TWENTY-FIRST ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

COUNCIL

OF THE

Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria,

TO THE SUBSCRIBERS.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN,

The following is a report of the proceedings of the Society for the year 1891 :—

PERMANENT BUILDINGS AND WORKS.

The additions to such for the past year have been a very handsome Wine Kiosk, which is a great ornament to the grounds, and has given much satisfaction to wine exhibitors and growers, enabling them to place their produce before the public in such a way that exhibits can be tested under most pleasant and favourable conditions. The next is an extension of the Dog House, carrying it out to its full proposed size, viz., 143ft. in length and 33ft. in width, thus rendering it everything to be desired by the dog fancier.

The building near the railway gate, originally intended for poultry, was fitted up for sheep, answering the purpose admirably and leaving the half of their old building available for the fowls, where they were comfortably housed.

The sale ring has likewise been much improved and rendered thoroughly comfortable for breeders, buyers and their agents.

The amount expended on works through the year has been £1065 13s. 10d., bringing the total expenditure on permanent improvements on the grounds up to £28,390 1s. 7d.

THE EXHIBITIONS.

The Annual Exhibition was held for five days, viz., from the 25th to the 29th August inclusive. The extension of another day was made to do greater justice to stock sales, an object which was thoroughly attained. The very liberal amount of prizes offered (including £500 Grand Champion, and £876 15s. contributed and promised by private donors) brought together the finest number of exhibits ever seen in the Southern Hemisphere, and rarely excelled anywhere. The entries again topped those of previous year, they being 3726. The money taken for admissions, including £520 12s. 6d., at grand stand, amounted to £3264 15s. 9d., exceeding the takings of the previous year by £357 0s. 3d.

THE GRAIN SHOW.

In last report it was stated that the Council had abandoned the idea of holding an Autumn Grain Exhibition. Subsequent to that determination the Minister of Agriculture expressed his desire that a Show of Grain should be held to enable him to send home to Britain a produce trophy to be exhibited at the Royal and other Agricultural Exhibitions there. The object was taken up warmly by the Council, notably by Messrs. Blyth, Brunton and McCracken, who contributed ten guineas each. Goldsbrough, Mort & Co., kindly placed their warehouse at the disposal of the Council for the exhibition, which proved a great success as to number and quality of exhibits, and enabled the Minister to collect a trophy which evoked the astonishment and admiration of agriculturists and others in the Old Land.

THE COUNCIL.

Dr. Plummer, the retiring President, was unanimously re-elected at the first meeting of the Council. At the Council's meeting in April the President announced that owing to increasing infirmity consequent on his advanced age, he had determined to resign his office. The members of the Council evinced much surprise and regret at the contemplated step, and each and all pressed upon him to reconsider his intention and offered to lighten his duties as much as possible by renewed personal exertions, but he could not see his way to alter his decision, so the Council regretfully accepted his resignation, minuted a resolution expressing their sympathy with him, their opinion of the perfect manner in which he had carried out the duties of the office, and their admiration of his earnest endeavours to further the cause of agriculture "in and out of season." Mr. D. R. McGregor, a vice-president and one of the promoters of the Society, was elected President. It is pleasant to state that no other change through death or otherwise, has taken place in the personnel of the council during the year.

THE SECRETARY.

The Council regret very much that the health of their Secretary (Mr. Patterson) gave way in June to such an extent that a month's leave of absence had to be given to him. The necessary work of preparing for the Show was so pressing that Mr. Patterson, though far from strong, manfully returned to his office, and carried out his duties to a most successful issue. Immediately after the Show he applied for six months' leave of absence to enable him to take a sea voyage on the advice of his medical man. The Council willingly granted the application, and Mr. Patterson took a trip to "the Old Land," and, by last tidings, very much to the benefit of his health.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS,

The Council have again to acknowledge their indebtedness to His Excellency the Governor and the Countess of Hopetoun for their kind patronage of the Society's exhibitions, and to express their gratification at the keen interest manifested by them in the various sections of the Shows. They wish to renew their thanks to the Government and Parliament of Victoria for the annual grant of £500, offered as Grand Champion Prizes of Australia. They beg to convey their hearty thanks to donors of prizes for their increased liberality during a year of general depression. They also record their indebtedness to judges for their valuable services rendered gratuitously at great sacrifice of time and money, and the stewards for their like services. The Press is to be gratefully remembered for the great prominence given to the Society's operations.

FINANCE.

It will be seen from the financial statement that with the exception of premium from caterer from catalogues and donations, the income in every other item has increased. The revenue for the year was £7380 6s. 9d., independent of £485, which should have been received from the Government for Grand Champion Prizes, and would have reduced the overdraft of last year by £1049 17s. 9d., as the expenditure was only £6812 5s. 11d., thus with £1065 13s. 10d., expended on permanent improvements, showing a profit for the year of £2115 11s. 7d., as against £2416 19s. 5d. the previous year. The overdraft at 31st Dec. 1891 was £8638 15s. 3d., as against £9203 13s. year before.

D. R. MCGREGOR, PRESIDENT.

MELBOURNE, 27th January, 1892.

The President and Council of The Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria.

Gentlemen,—

We beg to report that we have this day closed the Audit of the books accounts, and vouchers of your Society for the year ending 31st December, 1891. The bank account has been gone over with bank pass-book, and the balance as stated is correct. We have found all to be correct, and in order, and we have certified to the balance-sheet.

We are, gentlemen,

Yours faithfully

- (3.) By collecting such information from Agricultural Publications and Scientific Works as may be useful in promoting the objects of the Society.
- (4.) By corresponding with Agricultural and other kindred Societies at home and abroad, and collecting from such correspondence all information which, in the opinion of the Council, may lead to practical benefit in the cultivation of the soil and breeding of stock, as well as in the prosecution of other important industries.
- (5.) By encouraging the attention of men of science to the discovery of better methods of cultivation, to the improvement of Agricultural implements and machinery, the construction of farm buildings, the application of chemistry to the general purposes of Agriculture, the destruction of insects injurious to vegetable life, and the eradication or utilisation of weeds.
- (6.) By promoting the discovery and introduction of new varieties of cereals, vegetables or grasses suitable to the climate, and capable of being cultivated with profit ; and also the introduction of desirable kinds and varieties of live stock.
- (7.) By collecting information regarding the management of plantations, live fences, and other subjects connected with rural improvement.

- (8.) By investigating the nature of diseases in animals or plants, and taking measures for the publication, at such times and periods as the Council may appoint, of the information thus collected, together with all approved original essays sent in, lectures delivered, or papers read to the Society; besides making provision for the establishment of a Library and Reading-room for the use of Members.
- (9.) By remunerating any person who shall undertake, at the request of the Council, to ascertain by experiment how far such information may lead to useful results in practice, for any loss incurred by such experiments.

3. The Society shall consist of a President, six Vice-Presidents, three Trustees, Governors, Members, Honorary Scientific Members (not exceeding six in number), and Corresponding Members.

4. The President shall be elected annually.

5. The President, Vice-Presidents and Trustees shall be elected from the class of Governors, being, or having been, Members of Council; and the Trustees may hold office until disqualified, or until they are removed in due form at the Annual or at a Special General Meeting of the Society.

6. Governors shall pay a subscription of three pounds, and Members, one pound annually, in advance, with power to compound for life by the payment in one sum of eight annual subscriptions.

7. Every candidate for admission into the Society, by giving his name and address, with his subscription, to the Secretary, shall be duly constituted a Member of the same, and shall have all the rights of Membership till the day after the Annual Meeting then next ensuing. Providing that when any subscription shall be paid in the name of any firm or company, any one Member of the same may exercise the rights and privileges belonging to the same, and may be elected to any office.

8. The Council shall consist of thirty-four Members, including the President, Vice-Presidents, and three Trustees, to be elected from the class of Governors only; the remainder to be elected indiscriminately from amongst the Governors and Members of the Society.

9. One-half of the Council, excepting the President and Trustees, shall retire annually, but be eligible for re-election.

10. The Council is to be regulated in its proceedings by such By-laws as may, and shall, from time to time, be enacted by it, conformably with the Constitution and objects of the Society; but no By-law shall in any case be altered, or new ones proposed, unless notice of such intention has been given at a previous meeting, and sent to each member of the Council.

11. The Council shall have sole management of the income and funds of the Society; and also the entire management and superintendence of all other affairs and concerns thereof.

12. The Council shall have power to appoint and remove all paid officers required for duly carrying out the objects of the Society.

13. The Council shall have power to elect Honorary, Scientific and Corresponding Members; notice of such intention having been given at a previous meeting, and a circular having been sent to each member of the Council.

14. All Governors and Honorary Scientific Members may attend meetings of the Council, and take part in discussions thereat, but shall not have power to vote.

15. The Council may fill up any vacancies in its own body created by death, resignation, or occurring in any other way amongst its office-bearers.

16. The Society's financial year shall end on the 31st of December; and a Preliminary General Meeting shall be held on the third Thursday in January, to arrange the business and receive notices of motion for the Annual General Meeting, to appoint Auditors, and to nominate gentlemen to fill the places of retiring office-bearers.

17. The Annual General Meeting shall be held in Melbourne on the third Thursday in February; at which meeting the Annual Report and Balance-sheet shall be read, all office-bearers elected, and any other business transacted of which due notice may have been given.

18. Fourteen days at least before the Annual General Meeting the President or his deputy shall send or cause to be sent to all Subscribers to the Society (Governors or Members) a ballot paper with the names of all candidates who have been duly nominated, and each Subscriber desiring to vote shall erase therefrom all names he thinks fit. Provided that any ballot paper containing more than the required number of names shall be rejected by the President or his deputy. All such ballot papers shall be signed by the subscriber voting, and shall be returned sealed, on or before the closing of the poll, which shall be at 3 o'clock, p.m. on the day of the election, and the said ballot papers shall be opened and counted when the Returning Officer is making up the Poll.

19. The Secretary shall report to the Meeting of Council next after the Annual Meeting the gentlemen elected to fill the vacancies, and the minutes shall be confirmed at the following Annual Meeting.

20. A Special General Meeting of the Society may be called at any time by the Secretary, on direction of the President, or on the requisition of ten members of the Society; but no business shall be transacted at any such meeting other than that for which it has been called.

21. A Special Meeting of the Council may be summoned by direction of the President, or of three members of the Council; but no business then transacted shall be valid unless confirmed by special resolution by the next Monthly Council.

22. The privilege of membership shall consist of power to vote at the election of office-bearers, of free admission to the Library, Reading-room, Lectures, and, with two ladies, to the Society's Exhibitions and ground at all times.

23. Any Member guilty of conduct calculated to bring the Society into discredit in connection with its exhibitions or other objects shall be liable to be brought before the Council, and if found guilty shall be subject to reprimand, or to have his name expunged from the roll of Members, and may be disqualified from exhibiting during the pleasure of the Council.

24. These rules shall not be altered except by a majority of the Members present at the Annual or at a Special General Meeting of not less than ten Members, exclusive of members of Council.

BY-LAWS.

GENERAL MEETINGS.

1. Public notice of the Preliminary, Annual and Special General Meetings of the Society shall be given in such newspapers as the Council may decide, and by circular through post to every Governor and Member ; and all matters, except the election of the office-bearers at the Annual Meeting, shall be determined by a show of hands, unless a division be called for. At every Annual General Meeting a Report, together with a Financial Statement from the Council shall be read, and any Governor or Member present may propose any questions to the Council respecting the matters contained in such report and comment thereon ; or may refer to such other matters relating to the government of the Society and the management of its affairs as to him may seem proper ; provided that his remarks have reference to some motion of which notice has been previously given at the Preliminary General Meeting.

2. At the Preliminary General Meeting in January, Notices of Motion for the Annual General Meeting in the following month will be received, Auditors appointed, and gentlemen nominated to fill the places of retiring office-bearers. Previous to the day of meeting, the Council shall have prepared a list of Governors and Members whom they propose to fill the vacant offices of President, Vice-Presidents, and Members of Council ; to which list of candidates the names of any other Governors and Members may be added on their being duly proposed and seconded at the meeting.

3. The Council at the First Ordinary Meeting after the Annual Election, shall elect its own President and three Vice-Presidents.

4. The President or his deputy shall conduct the Election at the Annual General Meeting, at which meeting two or more scrutineers shall be chosen by the President or his deputy to assist in making up the state of the poll.

5. Should it be deemed advisable to remove one or more of the Trustees from office, notice to that effect must be given at the Preliminary General Meeting, or one month previous to any Special General Meeting. Governors to fill the vacancies, if any, must also be nominated at the former meeting, and elected at the latter. Extraordinary vacancies amongst the Trustees may be filled up by the Council, or at the Annual General Meeting.

THE PRESIDENT.

6. The President shall, in all official relations of the Society, take precedence of all other Governors and members, and shall take the chair, when present, having (as well as any other Chairman of the Council) the privilege of a casting vote in addition to his own in all cases of equality in a division on any question. He shall sign all such letters, votes of thanks, and other documents as the Council may direct to be written in the name and on behalf of the Council.

THE COUNCIL.

7. The Council shall hold a Meeting at least every month, on such day and at such hour as the Council may decide, for the transaction of the business of the Society, and may adjourn from time to time at their discretion.

8. At the Monthly Meetings the Council shall have full power to originate, discuss and decide, by a majority of votes, on a show of hands, all questions, not involving an unusual outlay of money, brought before it; provided that if any Member present regard any proposition brought forward as too important for immediate decision, he may object, and demand the usual month's notice, whereupon all discussion on the question shall cease.

9. No motion, the effect of which, if carried, would be to rescind any motion previously passed by the Council during the same year, shall be entertained unless one month's notice be given to the Council.

10. The ruling of the Chairman shall be final in all matters of order and practice.

11. If before half an hour after the time at which any Meeting of the Council is called, a quorum of Members be not present, the Members present, or the majority of them, or any one Member if only one be present, or the Secretary if no Member be present, may adjourn such meeting to any time not longer than fourteen days from the date of such adjournment.

12. Minutes of the proceedings of every Meeting of the Council, or of any Committee, shall be taken during their progress by the Secretary, or in case of his absence, by some Member present, whom the Chairman may appoint for the occasion. The minutes shall afterwards be fairly copied into a minute book kept for that purpose.

13. The Council shall, from time to time, draw up such By-laws as may appear to them expedient for conducting the proceedings of their own meetings, which shall be binding on the Members of Council, for the good management of the Society and its concerns ; and all such By-laws shall be binding on all and every, the Governors, and Members, Honorary and Corresponding Members, Officers and Servants of the Society, as well as on all Exhibitors, or their Assistants, at the Society's Exhibitions.

14. The Council may appoint Committees to examine into or take action on any special matters relating to the objects or business of the Society, and may dissolve such Committees whenever they shall think proper.

15. The Council shall appoint a Banker or Bankers to the Society, to whom all sums of money received by the Secretary or other persons for the use of the Society shall be paid.

16. No money shall be drawn from the Society's Banking Account but by order of the Council, after a report from the Finance Committee, and by cheques signed by two Members of such Committee, and countersigned by the Secretary. A book shall be kept in which a consecutive entry shall be made of all such payments.

17. If any office-bearer, with the exception of the Trustees, shall be absent from three consecutive Monthly Meetings of the Council without leave having been obtained, his seat shall be declared vacant.

18. The Secretary shall notify to the Council, on the Agenda Paper, any vacancy which may have occurred in the list of President, Vice-Presidents, Trustees, or Members of Council, at the Meeting of Council next after the happening of such vacancy ; and such vacancy shall not be filled up until the Monthly Meeting of the Council, which shall take place next after such notice.

19. In the absence of the President, the chair shall be taken by a Vice-President ; and should neither of such officers be present, then by such Member as the Council shall choose as their Chairman by a majority of votes.

20. The quorum of a Monthly or Special Council shall be five.

21. At every Monthly Meeting of Council the order of business shall be as follows :—(1). Reading and confirming minutes of previous meeting. (2). Election of officers, and nomination for vacancies. (3). Finance Committee's Report, (4). Postponed business. (5). Correspondence. (6). Motions. (7). Notices of Motions.

22. All minutes and reports read at, and adopted by, the Council shall be signed by the Chairman.

23. The report from the Council to the Annual Meeting, in February, shall be prepared at the Council Meeting first in that month, or at some adjournment thereof.

COMMITTEES.

24. The Council shall elect such standing Committees at the Monthly Council Meeting in March as they think fit, which shall remain in office until the Annual General Meeting in the ensuing year.

25. Each Committee, at its first meeting, shall elect its own Chairman for that year, and in his absence a Chairman shall be elected by the Committee for the occasion; and any Member of any such Committee who shall absent himself from three consecutive meetings without leave shall thereupon cease to be a Member of such Committee, and the vacancy so created shall be filled up at the next Council Meeting ensuing.

26. All Committees may make or adopt rules for the conduct of their business, and shall make a report of their proceedings to the Council, and shall sit until they have made their respective reports; but in case such reports shall not have been made previous to the third Thursday in February next after their appointment, their powers shall then cease.

THE SECRETARY.

27. The Secretary shall be immediately responsible to the Council for the discharge of his various duties. He shall attend the sittings of all meetings of the Council, and shall conduct the correspondence of the Society, and keep letter books, in which copies of all letters on the business of the Society shall be entered.

28. Under the direction of the Finance Committee he shall be responsible for all money received, paying such sums into the hands of the Society's Bankers, and producing at each meeting of the Finance Committee receipts for the same; and, excepting the amount allowed him for petty cash, he shall not retain in his hands any money belonging to the Society, but shall pay it over forthwith to the Society's Bankers. He shall have charge of the expenditure of petty cash.

29. He shall have the custody of all books, models and papers belonging to the Society. All books, pamphlets, &c., becoming the property of the Society, shall be stamped with the Society's stamp at once.

30. He shall have the immediate superintendence over the clerks and servants of the Society, and shall be required to report to the Council any instances of misconduct on their part which he thinks of such a nature as to require the consideration of the Council.

31. He shall find, if required, approved security to the amount of £500, the premium to be paid by the Society.

32. The Secretary shall not exercise any of the privileges of a Governor or Member of the Society.

FINANCE.

33. The Finance Committee shall have the immediate care of the Society's accounts, and shall meet on the Friday before the ordinary Council meeting in each month, in order to prepare a report for the Council on the state of the Society's funds, which they shall present to each Monthly Meeting, and lay before it in the following form :—

MONTHLY CASH ACCOUNT ENDING.

Balance of Petty Cash in hand last month				Payments by order of the Council ..
				Petty Cash expended
Balance at the Bank				Balance in hand ...

Amount of Cash re- ceived by the Secre- tary				Secretary ...

as well as a statement of the payments recommended to be made, together with all the books in which entries of cash receipts or payments are made, and such documents as the business of the day may require. Should a report from the Finance Committee not have been presented to the Meeting of Council, the Secretary shall report the state of the funds to the Council, in which case the Council should vote the moneys required without such report.

34. The Chairman of the Finance Committee shall be the Honorary Treasurer of the Society.

35. All receipts for money received on behalf of the Society shall be out of a book with counterpart.

36. All moneys received and paid shall be entered daily in a general cash book.

37. Once in every year, not later than two weeks after the Preliminary General Meeting, there shall be an Audit of the Society's accounts by a professional accountant, before whom a balance-sheet shall be laid by the Secretary, which audited account shall be presented at the Annual Meeting.
