SIXTY-FIRST ANNUAL REPORT OF THE
ROYAL AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY

---

To the Members.

Ladies and Gentlemen,—

Your Council has pleasure in presenting the following report of proceedings of the Society for the year 1931.

Permanent Buildings and Works.

It will readily be understood that conditions were such that expenditure had necessarily to be restricted mainly to maintenance of roads and the buildings erected in previous years, and very little was done in the nature of permanent improvements.

Alterations to the Drill Hall, to enable freer access to that building, were carried out, and proved satisfactory.

By arrangement with the successful tenderer, a number of attractive kiosks were erected throughout the grounds, from which the sale of fruit, lollies, soft drinks and other light refreshments could be carried out under much more hygienic conditions than was possible in former years.

In order to facilitate the disposal of milk produced during the Show, and at the same time comply with departmental regulations in connection therewith, a small building was erected, at which, by arrangement with a well-known firm, milk was purchased according to butter fat value, based upon a test of the bulked milk. This facility proved satisfactory to exhibitors.

In addition to minor improvements in luncheon-rooms and other buildings, the surfaces of several roads were treated, some of the buildings painted, and the arena and lawns maintained in a manner that, when viewed in conjunction with the attractive garden plots, was appreciatively commented on by Show patrons.

The Exhibition.

The Society's Annual Exhibition, which was held from 17th to 26th September, 1931, was styled "The Jubilee Show," and will long be remembered because of the exceptionally good weather which prevailed throughout the whole period. The prize schedule was revised early in the year, and the optimism displayed by your Council in providing classes and prizes worthy of more prosperous times was not only fully justified by the record entry received, and the quality of the stock and produce exhibited, but had the effect of restoring the confidence of others who had suffered from the depression which loomed darkly over all.

Though by no means overtaxed, space on the grounds and in the exhibit halls was comfortably filled, and the co-operation of business firms in making such comprehensive and interesting displays of all classes of manufactured goods and machinery was a big factor in the success the Show proved to be.

The aggregate attendance during the Show was 233,579, and, though this is far below the record, it shows an improvement of 14,000 on 1930 figures. Cash receipts from gates and grandstands totalled £13,519/2/-, and the increased revenue from this source, together with economies in expenditure—which were made wherever possible without loss of efficiency—resulted in an excess of revenue over expenditure of £11,843/8/2, which, all things considered, was very satisfactory.

The following table is published in order that a comparison may readily be made of entries received in the various sections in 1930 and 1931:—

The greater interest being taken in the breeding of horses was clearly shown in the quality of both heavy and light horses exhibited. With an entry 45 per cent. ahead of 1930, the Clydesdales made a magnificent display. Farm and lorry horses were much more numerous, as were also the light horses, amongst which the saddle classes were particularly well filled.

An innovation in the stock pavilions this year was the use of painted discs to indicate the boxes or stalls occupied by Champion and Reserve Champion animals.

Whilst entries of Shorthorn cattle were fewer than in past years, there was no reduction in the standard of the animals exhibited, and the same can be said of the Herefords, which, in point of numbers, equalled 1929, and were, therefore, more impressive than last year. The one entry in the section for Aberdeen Angus cattle emphasised the fact that the Red Poll is the more popular polled breed in Victoria. The entry of this latter breed was 50 per cent. greater than in 1930, and included some splendid examples of dual purpose stock.

Throughout the dairy breeds quality was an outstanding feature, and the increased entries in the different sections varied from 20 per cent. to 50 per cent. This necessitated the construction of temporary stalls, double banking in classes for younger animals, and other expedients to provide accommodation.

Items calling for special mention include the number of imported Jerseys and Guernseys exhibited, the interesting Centenary Show competitions which were inaugurated in the sections for Ayrshires and Red Polls, and the fact that in the section for Dairy Shorthorns (until this year known as Milking Shorthorns) was exhibited the only cow which to date has won a Grand Championship for milk and butter fat production under Victorian Government Herd Test conditions.

The absence of the Milk and Butter Fat Competitions, so popular at previous Shows, was most noticeable this year. There was, however, no diminution of interest in the Carcase Competition for best pair of export steers, and the animals entered in this and other classes for fat stock were not only notable for their prime quality and early maturity, but the number of entries showed an appreciable increase over the two previous Shows.

In last year's report it was stated that never before in the history of the Society had there been such a numerous and high-class entry of British and Australian breeds of sheep. Though there were many interesting variations in the number of entries received in classes for the different breeds, last year's phenomenal entry was exceeded at the 1931 Show, and, despite the adverse weather conditions prior to the Show, the general high standard of the exhibits was freely commented on.

Notwithstanding the fact that an increased number of fleeces and skins was attractively displayed in the Government Pavilion, the entries in these classes, numerically, at least, did not adequately represent Australia's staple industry.

Seven different breeds were represented in the section for Swine, and the quality of the stock exhibited showed that, even during a particularly bad time for the industry, breeders had maintained their studs at a very high standard. As in former years, considerable interest was displayed in the different carcase competitions for bacon and pork pigs.

The entries of both Poultry and Pigeons were more numerous than was anticipated, but the accommodation provided in the respective buildings enabled very attractive displays to be made, and the exhibits generally were of a high standard.

Particular interest was taken in the section for Dogs, as the services of a world-renowned English judge had been secured. A record entry was received, and the judge commented favourably on the arrangements made to facilitate his carrying out the arduous work of adjudicating in all classes but those for Australian breeds. It is worthy of mention that, in engaging this judge, the Society did the fancy a great service, in that, added to his opinion on the dogs exhibited, enthusiasts were able to glean much valuable information relating to the respective breeds they fancied.

In the Agricultural Hall, the five district exhibits occupied the whole of one side of the building, and much skill was shown in arranging these comprehensive collections of district products. The more numerous exhibits from schools, and those from individual exhibitors of fruits, farm and dairy produce, etc., were also very attractively staged, the whole making an impressive display.

The interest taken in the Competition for the State Agricultural Championship, which was inaugurated at the Show, indicates that a much keener contest between electoral districts will take place next year.

Increased entries in the Wine Section meant more arduous work for the judges, who commented very favourably on the quality of the exhibits.

The display of women's work was most attractive. Entries were considerably in excess of last year's record, and the high standard set in previous years was more than maintained. The dressmaking and needlework competitions were very popular.

The timely passage of the Bill relating to Trotting at Agricultural Shows prevented disorganisation of an arena programme which was well received by Show patrons. The steer-riding competition was an unqualified success, and increased in popularity with each of the three occasions on which it was included in the programme. Entries for hunting and jumping events and other arena contests showed a considerable advance on last year's figures, and thus it was possible to provide a varied entertainment throughout the Show.

In the Government Pavilion, the very comprehensive display made by the Department of Agriculture was quite up to the high standard set in former years, and was well patronised by the public, as were also the interesting exhibits staged by the Forestry Department and the State Rivers and Water Supply Commission.

The co-operation of business firms, already mentioned, resulted in many fine displays of agricultural and other machinery, motor cars and accessories, and manufactured goods generally. These were undoubtedly a feature of the Show, and your Council acknowledged with appreciation the assistance given by exhibitors in this connection.

The arrangements made by the Railway Department and the Tramways Board again proved satisfactory, and the police, fire and ambulance services were well carried out.

After a careful survey, your Council feels that, apart from the lamentable collapse of the Society's Manager on the eve of its opening, the last Show was one of the most enjoyable and successful exhibitions yet conducted, demonstrating, as it did, the faith of both town and country people in the ability of the country to regain prosperity; and, from a financial standpoint, in view of the exceptional circumstances prevailing, the result of the Show can only be regarded as most satisfactory.

Jubilee Ball.

With a view to creating closer co-operation between city business interests and the "Man on the Land," celebrating the Society's Jubilee and at the same time assisting to disperse the cloud of depression, the Society organised a grand ball in the Melbourne Town Hall during the last Show.

The function was attended by His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor and the Lord Mayor and Lady Mayoress, and, all arrangements being of a high standard, a very enjoyable evening was spent.

Unfortunately, the attendance was such that a small loss was incurred, and, therefore, the funds of the Country Women's Association were not augmented, as was the intention had any profit been made.

Live Stock Betterment Competition.

A competition to uplift the standard of treatment of live stock in the rural districts, and to demonstrate the compatibility of humane methods of live stock management with profitable farming practice, was arranged by your Council for prize money totalling £250, offered by the Victorian Society for the Protection of Animals.

The competition, which was confined to the North-West Mallee and to holders of blocks in that area taken up from green Mallee since 1st January, 1918, was not as well supported as could be desired, but there were sixteen competitors, organised in two groups by the Tunart Clydesdale Horse Breeders' Club.

Judging was carried out by an officer of the Department of Agriculture in August last, and his report was such that, although the number of districts represented did not permit of the Championship prizes being awarded, in accordance with the conditions governing the competition, the Victorian Society for the Protection of Animals resolved, in addition to the ordinary district prizes, to pay a special prize of £10 to the Tunart Club, in recognition of the interest it had displayed in the competition.

Sales Tax and Primage Duty.

Your Council arranged for this Society to be officially represented at a conference held on the Sydney Royal Show Grounds last Easter, when the application of sales tax and primage duty on stud stock imported for the purpose of raising the standard of Australian flocks and herds was discussed by representatives of all Royal Agricultural and Stud Stock Breeders' Societies in the Commonwealth.

This Society was also represented on the deputation which subsequently visited Canberra for the purpose of bringing prominently under the notice of the Minister the resolutions embodying the views of the conference regarding the advisability of abolishing both taxes.

Though not immediately successful, the efforts then made have since resulted in the exemption from both sales tax and primage duty of imported stud cattle, pigs, sheep and draught horses.

The Australian Society of Breeders of British Sheep.

The secretarial work of both the Federal Council and the Victorian Branch of this Society is carried out in this office, and, owing to the continued progress being made, involving much additional clerical work, it has been decided by the Sheep Society to increase its payment for secretarial services from £150 to £250 for the Victorian Branch, and from £150 to £225 for the Federal Council.

The number of members of this Society throughout the Commonwealth now exceeds 900, as compared with 850 last year. Volume 23 of the "Flock Book for British Breeds of Sheep in Australia" was issued in May, and contained the record number of 934 registered flock histories, in addition to much other useful information.

Members of the Society experienced a very good year, for there was an unprecedented demand for British breed rams, and, although prices were not high, a fair average return was obtained.

Numerous wool-growers are turning their attention to lamb-growing, and, whilst the prospects for this industry were bright some few months ago, the serious decline in overseas meat prices has caused a setback, which, it is hoped, will only be of a temporary nature.

Following its usual custom, the Victorian Branch contributed generously to the Prize Fund, and also assisted the Council by suggesting sheep judges and alterations to the Prize Schedule. Your Council much appreciates the support it received from the Victorian Branch during the year.

The cordial relationship existing between the two bodies enables your Society to justly claim the honour of staging the Premier British Breeds Sheep Show in the Commonwealth.

In addition to publishing the Flock Book, the Society does a great deal of good by conducting sales of registered inspected flock sheep. The Victorian Branch held three such sales during the past year, at Shepparton, Bendigo and Newmarket. The South Australian Branch held its annual flock sale in October last, and both the New South Wales and the Western Australian Branches contemplate conducting sales during 1932. These sales are of untold benefit to the industry, for they induce the lamb-raisers to obtain pure registered sheep and have nothing to do with the "grade" ram, and thus is the general standard improved.

Volume 24 of the Flock Book is now being prepared for publication in May, and, as evidence that the Sheep Society is being conducted on right lines, it need only be mentioned that this volume will contain more registered flocks than any yet published.

The Commonwealth Clydesdale Horse Society.

Throughout the year this Society's activities have greatly increased, as a result of the marked interest that is now being taken in the breeding and use of horses—an interest which the Society feels it has been a factor in arousing by its consistent publicity, during recent years, of facts and figures, stressing the economy of horse usage and the national benefit that would follow a cessation of the importation of tractors, trucks and their requirements.

This publicity service has been much more widely spread throughout the Commonwealth as a result of the new arrangements mentioned in last year's report. The membership of the Society shows a very satisfactory increase, and the compilation of the sixth volume of the Commonwealth Clydesdale Stud Book is now being proceeded with, in order that copies will be available for distribution at an early date.

The Victorian Branch still retains its position as the strongest unit of the Society, and the keen interest that is being taken in the Clydesdale breed in this State was clearly indicated in the magnificent display at our last Show.

Now that the tide has definitely turned in favour of the horse, it is the policy of this Society to encourage breeders to improve the quality of their stock by a careful selection of mares and the use of registered stallions of a high standard. To that end, it is hopeful that, ere long, there will be uniformity in the various States in relation to the issue and recognition of Government Veterinary Certificates of Soundness and other matters affecting the horse-breeding industry.

Horse Association of Victoria.

Acting on a suggestion made by Dr. S. S. Cameron, your Council convened a conference at Show time of all interested in the breeding and use of horses. At this conference it was unanimously resolved that a Horse Association be formed in Victoria, to function on the lines of similar organisations in Great Britain and America.

A Provisional Council, then appointed, drafted a constitution and rules, which were adopted at a second conference, and the Council then formally elected has already been convinced that the Association has the whole-hearted support of horse-breeders and owners, business and trades people and others interested, directly or indirectly, in the use of horses. The Association aims to encourage the use of horses, an improvement in the standard of the stock bred in this State, and in every way to render service to horse-breeders and users.

An organiser has been appointed, and his reports are a clear indication that the Association is destined to become a large and influential body, working in the best interests of the State.

Pending permanent arrangements to be made when the work of organisation has progressed, the secretarial duties are being carried out in this office.

The Shorthorn Society of Australia.

At its meeting in Sydney last Easter the Federal Council thoroughly revised the regulations governing the registration of cattle in its Herd Book, and in this connection adopted several recommendations made by the Victorian Branch of the Society. Breeders are now required to notify the birth of calves within sixty days and to tattoo them for identification purposes.

The Federal Council also determined the form in which future volumes of the Herd Book were to be compiled, and the sixth volume of the Shorthorn Herd Book of Australia, which was published in accordance with that decision, contains more pedigrees than any previous volume issued by the Society. Since the first copies of the new volume were distributed at Show time, an increased interest in the Society has taken place. New members have been enrolled, and the entries coming to hand for inclusion in volume seven will enable the Federal Council to fix the date of publication at its Easter meeting.

This Society does not confine its activities to the publication of a Herd Book, but endeavours in other ways to advance the interests of cattle-breeders generally. To that end the Federal Council is investigating the possibilities of securing legislation throughout Australia which will ultimately result in the elimination of scrub bulls, and has already been assured of the support of other Beef Cattle Breeders' Societies in any action it may be deemed advisable to take to attain its objective.

The Red Poll Cattle Breeders' Association of Australasia.

During the past twelve months this Association has been accorded increased support by breeders throughout Australia, and, as in former years, members have been active in the public demonstration of the dual purpose qualities of their cattle.

The majority of the members of the Association are resident in Victoria, and the fact that entries in the Red Poll Section at our last Show were 50 per cent. in advance of 1930 figures indicates the popularity of the breed in this State.

The sixth volume of the Association's Herd Book, now in the hands of the printer, contains the pedigrees of several animals imported since the previous volume was issued. In addition to these, several other purchases have been made in England, and some, including an English Royal Show Champion, are now on the water on their way out, to strengthen a prominent Victorian stud.

The Association as a body increased its support of this Society by inaugurating, at our last Show, a special competition, which will terminate at the Centenary Royal Show in 1935. In addition to the £50 in cash prizes provided by the Association, its President has very generously donated a trophy, valued at 30 guineas, for presentation to the ultimate winner of this competition, the success of which has already been assured by the large number of animals nominated.

The Dairy Shorthorn Association of Australia.

In accordance with the suggestion referred to in our last report, the name of the Association has been changed from Milking Shorthorn Cattle Breeders' Association of Victoria, in order to widen its scope and at the same time bring it more into line with the Dairy Shorthorn Association in England.

Several new members have been enrolled, and the number of animals being submitted for registration indicates that, when the first volume of the Herd Book is published, it will be possible to issue future volumes at reasonable intervals.

The greater interest being taken in the breed is, without doubt, attributable to public demonstration of its dairy qualities, through the medium of the official test, one notable achievement being that a Dairy Shorthorn cow this year won a Grand Championship under Victorian Government Herd Test conditions, being the first cow of any breed to receive that award.

The Ayrshire Cattle Herd Book Society of Australasia.

Being well satisfied with the result of its expenditure in propaganda work during the year, the Federal Council has resolved to continue to subsidise branches out of a fund established for that purpose, thus enabling them to maintain, in their respective States, a policy of encouragement to breeders to submit their herds to public test, exhibit their stock at shows, and in other ways keep the breed prominently under notice.

This policy has resulted in an increased number of members, and breeders generally have experienced quite a demand for their stock because of the publicity given to the breed's capabilities in the production of milk and butter fat.

The twenty-third volume of the Society's Herd Book was published prior to the Show, and entries for volume twenty-four will close at an early date.

The subsidy from the Federal Council enabled the Victorian Branch to extend its activities in furthering the interests of the breed in this State, and, in addition to offering special cash prizes for the best Ayrshire herd and the best Ayrshire cow under official test, it increased its support of the Royal Show by allocating £50 for prize money in a competition which will terminate at the Centenary Royal Show in 1935, when a trophy, valued at 30 guineas, generously donated by the Branch President, will be presented to the exhibitor of the winning animal.

The Friesian Cattle Club of Australia.

In order to enable the Committee of the Queensland Club to consider a proposal for the amalgamation of the two bodies, arising from a conference in Melbourne at Show time, publication of the eleventh volume of this Club's Herd Book was delayed, to permit of the inclusion of the pedigrees of cattle bred in the Northern State, and consequently the volume has only just been placed in the hands of the printer.

The proposal above referred to has not yet been adopted, but it is possible that negotiations will be brought to a successful conclusion at a meeting of the Federal Council to be held in Sydney at Easter.

The Victorian Branch, which has for many years been the strongest unit in the Club, has been further strengthened by the enrolment of new members and the registration of new herds, and, in view of the continuance of the demonstrations under Official Test of those dairy qualities which first brought the Friesian breed into prominence in this State, the Committee is confident that satisfactory progress will be made during the ensuing year.

The Guernsey Cattle Society of Australasia (Victorian Branch).

Despite a very formidable handicap in the shortage of females, the Guernsey breed has made considerable progress in this State during the past year, and the Victorian Branch membership has been increased accordingly. The Branch Committee is active in fostering the interests of the breed, and is confident that, when the difficulty already referred to has been overcome, the Guernsey will rapidly take its place amongst the most popular dairy breeds.

That Victorian breeders are enthusiasts is demonstrated by the fact that, in the absence of the largest exhibitor in previous years, the entries at the last Royal Show were 40 per cent. greater than in 1930, and included many animals of outstanding quality that have been imported to strengthen local studs.

No volume of the Herd Book was published during the year, it being the present practice of the Society to issue a volume bi-annually.

The Australasian Jersey Herd Society (Victorian Branch).

The steady growth of this Branch, referred to in previous reports, has continued throughout the year, and the fact that it now has an active membership of 800 breeders, is at once an indication of its importance as an organisation and of the great popularity of the Jersey breed with dairy farmers in this State.

The energetic Committee has continued its extensive propaganda work in the interests of the breed. At considerable expense it has published a further issue of its Standard Test Booklet, distributed pamphlets and calendars, and, through its Field Officer, has kept in personal touch with breeders throughout the State.

The Federal Council published the seventeenth volume of the Society's Stud Book during the year, and copies of the eighteenth volume are almost ready for distribution.

It was on the recommendation of the Victorian Branch that the Federal Council decided to discontinue publishing "The Jersey in Australia," and to appoint the "Live Stock Bulletin" as the official journal of the Society, realising that it would thereby increase the scope of its publicity. Every member throughout Australia now receives each issue of "The Bulletin" at the expense of the Society, and, as a result of publicity given in the columns of that journal, the Branch Committee confidently anticipates not only an increased demand from other States for Victorian Jerseys, combining both type and production, but a considerable increase in the number of supporters in this State.

The Australian Illawarra Shorthorn Society (Victorian Branch).

Though the members of this Branch had their first annual general meeting at Show time, the Committee's report revealed that considerable progress had been made during the year, and that the Illawarra breed, so popular in the northern States, was steadily gaining ground in Victoria, where other dairy breeds were so strongly entrenched when it was first introduced.

The forty-two members of this Branch have submitted their herds for registration in the first volume of the Society's Herd Book, which will shortly be published, and several have already submitted their herds to public test, realising that it is only by providing evidence of its productive ability that the breed will claim the attention of Victorian dairy farmers.

At last Show the exhibits in the Section for Illawarras showed an improvement on previous years, both as regards numbers and quality, and by arranging for an annual inspection by its official inspector, the Branch Committee hopes to keep the herds in this State up to a high standard of quality.

The Victorian United Cow Test Association.

When the Federal Government announced its intention to discontinue the subsidisation of Herd-Testing Associations, and the State Government further reduced its subsidy, the various Branches of this Association were faced with a serious financial problem, and there were many who thought that local testing was doomed after six years' organising work had brought into existence 142 units, testing 3,300 herds, comprising approximately 100,000 cows.

The Council of this Association was successful in arranging with the Director of Agriculture for Mr. W. J. Yuill, who has been prominently associated with the Herd-Testing Movement since its inception, to undertake a State-wide tour for the purpose of conducting field days, delivering lectures and in other ways encouraging the continuance of testing work in the best interests of the dairying industry, and it is pleasing to record that, with the loyal co-operation of enthusiasts throughout Victoria, such arrangements have been made that all but a very few of the units are continuing operations, and, indeed, a few new units have been formed in districts where herd-testing was not previously carried out.

During the year the Council completely revised the Constitution and Rules of the Association, and these were unanimously adopted at the Annual General Conference in Melbourne at Show time.

It also organised a second Dairy Farm Competition, the conditions of which were revised in accordance with the experience gained as a result of last year's initial effort. Eighty farms in all parts of the State were entered, and judging is now nearing completion. This competition is most comprehensive in its scope, and publication of the results will prove of great benefit to those engaged in dairying.

Other activities of this Association have been extended. Many additional Branches have adopted its Calf-Marking Scheme, whilst facilities for the insurance of Testers have also been more freely availed of.

The R.A.S. of V. Production Certificates, issued by this Society to the members of the Association whose herds under test average 300 lbs. butterfat or over in 273 days, are much appreciated, and just over 750 of these have been issued to date.

The Australian Stud Pig Breeders' Society.

Though this Society had to contend against the very adverse conditions ruling in the pig-breeding industry during the year, good work was done, and breeders generally continued their support of the Society and maintained their studs at a high standard.

The twenty-second volume of the Society's Herd Book has just been printed, and copies will be distributed at an early date.

The Federal Council resolved to require the registration of brands and the tattooing of litters of white breeds of pigs, and is endeavouring to evolve some satisfactory system of marking for identification purposes pigs of other breeds, the experiments to discover a fluid or paste for tattooing black ears having proved unsuccessful.

The Victorian Branch, which still has the largest membership, has continued to liberally subsidise classes for bacon and pork pigs, not only at the Royal Show, but at several country centres also. Great interest is annually displayed in these carcass competitions at our Show, and whilst these have in the past been confined to pure bred, the Branch Committee intends to make provision at the 1932 Show for pigs that are the first cross of two pure breeds.

The Society suffered a severe loss, just prior to the Show, through the lamentable death of Mr. Luke Williams, who, at the time, was the President of the Federal Council and the Tasmanian Branch also.

The Victorian Working Sheep Dog Association.

Satisfactory progress has been made by this Association. New members have been enrolled and thirty-seven bodies have become affiliated.

Whilst many of these held successful trials during the year, special mention must be made of the Field Trials, conducted in October last by the Kilmore Agricultural Society, in conjunction with this Association.

The Council having decided on the conditions to govern the awarding of the 50-guinea "Captain Payne Trophy," this was offered for the first time at Kilmore, and a keen competition resulted.

It was also at these trials that the system of having two judges, acting independently of each other and making the awards according to the aggregate points, was adopted and met with general approval.

The Kennel Control Council of Victoria.

In last year's report pleasure was expressed that unified control of the canine fancy had at long last been achieved in the formation of the K.C.C. of V. This most desirable state of affairs did not last for very long, as one of the parties to the agreement broke away shortly after the report above referred to was issued, and once again set up as a rival controlling body. However, despite this early reverse and consistent opposition from various sources, the K.C.C. of V. made greater progress than many of its most ardent supporters thought would be possible during its first year.

Twenty-three bodies have become affiliated, and the individual membership exceeds 400, it being of interest to note that 93 per cent. of these members were enrolled after the rival body commenced operations.

The Kennel Club of England granted affiliation to the K.C.C. of V., and the value of this recognition was demonstrated in connection with the services in this State of the world-renowned English judge who adjudicated at the last Royal Show.

With such a sound basis on which to work, the Committee has every confidence in the future development of its plans for the proper government of canine affairs, and to that end your Council, being convinced that the body is conducted on right lines, has pledged the full support of this Society.

The Victorian Poultry Control Council.

This Council is making very good progress, and the majority of societies conducting exhibitions of poultry are now affiliated.

The President of the Chamber of Agriculture is also the President of the Poultry Control Council, and harmonious relations exist between exhibitors, affiliated bodies and the Council.

This Society has two representatives on the Control Body, and both take a keen interest in its activities.

During the year the Council has aimed to bring about uniformity of prize schedule classification and judging, and also improve the conditions under which poultry exhibitions are being held, and, with the co-operation of all showing bodies, is steadily attaining its objective.

The Chamber of Agriculture.

The Twenty-ninth Annual Convention of the Chamber of Agriculture of Victoria was held at Geelong on the 3rd, 4th and 5th of March, 1931. The Convention was officially opened by His Excellency the Governor, Lord Somers, K.C.M.G., D.S.O., M.C., and was attended by a large and representative gathering of delegates from all parts of the State.

Several interesting addresses were delivered and matters of importance to primary producers discussed, but this Convention was notable because of the special session which was held for debating, with business and financial experts, the economic position and its relation to primary production, and proposals then discussed were eventually embodied in the Premiers' Agreement.

At the conclusion of the Convention delegates were driven to places of interest in and around Geelong, and a most enjoyable time was spent.

Your Council accorded a hearty vote of thanks to the people of Geelong for the many courtesies extended to this Society's delegates during their brief visit to that city.

The Journal.

As in former years, an official report of the proceedings at the monthly meetings of the Council and particulars relating to the activities of the Society generally have been published in the Society's official journal, which is embodied in the "Australian Farm and Home," a monthly paper, which, by virtue of its official connection with various stud stock breeders' societies, is steadily increasing in circulation amongst primary producers throughout Australia.

As a result of the decision arrived at at last Annual Meeting, there has been a considerable reduction in the cost to the Society for copies sent to members in response to their written request during the year.

Membership.

Although not as great as might reasonably have been anticipated, your Council much regrets that a further reduction in the number of members of the Society has taken place. Every effort was made to prevent losses in membership, and as a result the members' roll now stands at 3706. Your Council confidently relies on the whole-hearted co-operation of members in making the membership more worthy of this Society, which has done, and is doing, a work of great importance in this State.

Death of Mr. Henry Schwieger.

With deep regret your Council reports that the death of the Society's Manager, Mr. Henry Schwieger, took place on 9th October, 1931, following his sudden collapse at the grounds on 16th September, the day prior to the opening of the Show.

The nature and importance of the services rendered by Mr. Schwieger since he first joined the Society's staff as Assistant Secretary in 1907 are so well known, not only to members, but to others interested in the Society, that no effort will be made to record them here. Suffice to say that, right up to the time of his death, Mr. Schwieger was prominently and actively associated with the ever-growing influence of this Society and the development of its Show Grounds to their present high state of efficiency, and, in that connection, might be regarded as having provided his own monument.

At its meeting in October your Council, on behalf of the whole of the members of the Society, passed a resolution recording sincere and deep regret at Mr. Schwieger's death, and conveying to Mrs. Schwieger not only their deepest sympathy, but an expression of their appreciation and admiration of the work which Mr. Schwieger had performed in the interests of the Society, and, when passing that resolution, members of Council recalled with satisfaction that in 1928 appreciation of Mr. Schwieger's services had been shown when granting him extended leave of absence, with an honorarium, to enable him to make an extensive tour abroad.

At its December meeting your Council resolved to appoint the Secretary, Mr. Louis Monod, to succeed the late Mr. Schwieger as the Society's chief executive officer, to carry out the duties of both Secretary and Manager, as set out in the rules. Arrangements have been made whereby the major portion of the work in connection with the stud stock breeders' societies, previously carried out by Mr. Monod, will be allocated amongst junior members of the staff, and any necessary extra assistance provided. At the same time, an appreciable saving in expenditure will be effected.

Council.

As nominations for election at the Annual Meeting were not in excess of the vacancies on the Council, the whole of the retiring members were re-elected.

Extensive leave of absence was again granted to Mr. J. A. Beattie, who found it impossible to attend meetings until late in the year.

Acknowledgments.

Your Council desires to thank His Excellency the Governor-General, Sir Isaac Isaacs, P.C., K.C.M.G., for the interest taken in the Society's activities, as demonstrated during his two visits to the Show.

To His Excellency the Lieut.-Governor, Sir William Irvine, K.C.M.G., the Society is indebted for officially opening the Show and for presenting trophies to successful competitors.

To the State Government your Council gratefully acknowledges the practical support given, not only by making it possible for the Department of Agriculture to stage the wonderful display in the Government Pavilion, but by passing the legislation necessary to enable the Society to use its grounds for revenue-producing purposes between Shows. At the same time, the hope is expressed that the Society will, ere long, again receive that very helpful support, by way of subsidy, which was temporarily withdrawn owing to the urgent necessity which arose for economy in Government expenditure.

To the judges and stewards the Society's best thanks are due for the very satisfactory manner in which they carried out the arduous duties entrusted to them.

The Society's keen appreciation is expressed at the liberal support given by donors to the prize fund, and the whole-hearted co-operation of exhibitors and standholders in the efforts made to ensure the success of the Show.

Your Council specially desires to acknowledge the great service rendered by the press in keeping prominently before the public the activities of the Society, more particularly at Show time, and also to thank all others who in any way assisted in furthering the interests of the Society throughout the year.

Finance.

On reference to the financial statement, it will be seen that the revenue for the year was £36,211/12/5, which shows a decrease of £2,401/8/2 on that of last year.

The expenditure (including £8,112/9/2 in prizes and £849/7/5 for buildings and improvements) amounted to £36,738/17/8, the bank overdraft being increased from £42,634/10/11 to £43,161/16/2, and the Society's indebtedness to the Government, inclusive of interest, decreased during the year from £42,867/4/3 to £41,527/18/10.

Taking the expenditure in permanent improvements as assets, the working expenses show a profit on the year's transactions of £322/2/2, as against last year's profit of £591/10/8.

Whilst by no means pessimistic regarding the return of national prosperity, your Council is of opinion that such recovery must, of necessity, be slow, and that the Society's prospects will improve proportionately with those of the State. It is, however, confident that, with a continuance of its careful regard for economy in expenditure, consistent with a maintenance of efficiency, the financial position of the Society will show a satisfactory improvement at the end of the coming year, and the extent of such improvement will, of course, be greater if, as is hoped, some remunerative arrangements can be made for the utilisation of the ground between Shows.

CHARLES E. MERRETT, President.

LOUIS MONOD, Secretary.
