SIXTIETH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE COUNCIL
ROYAL AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY OF VICTORIA.

To the Members.

Ladies and Gentlemen,—

Your Council has pleasure in presenting the following report of proceedings of the Society for the year 1930.

Permanent Buildings and Works.

Very little in the way of permanent improvements was carried out during the year, your Council having decided to concentrate upon improving existing facilities.

With this end in view, authority was given the successful tenderers of catering privileges to remodel both the Carriage Pavilion Tearoom and the Machinery Ground Refreshment Kiosk, the work in both instances being performed in a highly satisfactory manner.

The Pigeon House was extended so as to provide about 30 per cent. additional accommodation. The Agricultural Hall was remodelled, and as a result an appreciable increase in space was obtained.

Your Council having purchased two allotments of land having a total frontage of 100 feet to Epsom-road, together with the Drill Hall erected thereon, several improvements were carried out in this building, and it was made more suitable for the exhibition of women's work exhibits.

Eight additional feed stalls were provided in the Horse Pavilions, and many other improvements of a minor character were undertaken. The total expenditure during the year, including the purchase of the Drill Hall amounted to £1889/13/10.

Many of the roads and paths were surfaced with tar, the buildings were improved in appearance and preserved by adequate painting; the purchase of a motor mower assisted considerably in maintaining the arena and lawns at a high standard, and the flower gardens were again amongst the most distinctive features of the grounds.

The Exhibition.

The Society's Annual Exhibition was held from 18th to 27th September, 1930. The Prize Schedule was revised early in the year and liberal prizes were again offered for competition.

A record entry was received, and the general standard of quality of the exhibits was satisfactorily high.

The space both inside the exhibit halls and about the grounds was fully occupied.

Taking all things into consideration, including the moderately favourable weather, the attendances were fairly satisfactory, the aggregate showing a reduction of 35,053 on last year's figures, which, in turn, were a long way below the record attendance of 318,457 established in 1925. The aggregate attendance at last Show was 219,611. The gate money, including £1195/13/- from the grandstands, amounted to £13,275/13/10, showing a falling-off of £2977/0/5 on last year's takings, and a falling-off of £9270/8/7 on the record takings in 1925.

For the purpose of comparison, the following table is published to show the number of entries in the several sections for the last two years:—

| Total Competitive Entries | 10,030 | 10,372 |

Although the Clydesdales were not so numerous as last year, the standard of quality was well maintained, and there were abundant evidences of an increased interest in horses generally. Amongst the light horses and ponies competition was about equal to recent years, but in the utility sections there was a slight increase in numbers, and some very fine animals were exhibited.

While Shorthorns were about equal to those of last year, there was a regrettable falling-off in the Hereford Section. In the neighbouring States this breed appears to be gaining in favour, and it is hoped that in the near future Victoria may be able to make a much better display.

The dairy breeds were splendidly represented on the whole, quality and lack of "tail" being the outstanding characteristics. Jerseys and Ayrshires are still by far the most popular breeds.

The Milk and Butter Fat Tests were again keenly contested.

Never before in the history of the Society has there been such a high-class exhibition of sheep. Not only were the entries in record numbers, but the high standard of quality had never previously been attained. Notwithstanding the big increase in accommodation recently provided, every pen was occupied. Border Leicesters, English Leicesters, Romney Marsh and Shropshires all showed increases on last year's figures, while Southdowns were 150 per cent. in excess of those of recent years.

Fleeces and skins were displayed to advantage in the Government Pavilion, but the number of the exhibits is hardly in keeping with the importance of the wool-growing industry.

There were magnificent exhibits in the swine section, and the numbers were slightly in excess of those of last year. Six different breeds of pigs were represented, and keen competition was maintained throughout. The prizes for bacon and pork pigs were also keenly contested, and the manner in which these were judged proved of educational value to breeders.

Although the poultry was not in quite the same numbers as last year, there were some excellent specimens of their respective breeds, the utility classes being particularly interesting. The pigeon and dog exhibits were in greater number, and of better quality, than formerly.

A display of squabs in the Pigeon House and the establishment of a puppy creche in connection with the Dog Pavilion proved to be of great interest to Show patrons.

The alterations carried out at the Agricultural Hall enabled the five district exhibits to be displayed under uniform conditions, and the result was beyond the expectation of your Council. Never before were better displays made, nor was the average standard of quality ever so high previously. The keenness of the competition has necessitated more complete organisation, and as this has entailed greater expenditure, it has been decided to increase by 50 per cent. the organising allowance to each Society.

Farm produce was displayed in increased quantity and of good quality, and in the State Schools' Section for produce of all kinds there was an increase of over 100 per cent. on that of last year, and the whole display was of great educational value.

The dairy produce section was disappointing, particularly by reason of the fact that the judge declined to award any prizes in the butter classes either on account of the poor standard of quality or for not complying with some of the stipulations—particularly that relating to moisture content.

Last year's phenomenal entry in the Wine Section was not maintained, but the judges reported most favourably upon the quality of the exhibits.

When the unsuitability of the spring season is taken into consideration, the exhibit of fruit at the Society's Annual Shows is highly creditable. Apiculture, though still poorly represented, showed an advance on the displays of recent years.

For the first time an entry of over 1200 was received in Women's Work. This section is steadily increasing in popularity, inferior work is each year becoming lower in proportion, and now that the Society owns the building in which this work is displayed, the facilities can be gradually improved and extended.

The arena contests were well filled, and provided most diversified programmes. The conditions of the trotting contests have already been revised for next Show, and this feature promises to become even more popular in the years to come.

The judging and similar competitions were keenly contested, and excellent work was performed by those who undertook the work of adjudication in these classes.

The Department of Agriculture is to be congratulated upon having made another most attractive and educational exhibition of the primary producing activities of the State. The Forestry Department and the State Rivers and Water Supply Commission again assisted by staging very fine displays.

The stands of agricultural and dairy machinery, those displaying motor-cars and trucks, and the general industrial stands were staged in a most attractive manner, and your Council expressed its gratitude to all those exhibitors who, by their co-operation, assisted so materially in adding to the attractiveness of the Show.

The Railway Department handled the live stock and much of the machinery and general produce in a highly satisfactory manner, and, together with the Metropolitan Tramway Board, transported passengers to and from the city as efficiently as could be desired.

The catering at the grounds shows a steady improvement, and as the facilities are improved a gradual increase of efficiency should be expected.

The garden plots and lawns were again most favourably commented upon, and the provision of a floral clock proved to be a most popular feature.

The roads and paths were in excellent order, and in all phases of weather this added to the comfort of Show patrons.

The Australian Society of Breeders of British Sheep.

During the year a branch of this Society was established in New South Wales, with temporary headquarters at Wagga, and now, with the exception of Queensland, every State, including Tasmania, has its own branch. Principally owing to the decline in wool values, British breeds of sheep are at present in very good demand for begetting lambs, and this accounts in a large measure for the record number of 855 registered flocks appearing in Vol. 22 of the Flock Book, published in May last. It is expected that when Vol. 23 is issued in a few months, that the number of flocks included therein will exceed 900. The continued progress of this Society is very gratifying, particularly in view of the fact that in the year 1898 the first volume of the Flock Book was printed by the "Royal," and until the control of the book was handed over to the breeders themselves in 1925, the publication was issued by a committee appointed by your Council.

The secretarial work of both the Federal Council and the Victorian Branch of the Society is performed by the office staff, and as evidence of the wisdom of the Council's policy of encouraging the location of various breed societies in this office, it is only necessary to recall the record entry of high-grade sheep penned at the last exhibition. This entry was due in a large measure to the fact that breeders come into personal contact with the staff in connection with the registration of their stock, and the opportunity is thereby afforded of inducing them to exhibit.

Your Council is appreciative of the practical support accorded the Show by the Victorian Branch. During the last five years the sum of £240 has been donated to the prize fund, and, in addition, the branch is of considerable assistance in the matter of nominating judges and recommending alterations to the classification of the Sheep Sections.

Following its usual custom, the Branch conducted a flock sheep sale at Newmarket in November. The record number of 5,212 sheep from registered flocks was entered, and although, with the exception of one or two breeds, prices were very low, the majority of the yarding was disposed of. This annual clearance is a great boon to registered breeders, and it is hoped that the time is not far distant when sheepbreeders will realise the advantage of buying nothing but registered sheep.

The Commonwealth Clydesdale Horse Society.

This Society is looking forward to the future with every confidence, in view of the decided swing back to horses that is so apparent on farms and in the cities throughout the Commonwealth, and feels that this recognition of the economy of horse usage is in no small measure due to its publicity work during recent years.

Great reliance had been placed on the outcome of the proposed investigation into the Farm Power Problem, and correspondingly great regret was felt when the action of the Federal Government in connection with the Development and Migration Commission prevented that investigation being carried out. However, the Society feels to some extent compensated for the loss of the Commission's confidently anticipated finding, by the fact that so many leaders of thought throughout the Commonwealth have publicly drawn attention to the national benefits which will follow a reversion to horses—bred in the country and fed on the country's produce—and a discontinuance of the practice of sending millions of pounds annually out of the country in the purchase of tractors and trucks and their petrol and oil requirements.

In July last arrangements were completed under which the Society's "Monthly Horse News" is printed, instead of being distributed as a typewritten circular. Under these arrangements the "News" reaches a much wider public, and the facilities thus provided for suitable illustrations make its contents more attractive and of greater interest to readers.

The Federal Council of the Society published the fifth volume of the Commonwealth Clydesdale Stud Book early in June, and at its September meeting resolved that entries for the sixth volume should close with Branch Secretaries on 31st December. As soon as all entries are in hand, compilation of the volume will be proceeded with.

The Victorian Branch, which has always been the strongest, has made steady progress during the year, and the revival of interest in heavy horse breeding in this State may be gauged by the fact that over forty new members have been enrolled, and the reports of full seasons for stallions augur well for the Clydesdale breed and the heavy horse sections at future shows.

In this connection it might be mentioned that, in accordance with a recommendation from the Branch Committee, your Council decided to inaugurate two separate Sires' Produce Sweepstakes in the Clydesdale Section, instead of one as in previous years.

Your Council supported this Society in its endeavours to secure Interstate recognition of Government Certificates of Soundness, believing that if a common standard were adopted by the various State Governments it would be in the best interests of the breed and breeders, and would also tend to increase representation of the chief studs in other States at our annual Shows.

The Shorthorn Society of Australia.

Through the lamentable death of Mr. D. C. Morpeth in June last, this Society lost one who had had sixty years' association with Shorthorn breeders, and had not only rendered yeoman service as Honorary Secretary since the Society was formed, but prior to that date had edited the first volume of the Shorthorn Herd Book of Australia and had retained the position of Editor up to the time of his death.

In accordance with a request from the Society, your Council concurred in the appointment as Editor of the Herd Book and Secretary to the Federal Council and Victorian Branch of Mr. Louis Monod, who had for many years assisted Mr. Morpeth in carrying on the Society's work.

Entries for the sixth volume of the Herd Book closed on 31st December, and the work of compilation was at once commenced, with a view to having everything in readiness for the Easter meeting of the Federal Council in Sydney, at which important decisions are to be arrived at regarding not only the form in which future volumes will be presented, but the frequency with which they will be published.

A greater interest in the breeding of stud Shorthorns in this State is indicated by the fact that several new members have been enrolled by the Victorian Branch, and the sixth volume will contain pedigrees of animals bred in herds not represented in earlier volumes of the Herd Book.

At our last Show entries in the Shorthorn section were, on the recommendation of this Society, restricted to registered stock, and, considering the season, general satisfaction was expressed at the number of entries received and the quality of the stock exhibited.

As a result of arrangements made by the Federal President, a big display is to be made, in the interests of the Shorthorn breed, in the Metropolitan Meat Board's pavilion at the forthcoming Sydney Royal Show.

Recollections of the splendidly staged and highly educational exhibits displayed in this pavilion cause one to hope that ere long your Council will be able to arrange for carcasses of steers, fat lambs and pigs entered in the classes provided in our Prize Schedule to be displayed under equally favourable conditions on our grounds.

The Red Poll Cattle Breeders' Association of Australasia.

This Association has continued its uninterrupted progress throughout the year, mainly because of the action of its members in publicly demonstrating the dual-purpose characteristics of the breed it fosters.

Optimism regarding the future prevails because of the success which has followed such demonstrations during the past year, not only under test for milk and butter-fat production, but in the class for Export Steers at our last Show, when a pair of Red Poll steers was placed first, with 95 points out of the possible 100. These successes have been reflected in the keen interest now being displayed in the Red Poll breed throughout Australia, an interest which has been created by the publicity work carried out under the direction of the live committee which controls the Association.

Several new members have been enrolled, and previous records are obviously going to be broken when entries for the sixth volume of the Association's Herd Book close on 30th June next. This volume will contain the pedigrees of a number of animals which have been imported since the previous volume was published.

In common with other breed Societies, the big majority of the members of this Association reside in Victoria, and the fact that the strongest competition amongst representatives of the breed is at Melbourne has prompted the English Red Poll Cattle Society to offer a gold medal for competition at our next Royal Show.

The Milking Shorthorn Cattle Breeders' Association of Victoria.

As its name implies, the operations of this Association are at present confined to Victoria, in which State steady progress has been made throughout the year. New members have been enrolled and new herds registered, and what the Association lacks in numbers is more than made up by the confidence of members in the future of their particular breed of cattle, representatives of which have achieved the highest honours, not only in the milk and butter-fat tests conducted on our Show Grounds, but under the Government Official Herd Testing Scheme.

Consideration is now being given to a suggestion to alter the name of the Association, to widen its scope and at the same time bring it more into line with the Dairy Shorthorn Association, which fosters the interests of this dual-purpose breed at Home, and to which the classification adopted by this Association is similar. Adoption of the suggestion should do much to obviate confusion that at present exists, and result in increased support and more rapid progress in the immediate future.

Pending the publication of its Herd Book, the Association has launched a publicity scheme and is creating a reserve fund, which will ensure that it will not be hampered financially in the attainment of the objects for which it was established.

The Ayrshire Cattle Herd Book Society of Australasia.

The Federal Council of this Society published the twenty-second volume of its Herd Book during the year, and entries for the twenty-third volume, which closed at the beginning of this month, provide evidence of the continued progress which this popular dairy breed is making throughout the Commonwealth.

The improved financial position has enabled the Federal Council to make special grants to Branches for propaganda work, and in each of the States a proportion of this money will be devoted to some form of encouragement to breeders to submit their herds to public test, and thus make more widely known the capabilities of the breed in the production of milk and butter fat.

In Victoria, where this Society has its strongest Branch, efforts are being made to induce a greater number of members to test their stock, and to that end it has been resolved to offer special prizes for the Best Ayrshire Herd and Best Ayrshire Cow under Official Test during the year ending 30th June, 1931.

This resolution was passed in preference to offering prizes for competition at Country Shows, as in former years, not only because, in the national interest, it was necessary to encourage increased production, but because any member could compete irrespective of his place of residence.

A better understanding of the Calf Register has led to a much more satisfactory notification of the birth of calves from Herd Book cows. Members now support the rule, and agree that the marking of calves for identification purposes is a step in the right direction, removing all doubt of identity and leading to a greater confidence by purchasers. The rule regarding transfers is also being more generally observed, as breeders recognise in it the chief avenue through which the membership of the Society may be increased.

The Friesian Cattle Club of Australia.

With a view to facilitating the working of the various Branches and meeting the wishes of breeders in some States, the Federal Council of this Club at its last meeting decided to make it optional with Branches as to whether photographs or diagrams be submitted with entries. This resolution was adopted on the distinct understanding that those animals for which diagrams are accepted must be passed on actual inspection by an official inspector, at the expense of the entrant.

The tenth volume of the Herd Book was published early in the year, and at its meeting in Sydney at Easter the Federal Council will decide the date of publication of Volume 11.

The Victorian Branch still maintains its paramount position, having more members than all other Branches combined, a position that is by no means dissociated with the performances of Friesian females under Official Test in this State.

Competition in the Friesian Section at our Annual Shows has been stimulated through the donation of several valuable trophies by the Club and its members.

The Guernsey Cattle Society of Australasia (Victorian Branch).

The Committee of this Branch is confident of an ever-increasing popularity for the Guernsey breed in Victoria, as public tests reveal its capabilities in milk and butter-fat production.

During the past year the Guernsey studs in this State were greatly strengthened by numerous importations of animals representative of the best blood obtainable in England, America and Guernsey Island.

The progress of this breed is at present governed by the number of females available for sale, but as these become more numerous new studs will be established, and the membership of the Society increased accordingly.

The Federal Council, which is now representative of properly constituted Branches in Queensland, New South Wales, Western Australia and Victoria, published the eighth and largest volume of the Society's Herd Book in August last, and at its last meeting made special grants to Branches to enable propaganda work to be carried out.

With this welcome addition to its funds, the Victorian Branch Committee hopes to encourage the development of the breed in this State, and looks forward to the day when the Guernsey Section will be as prominent at our Royal Show as it is in England and other countries where the dairy qualities of the breed are better known, and consequently appreciated. A real factor in furthering the interests of the breed in Victoria is the Guernsey Breeders' Club at Sale, which has not only kept the breed prominently under notice in its own district, but has been instrumental in the exhibition of a number of representative animals at our recent Royal Shows.

The Australasian Jersey Herd Society (Victorian Branch).

As has been the case for years past, this Branch has not only maintained its leading position, but has added materially to its already large membership, and can justly claim to be the strongest organisation of its kind in the Commonwealth.

With the funds at its disposal the Committee has been enabled not only to maintain the standard of the propaganda work carried out in previous years, but to appoint a full-time officer, whose duties, in addition to those of an official inspector, embrace publicity work and the rendering of all possible assistance to the members with whom he comes into personal contact during his tours throughout the State—a service of which members have already expressed their appreciation.

The Federal Council, which published the sixteenth volume of the Society's Stud Book in September last, is just about to distribute copies of the seventeenth volume, thus making up for the delay occasioned by the decision to have each animal examined before publication of its pedigree.

The Society's official journal, "The Jersey in Australia," has also been issued by the Federal Council at quarterly intervals throughout the year, and at the Easter meeting further consideration is to be given to the advisability of continuing the publication of this journal or adopting some other scheme deemed more likely to assist in increasing the popularity of the Jersey breed throughout Australia. Whatever course is decided upon, Jersey breeders in Victoria will benefit materially, because of the fact that the Official Test is more universally supported in this State than elsewhere, and their Jerseys have, by weight of numbers and excellent records, maintained that position in competition with other breeds which has created such wide publicity in the past, and resulted in such satisfactory sales to breeders in other States of animals combining both type and production.

An innovation at the Annual General Meeting of members of this Branch, held during our last Royal Show, was the exhibition of moving pictures taken during the judging of Jerseys exhibited at the Royal Shows in Brisbane, Sydney, Adelaide and Melbourne. Members were thus enabled to gain some idea of the popularity of their favourite breed in the several States, and also of the type and quality of the stock exhibited.

The Australian Illawarra Shorthorn Society (Victorian Branch).

Formally constituted in April last, this Branch has already been accorded the enthusiastic support of thirty-five breeders, from amongst whom a strong Committee was elected at a general meeting held during our last Show.

In accordance with its well-known policy, your Council agreed to the secretarial work being undertaken by its staff, and a considerable number of entries has already been received for inclusion in the first volume of the Herd Book, which closes in April next.

Each animal submitted for registration in this Society's Herd Book has to be passed on inspection and to be branded by an official inspector before its pedigree is published, and in this connection the Branch was fortunate in being able to secure the services of a breeder, now resident in Victoria, where the breed has only comparatively recently been introduced, who has had a wide experience in Queensland, where the type of animal fostered by this new Society has been bred for many years.

Notwithstanding the set-back occasioned by the exhibits brought to our last Royal Show by exhibitors from another State, the Committee of this Branch is confident that there is a great future for this Australian breed of dairy cattle in Victoria, and it aims to organise at future Shows displays which will be truly representative of the class of cattle the Society has been formed to foster.

The combined membership of the two bodies which amalgamated when this Society was established made it, from the outset, one of the strongest organisations of cattle breeders in Australia, and with the assistance of the Federal Council, which comprises representatives of the various State Branches, the Victorian Committee is confident of its ability to advance the interests of the Illawarra in this State, where other dairy breeds are already so strongly entrenched.

The Victorian United Cow Testing Association.

As intimated in last report, the secretarial work of this Association was undertaken by our staff early in the year, and the development of the Herd Testing Movement has progressed very satisfactorily, there being half as many more cows under test than in the previous year.

The strength of this Association lies in the fact that it is now 100 per cent. representative of the Local Herd Testing Associations right throughout the State, all of which are affiliated and working under uniform rules. There are 140 units at work, and it is expected that 3400 herds will be tested during this season. Heifer calves from certificated cows under test with 50 of these units are already being marked for identification under an optional scheme launched by the Association last year.

It is indeed a matter for regret that the present Government found it necessary to reduce the amount of its financial support of this movement, for the subsidisation of these Local Herd Testing Associations has proved to be one of the soundest investments of Government funds, and has enabled testing to be carried out on such an extensive scale that in some districts more than 50 per cent. of the dairy cows are under test, the Morwell district being in the lead with more than 90 per cent.

As an instance of the value of this herd testing movement in raising the average production of dairy herds throughout the State, we are pleased to report that no less than 280 of the illuminated certificates issued by your Council have already been presented to dairy farmers whose herds under Association test have averaged over 300 lbs. of butter fat per cow in 273 days.

This Association does not only encourage the testing of dairy herds, but endeavours to raise the average production of those herds by advocating the use of pure bred bulls bred from officially tested stock, and the provision on the farms of adequate supplies of fodder and improved pastures to ensure that each cow will be able to produce up to her full capacity.

With this end in view, a State-wide Dairy Farm Competition—the biggest thing of its kind yet attempted in Victoria—was conducted by the Association, and proved very successful. Eighty-eight farms in all parts of the State competed for numerous valuable trophies presented by Commonwealth Fertilizers and Chemicals Ltd. Judging was concluded at the end of the year, and, as a result of this competition, for which a very comprehensive scale of points was drawn up, a fund of information has been made available that will be of great assistance in the further development of the dairying industry, not only in Victoria, but throughout the Commonwealth, because the fundamental object of the competition was to ascertain what amount of butter fat can be produced per £100 worth of land.

The Australian Stud Pig Breeders' Society.

The progress made by this Society during the past year is shown in the greater number of members enrolled, and the increase in all departments of its activities. The twenty-first volume of its Herd Book, which has just been published by the Federal Council, has assumed record proportions, and is evidence that stud pig breeding has rapidly recovered from the serious set-back caused by the widespread outbreak of swine fever some few years ago.

Having a flourishing Branch in each of the six States, and a set of Rules in operation which require notification of the birth of litters within 21 days, application for adult registration within 15 months, and the proper transfer of ownership of pigs sold, the Society has for some considerable time been endeavouring to evolve a system of marking pigs for identification which would be equally applicable to the nine different breeds for which it caters.

The Federal Council is unanimously of opinion that tattooing is preferable to all other methods, and as experiments have so far failed to reveal a satisfactory fluid or paste for the tattooing of black breeds, it will at its Easter meeting consider the advisability of requiring the tattooing of other breeds, and formal notification to the Society of the identification marks on each animal. Consideration will also be given to the advisability of extending the period for the notification of the birth of litters, to enable particulars of identification marks to be given at the same time.

The Victorian Branch, which is still by far the strongest unit of the Society, has, through its representative on the Pig Industry Committee, maintained its interest in all efforts to improve conditions in the industry, and has also expended a considerable amount of money in the subsidisation of carcase competitions at the Royal Show, and classes for bacon pigs at selected country shows.

This Branch also enlisted the support of your Council and the Chamber of Agriculture in its efforts to secure a reduction in the amount of Pig Compensation Fund tax from 2d. to 1d. in the £, and to induce the Government to legislate that pollard and bran and all other stock foods, mineral licks and condiments be sold with a card attached to each bag or package, showing an analysis of its contents and the manufacturer's name.

The Victorian Working Sheep Dog Association.

This Association is steadily progressing towards attainment of the objects for which it was established. As a result of the cordial invitation referred to in our last report, the Association has been considerably strengthened by the affiliation of Agricultural Societies and other bodies which conduct Sheep Dog Trials throughout the State. With 35 affiliated bodies conducting trials under its Rules, the Association has done much to ensure that uniformity which is in the best interests of all concerned, and the Committee has been greatly encouraged in its efforts to ensure that the Association will be fully representative of competitors and of trials throughout Victoria.

During the year, in the interval between the usual Open Trials, the Association conducted a Drovers' Trial and two Sweepstakes Trials to enable members to try out their dogs, and at the same time provide an opportunity for them to arrive at uniformity in all matters pertaining to Trials. As a further means to this end, a cordial invitation was extended to members of the Association, judges, and representatives of affiliated bodies to be present at a Smoke Social during our last Royal Show, when, after a short address by that well-known enthusiast, Mr. T. White, the whole question was fully and beneficially discussed.

The Kennel Control Council of Victoria.

For a great many years progress of the canine fancy in Victoria has been retarded by the divergent controls under which it has been forced to function. With this in mind, the Canine Control Council, with the Victorian Poultry and Kennel Club and the Victorian Kennel Association, subsequent to a conference of representatives convened by your Council, agreed to form a new body, which would assume complete control of canine affairs in this State.

Following this decision, a general election was held among fanciers, resulting in a powerful Committee being formed, and the name "The Kennel Control Council of Victoria" being selected for the new body.

A strong Constitution and set of rules has been prepared, and will be submitted to fanciers at an early date.

Although the K.C.C. of V. is not yet in complete operation, numerous applications for affiliation have already been received from Clubs and Societies catering for the exhibition of dogs. This fact, coupled with the amicable relations existing between representatives of the three bodies which are relinquishing control, points to the dawn of a new era for canine enthusiasts in Victoria.

Your Council, representatives of which were actively engaged in bringing about this most desirable amalgamation, has agreed that the efforts of its staff be transferred from the C.C.C., with the successful development of which it was associated from its establishment, to the K.C.C. of V., which body, it has every confidence, will be fully competent to control the fancy in the best interests of all concerned.

The Victorian Poultry Control Council.

Since this Council was established in 1929 to primarily control poultry exhibitions much good has been done.

During the year under review the Council published a complete book of judging standards for all breeds, and this publication will be very helpful to both judges and exhibitors. The panel of judges issued the previous year was also of great assistance to affiliated bodies, particularly country Agricultural Societies.

That the formation of this Council was a step in the right direction is evidenced by the fact that the number of poultry showing bodies affiliated is 76, and 800 exhibitors are registered to date.

The Chamber of Agriculture.

The Twenty-eighth Annual Convention of the Chamber of Agriculture of Victoria was held at St. Arnaud on 1st, 2nd and 3rd April, 1930. It was officially opened by His Excellency the Governor, Lord Somers, K.C.M.G., D.S.O., M.C., and was attended by a large and representative gathering of delegates from all parts of the State. The addresses that were delivered were of a high standard, and, together with the business items on the agenda, were productive of valuable discussion.

At the conclusion of the Convention, the delegates were driven to places of interest in and around St. Arnaud, and the outing was greatly enjoyed by all.

Your Council accorded a hearty vote of thanks to the people of St. Arnaud for the many courtesies extended to this Society's delegates during their short stay in that town.

The Journal.

The "Australian Farm and Home," with which is incorporated the Society's official journal, still gives an official report of the proceedings at the monthly meetings of Council. In addition, this publication contains much of interest to pure stock breeders and those engaged in primary pursuits generally, besides publishing many articles and hints relating to the conduct of the home.

In June last an investigation revealed that in many instances several copies of the journal were sent to the one address, and at times to the same person at both business and private addresses, and in a few cases it was found that, owing to the multiplicity of papers subscribed to, the "Farm and Home" was not required. In the interests of economy, therefore, your Council intends to submit to members a minor amendment of the Society's rules so that, in future, copies of the journal will be posted to only those who have submitted a written request for that privilege.

Membership.

It is with regret that your Council records that the Society's membership shows a falling off of 506, as compared with last year. The number of members now on the roll is 4201. The lean period through which the State is passing accounted in a large measure for this serious decrease, but it is imperative for the successful conduct of the Society's affairs to considerably increase the membership, and special efforts are to be made during this year to impress upon those interested in the activities of the Society the necessity of subscribing. When it is realised that for the small sum of £1/10/- members are entitled, amongst other privileges, to free admission to the grounds and grandstands of every "Royal" Show in the Commonwealth, no great difficulty should be experienced in increasing the number of members, and your Council solicits the wholehearted support of all present members in its efforts to augment the number now on the roll.

Advisory Board.

Early in the year your Council authorised the formation of an Advisory Board of representatives of all stud stock breeders' societies and other bodies interested in the conduct of the Society's annual shows, mainly for the purpose of submitting suggestions regarding the special Centenary Royal Show, which is to be held in 1935.

It was felt that in constituting this new body, the Society would be able to strengthen the harmonious relations which now exist between it and the specialist societies.

The proposal was enthusiastically supported, and, under the superintendence of the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor, Cr. Harold D. Luxton, M.L.A., and Mr. C. D. Lloyd, Chairman and Vice-Chairman respectively, meetings have been held at which valuable discussions ensued, and as a result of which helpful suggestions were forwarded to your Council.

It is confidently expected that the new body's influence will be felt, particularly in relation to the organisation of the proposed Centenary Show.

Superannuation Scheme.

The Superannuation Scheme referred to in the 1929 Annual Report was submitted to members at the last Annual Meeting and adopted.

This provides that the members of the staff each contribute two and a half per cent. of their respective salaries and the Society contributes a similar amount, with the addition of one quarter of one per cent. for every year over ten that each individual member has been in the Society's service. Every member of the permanent staff has taken advantage of the privilege thus afforded.

Death of Mr. S. A. Peck.

It is recorded with extreme regret that on 21st November, 1930, Mr. Solon A. Peck passed away after a very brief illness.

Mr. Peck's association with the Society in his capacity as Architect extended back prior to the occupation of the present Show grounds, and his firm was responsible for the design of practically every building erected thereon.

Your Council placed on record its appreciation of his services to the Society, and an expression of its profound sorrow at his death. A resolution of sympathy was conveyed to the bereaved widow and daughters.

Council.

As nominations for election at the Annual Meeting were not in excess of the vacancies on the Council, the whole of the retiring members were re-elected.

Leave of absence was granted to Mr. A. C. Gibb during an extended tour abroad, and he was heartily welcomed back to the Council table at the December meeting.

Extensive leave of absence was also granted to Mr. J. A. Beattie, whose health prevented his attendance at the ordinary meetings throughout the year.

Acknowledgments.

Your Council desires to express its thanks to His Excellency the Governor-General, Lord Stonehaven, for officially opening the Show and presenting trophies to the successful competitors.

To His Excellency the Governor, Lord Somers, and to Lady Somers, warmest thanks are due for the kindly interest they have at all times displayed in the Society's activities and for according the Show their patronage.

To the State Government your Council expresses its appreciation of the continuance of the Government subsidy, for making the necessary provision for the Department of Agriculture to stage its usual magnificent display of the chief primary activities of the State, and also for again contributing so liberally to the Society's prize fund.

To the Judges and Stewards the Council's best thanks are due for performing their onerous duties so conscientiously and so satisfactorily.

To the donors to the prize fund the Society's appreciation is accorded for their continued and liberal support.

To the Metropolitan Fire Brigades Board and the Oaklands Hunt Club the Society is indebted for arranging displays in the arena during the Show.

To the exhibitors and standholders your Council is under a debt of gratitude for their warm co-operation in maintaining the high standard of the Annual Exhibitions.

To the press it is also desired to record an expression of thanks for keeping the Society's activities so prominently before the public, and to all others who in any way assisted in furthering the interests of the Society, your Council accords its warmest thanks.

Finance.

On reference to the financial statement, it will be seen that the revenue for the year was £38,613/0/7, which shows a decrease of £5890/18/1 on that of last year.

The expenditure (including £8534/10/- in prizes and £1889/13/10 for buildings and improvements), amounted to £39,911/3/9, the bank overdraft being increased from £41,336/7/9 to £42,634/10/11, and the Society's indebtedness to the Government, inclusive of interest, decreased during the year from £44,147/3/10 to £42,867/4/3.

Taking the expenditure in permanent improvements as assets, the working expenses show a profit on the year's transactions of £591/10/8, against last year's profit of £3389/2/7.

Early in the year the State Government found it necessary to reduce the Society's annual subsidy from £675 to £500, and when the financial stress became more acute, it was announced that in the future the payment of the subsidy would be discontinued.

Although disappointed at this determination, your Council felt that it would be unfair to lodge a protest, but expressed the hope that when times again became normal, the Government of the day may then feel justified in renewing this subsidy which has been so helpful to the Society in the past.

Representations have again been made to the Government to amend the conditions of the Crown grant so that the Society will be permitted to use the grounds for other purposes than the Show, and thus augment its failing financial resources.

The members of the permanent staff, recognising the difficult period through which the Society is now passing, voluntarily offered to make a very liberal contribution to the Society's funds. This gesture of co-operation and goodwill was keenly appreciated by your Council.
