened and counted when the Returning Officer is making up the poll.

20. Seven days at least before the Annual Meeting a copy of the Report and audited Balance Sheet for the preceding financial year shall be forwarded to every subscriber to the Society (Governors or Members).

21. The Secretary shall report to the meeting of the Council next after the Annual Meeting the gentlemen elected to fill the vacancies in the Council.

22. A Special General Meeting of the Society may be called at any time by the Secretary, on direction of the President, or on the requisition of ten Members of the Society, but no business shall be transacted at any such meeting other than that for which it has been called.

23. A Special Meeting of the Council may be summoned by direction of the President, or of three members of the Council, but no business then transacted shall be valid unless confirmed by special resolution at the subsequent Ordinary Meeting.

24. The privileges of Membership shall consist of power to vote at the election of office-bearers, of free admission to the Library, Reading Room, and Lectures, and, with one lady, to the Society's Exhibitions, grounds, and grand stands at all times on production of the Member's ticket for the current year. And while the Society publishes a monthly journal, a copy shall be posted free to each Member.

25. Any Member guilty of conduct, calculated to bring the Society into discredit in connection with its General Meetings, its Meetings of Council, its Exhibitions, or other objects, shall be liable to be brought before the Council, and, if found guilty, shall be subject to reprimand, or to have his name expunged from the Roll of Members, and may be disqualified from exhibiting during the pleasure of the Council.

26. Any person being disqualified by any kindred society shall not be allowed to become a Member or to exhibit at this Society's Exhibitions until such disqualification be removed, provided such disqualification be confirmed by the Council of this Society.

27. Any dispute as to the interpretation of the rules, by-laws, regulations, or provisions shall be determined by the Council, whose decision shall be final.

28. These Rules shall not be altered except by a majority of the Members present at the Annual or at a Special General Meeting of not less than ten Members, exclusive of Members of Council.

BY-LAWS.

GENERAL MEETINGS.

1. Notice of the Preliminary, Annual, and Special General Meetings of the Society shall be given in such newspapers as the Council may decide, and by circular through post to every Governor and Member; and all matters, except the election of the office-bearers at the Annual Meeting, shall be determined by a show of hands, unless a division is called for. At every Annual General Meeting the minutes of the last Annual Meeting, and the minutes of the preceding Preliminary General Meeting, shall be read and confirmed; a report, together with a financial statement from the Council, shall be submitted, and any Governor or Member present may propose any question to the Council respecting the matters contained in such report, and comment thereon, or may refer to such other matters relating to the government of the Society and the management of its affairs as to him may seem proper, provided that his remarks have reference to some motion of which notice has been previously given at the Preliminary General Meeting.

2. The President or his Deputy shall conduct the election at the Annual General Meeting, at which meeting two or more scrutineers shall be chosen by the President or his Deputy to assist in making up the state of the poll.

3. Should it be deemed advisable to remove one or more of the Trustees from office, notice to that effect must be given at the Preliminary General Meeting, or one month previous to any Special General Meeting, nominations to be made at the former meeting and elections to take place at the latter. Extraordinary vacancies amongst the Trustees may be filled up by the Council, or at the Annual General Meeting.

THE PRESIDENT.

4. The President shall, in all official relations of the Society, take precedence of all other Governors and Members, and shall take the chair when present, having (as well as any other Chairman of the Council) the privilege of a casting vote in addition to his own in all cases of equality in a division on any question. He shall sign all such letters, votes of thanks, and other documents as the Council may direct to be written in the name or on behalf of the Council.

THE COUNCIL.

5. The Council shall hold a meeting at least every month, on such a day and at such an hour as the Council may decide, for the transaction of the business of the Society, and may adjourn from time to time at its discretion.

6. At the monthly meetings the Council shall have full power to originate, discuss, and decide by a majority of votes on a show of hands, all questions not involving an unusual outlay of money brought before it; provided that if any three members present regard any proposition brought forward as too important for immediate decision, they may object and demand the usual month's notice, whereupon all discussion on the question shall cease.

7. No motion, the effect of which, if carried, would be to rescind any motion previously passed by the Council during the same year, shall be entertained unless one month's notice be given to the Council.

8. The ruling of the Chairman shall be final in all matters of order and practice.

9. If within half an hour after the time at which any meeting of the Council is called a quorum of Members be not present, the Members present, or the majority of them, or any one Member, if one only be present, or the Secretary, if no Member be present, may adjourn such meeting to any time not longer than fourteen days from the date of such adjournment, providing that no meeting shall be held on a public holiday, and should an Ordinary Meeting fall on a holiday the Secretary shall be empowered to postpone the date of such meeting, and call it not later than ten days after the date on which it otherwise would have been held.

10. Minutes of the proceedings of every meeting of the Council or of any Committee shall be taken during their progress by the Secretary, or, in case of his absence, by some Member present whom the Chairman may appoint for the occasion. The minutes shall afterwards be fairly copied into a minute book kept for that purpose.

11. The Council shall, from time to time, draw up such By-laws as may appear to them expedient for conducting the proceedings of their own meetings, which shall be binding on the members of the Council, and all such By-laws shall be binding on all and every, the Governors and Members, Honorary, Honorary Scientific, and Corresponding Members, officers, and servants of the Society, as well as on all exhibitors or their assistants at the Society's Exhibition.

12. The Council may appoint Committees to examine into or take action on any special matter relating to the objects or business of the Society, and may dissolve such Committees whensoever they shall think proper.

13. The Council shall appoint a banker or bankers to the Society, to whom all sums of money received by the Secretary or other persons for the use of the Society shall be paid.

14. No money shall be drawn from the Society's banking account but by order of the Council, after a report from the Finance Committee, and by cheques signed by two members of such Committee, and countersigned by the Secretary. Entries shall be made of all such payments.

15. If any office-bearer, with the exception of the Trustees, shall be absent from three consecutive monthly meetings of the Council without leave having been obtained, his seat shall be declared vacant.

16. The Secretary shall notify to the Council, on the Agenda Paper, any vacancy which may have occurred in the list of President, Vice-Presidents, Trustees, or other members of the Council, at the meeting of the Council next after the happening of such vacancy; and such vacancy shall not be filled up until the monthly meeting of the Council which shall take place next after such notice.

17. In the absence of the President, the chair shall be taken by a Vice-President; and should none of these officers be present, then by such Member as the Council shall choose as their Chairman by a majority of votes.

18. The quorum of a Monthly or Special Council shall be five.

19. At every monthly meeting of Council the order of business shall be as follows:—

- (1.) Reading and confirming minutes of previous meeting.
- (2.) Business arising from minutes.
- (3.) Election of officers, and nominations for vacancies.
- (4.) Finance Committee's Report.
- (5.) Motions.
- (6.) Correspondence.
- (7.) Postponed business.
- (8.) Notices of motions.

20. All minutes and reports read at, and adopted by the Council shall be signed by the Chairman.

21. The report from the Council to the Annual Meeting in February shall be prepared at the Council meeting first in January or at some adjournment thereof.

COMMITTEES.

22. The Council shall elect such standing Committees at the monthly Council meeting in February as they think fit, which shall remain in office until the Annual General Meeting in the ensuing year, two members of Committee to form a quorum.

23. The President shall be ex officio a member of all committees.

24. Each Committee, at its first meeting, shall elect its own Chairman for the year, and in his absence a Chairman shall be elected by the Committee for the occasion.

25. All Committees shall make or adopt rules for the conduct of their business, and shall make a report of their proceedings to the Council, and shall hold office until they have made their respective reports; but in case such reports shall not have been made previous to the first Thursday in February next after their appointment, their powers shall then cease, providing that standing Committees shall retain office till their successors are appointed.

THE SECRETARY.

26. The Secretary shall be immediately responsible to the Council for the discharge of his various duties. He shall attend the sittings of all meetings of the Council, and of Committees, and shall keep all the Society's books. He shall also conduct the correspondence of the Society, and keep letter books, in which copies of all letters on the business of the Society shall be entered.

27. Under the direction of the Finance Committee, he shall be responsible for all moneys received, paying such sums into the hands of the Society's bankers, and producing at each meeting of the Finance Committee receipts for the same; and, excepting the amounts allowed him for petty cash, he shall not retain in his hands any money belonging to the Society, but shall pay it over forthwith to the Society's bankers. He shall have the charge of the expenditure of petty cash.

28. He shall have the custody of all books, models and papers belonging to the Society. All books, pamphlets, etc., becoming the property of the Society shall be stamped with the Society's stamp at once.

29. He shall have the immediate superintendence over the clerks and servants of the Society, and shall be required to report to the Council any instances of misconduct on their part which he thinks of such a nature as to require the consideration of the Council.

30. He shall find, if required, approved security to the amount of £500, the premium to be paid by the Society.

31. The Secretary shall not exercise any of the privileges of a Governor or Member of the Society.

FINANCE.

32. The Finance Committee shall have the immediate care of the Society's funds, and shall meet on the Friday before the ordinary Council meeting in each month, in order to prepare a report for the Council on the state of the Society's funds, which they shall present to each monthly meeting in the following form:—

MONTHLY CASH ACCOUNT ENDING

Balance of Petty Cash in hand last month ...				Payments by order of the Council
Balance at the Bank				Petty Cash Expended
Amount of Cash received by the Secretary ...				Balance in hand
				Bank
				Secretary ...

as well as a statement of the payments recommended to be made, together with all the books in which entries of cash receipts or payments are made, and such documents as the business of the day may require. Should a report from the Finance Committee not have been presented at the meeting of the Council, the Secretary shall report the state of the funds to the Council, in which case the Council shall vote the moneys required without such report.

33. The Chairman of the Finance Committee shall be the Honorary Treasurer of the Society.

34. All receipts for money received on behalf of the Society shall be out of a book with counterpart.

35. All moneys received and paid shall be entered daily in a general cash book.

36. Once in every year—not later than two weeks after the Preliminary General Meeting—there shall be an audit of the Society's accounts by a professional accountant, assisted by an honorary auditor, before whom a balance sheet shall be laid by the Secretary, which audited account shall be presented at the Annual Meeting.
