SIXTY-FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE
 COUNCIL
 ROYAL AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY OF VICTORIA

To the Members.

Ladies and Gentlemen,

Your Council has much pleasure in presenting the following report of proceedings of the Society for the year 1934.

Permanent Buildings and Works.

Having complied with the expressed wish of the Centenary Council to alter the date so that the Royal Show could be made the inaugural function of the Centenary Celebrations, your Council gave early consideration to the provision of accommodation for the anticipated increase in entries in all sections, and, to enable the Show Grounds to be extended, made representations to the Government for legislation authorising it to close Watson's Terrace, which separated the Show Grounds proper from land purchased some years previously. Development of this new area was greatly expedited by the generous assistance accorded by Mr. A. M. Nicholas, who undertook to provide £8000 for a building in which all Jersey cattle exhibited at the Show could be accommodated under one roof. It was thus made possible to erect the magnificent Nicholas Pavilion for Jersey cattle, containing 344 stalls and embodying many desirable features, such as stalls of varying widths for stock of different ages, concrete floor, fibrolite roof, roomy feed boxes, steel window and louvre frames, sliding doors, etc., etc. Mr. Nicholas also bore the expense of providing, adjacent to this pavilion, a special judging ring for Jersey cattle, complete with fencing and three-tiered seats, the whole surrounded by a row of young poplar trees.

In addition to enclosing and grading this new area, your Council erected thereon the Centenary Hall, another fine brick building, for the display of agricultural produce, and 104 feed boxes for the use of exhibitors in neighbouring stock pavilions.

The co-operation of the Melbourne and Metropolitan Board of Works made possible the extension of the sewerage service to this new area and the sewerage of the homestead used as a Young Farmers' Camp during the Show.

To meet the ever-increasing demand, additional box and stall accommodation for 200 horses was provided adjacent to the No. 1 Horse Pavilion, and extra stalls were erected in the Hunters' Shed.

The Swine Pavilion was extended, the old Agricultural Hall—renamed the "Hall of Commerce"—cleared and made available for non-competitive exhibits, the Carriage Pavilion adapted for the exhibition of fat sheep, necessary alterations made in the Dog Pavilion and judging rings, and a number of other minor improvements were effected.

In order to supply the current required by standholders in the Hall of Commerce and also to facilitate the use of the Show Grounds for night entertainments, a heavier cable was installed in Plummer Avenue, and the approaches to the arena from the railway and turnstile entrances to the grounds were suitably lighted, as were also the grandstands.

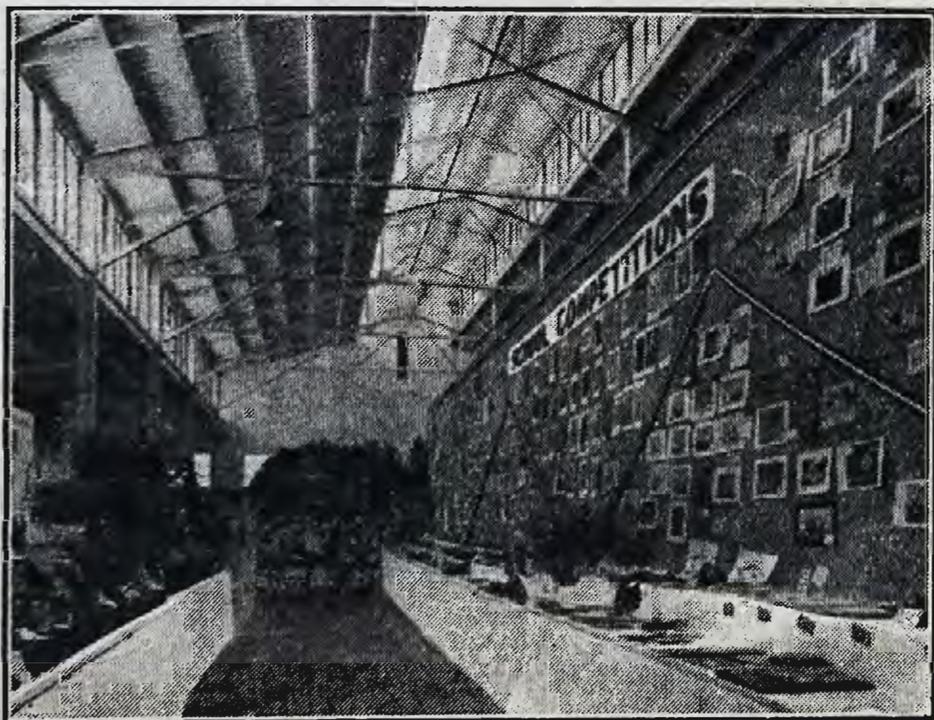

Considerable expenditure was incurred in reconditioning existing roads and footpaths and also in the utilisation of ashes, etc., in the formation of paths in the new area, there having been no time available to construct proper roadways prior to the opening of the Show.

Particularly satisfactory results followed the appointment as Honorary Horticultural Adviser of Mr. C. E. Isaac, who spared no expense to himself in preparing, in the numerous garden plots throughout the grounds, a wonderful floral display, which included a special tribute to H.R.H. the Duke of Gloucester and a most attractive treatment of the floral clock, which has been a feature of the Show for many years past.

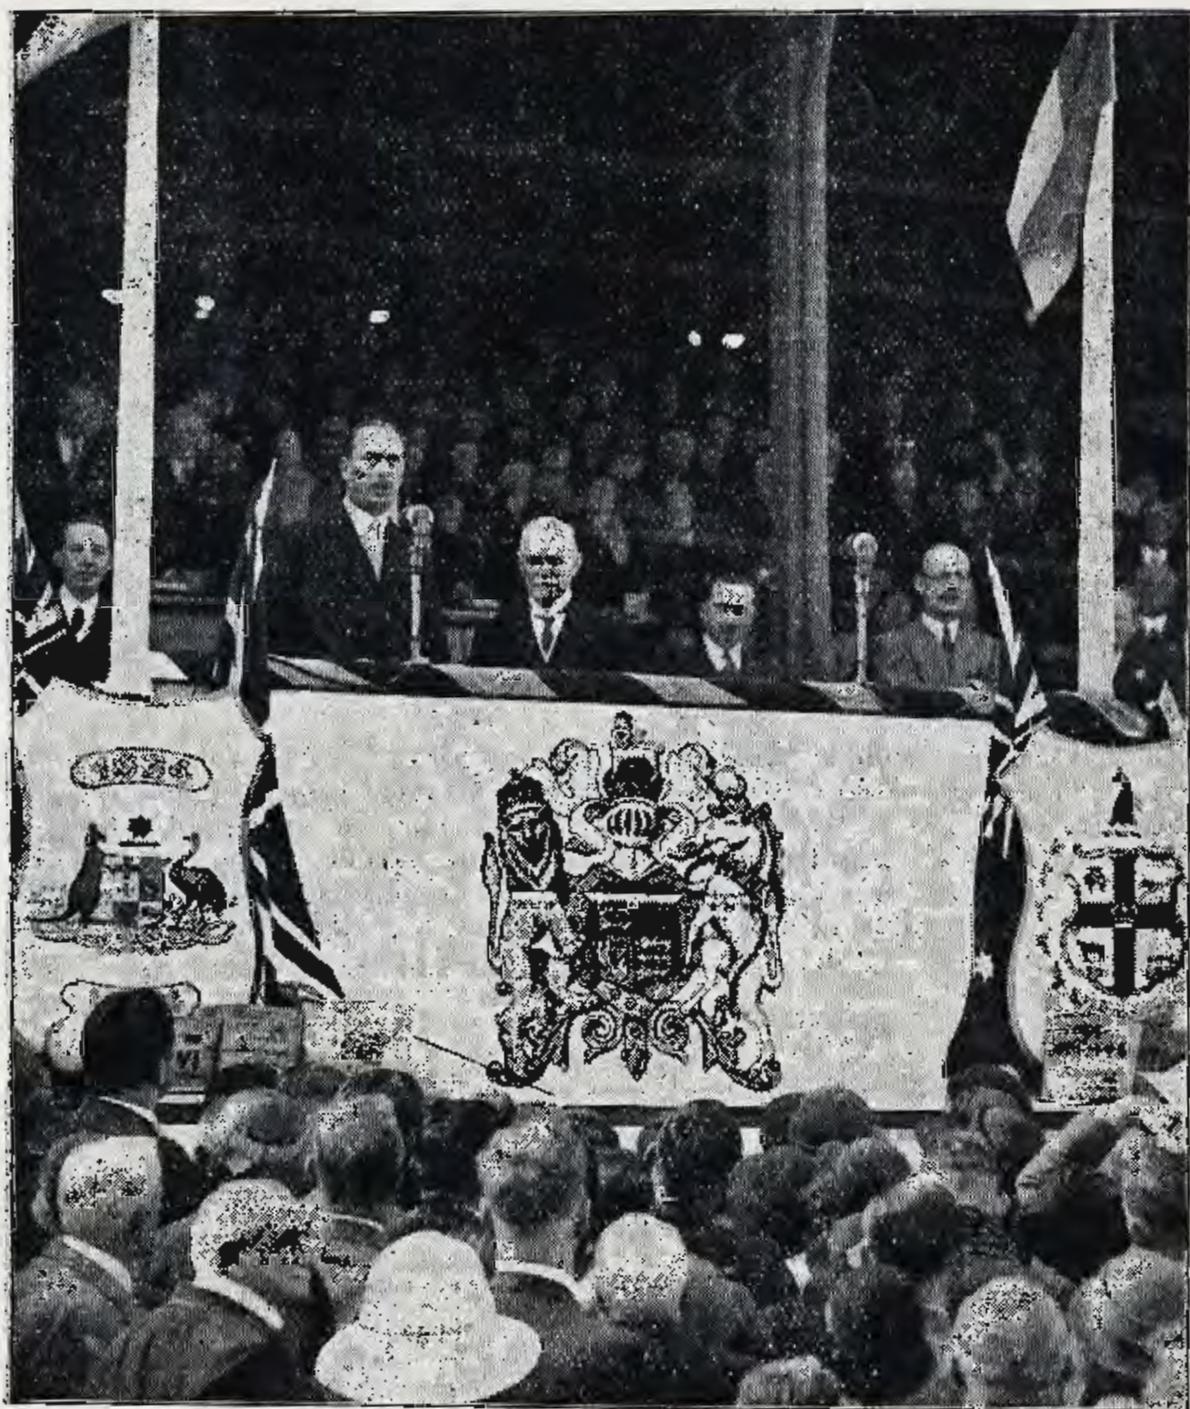

No less satisfactory, from the Society's point of view, were the improvements effected by standholders generally. The erection of new buildings and the alteration, renovation and painting of existing structures greatly enhanced the appearance of the grounds, and your Council has expressed its keen appreciation of this concrete evidence of a determination to co-operate with the Society to ensure that the Centenary Royal Show would be worthy of its prominence in the celebrations.

The Exhibition.

As befitted such an auspicious occasion, the Centenary Royal Show, which was held from 18th to 27th October, was unquestionably the best exhibition staged by this Society. All previous records were broken, and that quality was an outstanding feature in the various sections was but a revelation of the whole-hearted co-operation of exhibitors in presenting a display which would reflect the progress made in stud stock breeding and agriculture generally during the past one hundred years.

Show, and also to award to exhibitors of prize-winning stock and produce engraved medallions, which will be greatly valued for many years to come.

On the first day of the Show, in perfect weather, exhibitors paraded their stock before judges from Great Britain, New Zealand and every State in the Commonwealth, who made their awards in the presence of a record attendance, despite the fact that H.R.H. the Duke of Gloucester arrived in Melbourne on that day and that tramway men were on strike.

Ideal weather conditions also prevailed on the second day, when H.R.H. the Duke of Gloucester attended and officially opened the Show from a dais specially erected in front of the Members' Grandstand. Your Council had naturally anticipated a record crowd on this occasion, but, because of a counter-attraction which was also honoured by a visit from His Royal Highness earlier in the day, the attendance at the Show was only some 10,000 above the corresponding day in 1933. However, the excellence of the display was in no way affected, and it is safe to say that His Royal Highness, who was accompanied by His Excellency the Governor of Victoria—also present for the first time at a Melbourne Royal Show—saw in the arena a grand parade of horses and cattle which has not been excelled in Australia.

In the very limited time available, the President took His Royal Highness on a tour of the grounds, during which the exhibits in the Government Pavilion and the Centenary Agricultural Hall were inspected before returning to the arena, where several events were provided for the entertainment of the Royal visitor.

From then on the Society had to contend not only with formidable counter-attractions, but with adverse weather conditions. In view of this, it is a matter for congratulation that the total attendance at the Show did not compare even less favourably with that of 1933, and that, despite the decline in public patronage, the receipts exceeded expenditure by £8500.

In order to ensure that the many prominent visitors from other countries would have full opportunity to see the exhibition, and also with a view to assisting in their entertainment, special guest badges—sufficiently attractive to be retained as souvenirs—were issued, and the enlarged Council enclosure in the Members' Grandstand was placed at their disposal on the official opening day. The many letters since received reveal that these courtesies were greatly appreciated and that the excellence of the exhibits, the extent of the Show Grounds and the standard of the stock pavilions and other buildings proved an unexpected surprise.

The Australian Society of Breeders of British Sheep.

The number of members of this Society throughout the Commonwealth now exceeds 1000, and in Vol. 26 of the Flock Book, published last year, the total number of flocks of the various British breeds was 1105. Branches of the Society are in a flourishing condition in every State excepting Queensland, and their efforts to popularise registered British breeds are having a beneficial effect upon the quality of the sheep in Australia.

Reports from Smithfield clearly indicate that the lambs exported from Australia are improving in quality, and, whilst there is still a large number of inferior lambs being exported, the propaganda conducted by the various Branch Committees in the use of better sires is, no doubt, bearing fruit.

Owing to the increased demand for registered flock rams, brought about by the satisfactory prices obtaining last year for fat lambs, the Society should continue to progress, although it is possible that the restriction now in force on the export of lambs and mutton to Great Britain might have a detrimental effect upon the membership.

During the past year negotiations were concluded with the Australian Longwool Sheepbreeders' Association, whose office is situated in Sydney, whereby that body has now amalgamated with this Society. Without doubt, the combining of the activities of both organisations will greatly strengthen the position of registered breeders of British sheep, for they are now bound together in one strong body, capable of effectively dealing with all matters affecting their interests.

The secretarial work of the amalgamated body will be carried out by the Royal Agricultural Society's staff, whilst the headquarters of the New South Wales Branch will be transferred from Wagga to Sydney.

Your Council is indebted to both the Victorian Branch and the Federal Council of the Society for the practical support it accorded the Sheep Section of the Centenary Show.

The display of British breeds has never been surpassed in the Commonwealth, and the co-operation of the Society has greatly helped your Council to stage such a grand exhibition of sheep.

Vol. 27 of the Flock Book issued annually by the Society is now being prepared for publication, and, owing to the amalgamation of flocks previously registered with the Australian Longwool Sheepbreeders' Association, it will be the largest volume yet issued by the Society. It is hoped to have it available for distribution in May next.

The Australian Corriedale Sheepbreeders' Association.

At the annual meeting of this Association, held in Melbourne last July, it was unanimously decided to ask the Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria to undertake the secretarial duties of the Federal Council, and your Council subsequently agreed to make its staff available for this purpose.

The Corriedale breed of sheep has gone ahead very rapidly in Australia, and Vol. X. of the Flock Book, published in September, contained the histories of 237 registered flocks, this number being an increase of 60 on those that appeared in Vol. IX.

Branches of the Association have been established for some time in all States except Queensland, and the efforts of Branch Committees have been the means of making more widely known throughout the Commonwealth the dual purpose quality of this breed.

When the secretarial work of the Federal Council of the Association was taken over by your staff, it was deemed advisable to prepare a new constitution and rules that would more adequately provide for the efficient management of the Association's affairs, and these were adopted at the last annual meeting of the Association.

The secretarial work of the Victorian Branch is also carried out by this Society's staff, and your Council is very grateful for the help received from the Branch in connection with the Corriedale Section of the last Show. Judges nominated by the Branch were appointed to act, and, in addition, the prize money offered was augmented by a donation of 30 guineas.

Victorian and Southern Riverina Society of Export Lamb and Mutton Producers.

Since the inception of this Society at the 1933 Royal Show, continued progress has been made towards its objectives, which provide for the improvement of lamb and mutton exports, grading, publicity and so forth.

The ideals of the Society were favourably commented on by those overseas whose whole business centres round the sale of our meat products, and such experts as Capt. Heywood (Commonwealth Veterinary Officer at Smithfield), Mr. W. McCann (South Australian Trade Commissioner and Agent-General at London), Mr. J. Hamilton (of Hayes, Pain and Knowlden, Smithfield) and others directly concerned with the sale of owners' consignments consider the Society's efforts a first step in the long-delayed move necessary to ensure Australia taking her proper place amongst the world's sellers of lamb and mutton products.

Branches of the Society have been established at several country centres and the membership is steadily increasing.

One of the Vice-Presidents of the Society, in the person of Mr. A. Browning, was appointed as representative of Victorian Meat Producers on the Meat Advisory Council formed last year by the Federal Government, and he was also appointed as the Society's representative on the Victorian and Southern Riverina Meat Advisory Council.

The export of lamb and mutton from Victoria is of vital importance to this country, and the Society's efforts to improve the conditions pertaining to this industry are deserving of the whole-hearted support of producers.

The Commonwealth Clydesdale Horse Society.

Interest in the Society has greatly increased throughout Australia, and at no time have its activities been more fully appreciated by breeders generally.

Entries for Volume 8 of the Commonwealth Clydesdale Stud Book closed at the end of the year, and the pedigrees already examined and accepted for publication in that volume comprise those of 558 stallions and 1460 mares, in addition to records of 1398 eligible foals. This is a clear indication of the extent of the service rendered by the Society, the membership of which has now increased to over 900, and is indeed a healthy sign for the horse-breeding industry, as it reveals a desire on the part of breeders to improve the standard of their horses and also demonstrates the growing value of the Stud Book.

Although the demand for horses of all kinds has exceeded the supply and very satisfactory prices have been readily obtained, the various Branch committees realise that these conditions can only be maintained by breeding good, sound, useful stock capable of giving years of satisfactory service under all conditions. They are, therefore, making every endeavour to impress upon their respective Governments the imperative need for legislation which will eradicate all undesirable stallions, and it is hoped that sound measures will soon be in operation in each State.

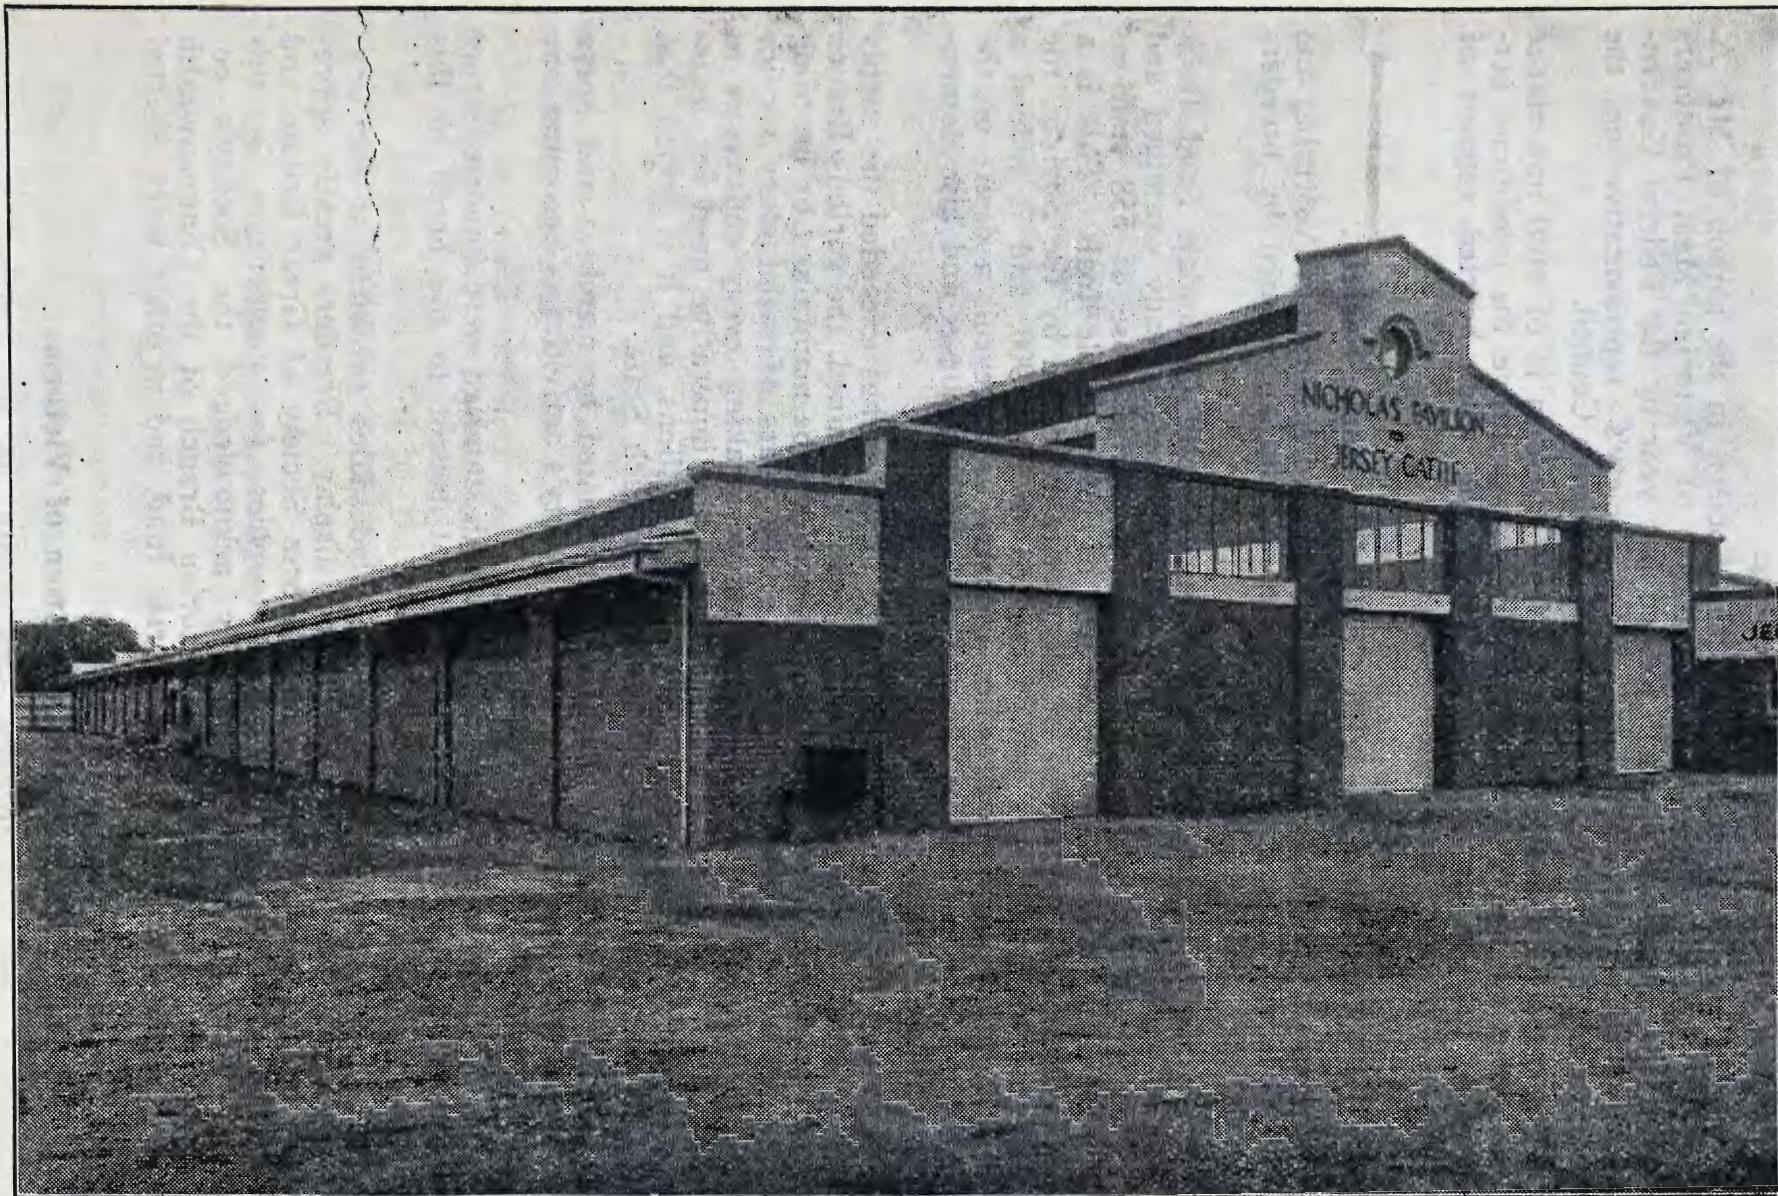

The News Service is now fully appreciated by members and horse lovers generally, and this phase of the Society's activities is becoming one of its greatest assets.

During the year many animals of a high standard were imported from Scotland, and will no doubt be of great benefit to the breed in this country.

It is pleasing to record that the Clydesdales exhibited at the Centenary Royal Show made a memorable display. Breeders greatly appreciated the action of the Clydesdale Horse Society of Great Britain and Ireland in offering two fifty-guinea trophies for competition in this section. Your Council has gratefully acknowledged the Society's co-operation, and also that of the Victorian Branch of the Commonwealth Society, which donated £82 to the prize fund, and in other ways assisted in securing a record entry.

The Horse Association of Victoria.

With a view to securing uniformity in the conduct of horse Gymkhanas throughout Victoria, this Association during the year called a conference of interested bodies for the purpose of discussing a set of rules and regulations which were drafted by a sub-committee. These were approved of by the various bodies represented, and were subsequently adopted by the Association.

The Nicholas Pavilion, for Jersey Cattle, with accommodation for 344 head, erected during 1934,

The annual "Back-to-the-Horse" Procession and Gymkhana was conducted by the Association in April last. Good entries were received in the large number of classes provided, but, despite the excellent programme, the attendance was not up to expectations.

This Association again co-operated in the organisation of the annual procession of saddle and harness horses and ponies, which was held on the last day of the Centenary Royal Show, and, although it was marred by heavy rain, there was a splendid response, the heavy teams particularly being numerous and of a very high standard.

The Australian Pony Stud Book Society.

In accordance with a resolution adopted by your Council, all Shetland ponies entered for exhibition at the Centenary Royal Show were registered with the Australian Pony Stud Book Society.

The compilation of the Stud Book has been taken in hand by the Federal Secretary in Sydney, and numbers have already been allotted to those ponies whose pedigrees have been authenticated.

Several new Victorian breeders have enrolled as members, and a further increase in the membership is expected as a result of the regulation adopted by your Council that, at the 1935 and succeeding Shows, all ponies entered for exhibition must be registered in a recognised Stud Book.

Pending the formal constitution of a Branch in this State, the necessary secretarial work in connection with entries and inspection in Victoria is being carried out in this office.

The Shorthorn Society of Australia.

As a result of the possibility of an extensive export trade in chilled beef being developed, the outlook for the Shorthorn breed is much more encouraging than has been the case for some time. Consequently greater optimism has been apparent in breeding circles, and several new members have been enrolled. Another pleasing feature which shows confidence in the future is the importation of several high-class animals from the home of the breed. These are without doubt of great value to the industry as a whole, and their importers are to be congratulated on their enterprise.

During the year Volume 7 of the Shorthorn Herd Book of Australia was published, and gratis copies forwarded to all financial members, whilst the number of entries already received for Volume 8 is most satisfactory.

The Victorian Branch of the Society co-operated with your Council in obtaining the services of Mr. Robert Hornsby, of Silloth, Cumberland, England, as judge in the Shorthorn section at the Centenary Royal Show. Breeders generally displayed their approval of his appointment by increased entries, and it is hoped that, as a result of the visit, interest in the breed will be greatly stimulated.

The very handsome cup donated by the Shorthorn Society of Great Britain and Ireland, for competition in perpetuity at the Melbourne Royal Show, was greatly appreciated by breeders. In addition, the generosity of several other donors enabled the trophy and prize list to be greatly augmented, and competition was very keen.

It is gratifying that breeders took the opportunity to place the breed so prominently before the public, and also of interest to note that a pure-bred Shorthorn steer won the open export steer class. Competing against representatives of other breeds he gained 96 points, thus demonstrating the natural ability of the Shorthorn to produce beef of the highest quality.

In an endeavour to create greater interest in the breed, a publicity officer has been appointed, and the Society is advertising in several of the leading agricultural and pastoral journals throughout the Commonwealth.

The Red Poll Cattle Breeders' Association of Australia.

As indicated in last year's report, the rules of this Association were altered at the Annual Meeting of members, held during the Centenary Royal Show, to permit of the formation of Branches in the various States and the election of a Federal Council to govern the Association.

Branches of the Association have already been formed in Victoria and New South Wales, whilst breeders in Queensland and Western Australia are expected to establish Branches in their respective States in the near future. As yet the number of breeders in South Australia and Tasmania does not warrant the formation of Branches in those States, but with the ever-increasing popularity of Red Polls this will only be a matter of time.

During the year Volume 7 of the Australian Red Poll Herd Book was published. An indication of the progress made by this Association is the fact that this Volume contains the pedigrees of 363 bulls and 863 cows, a total of 1226 animals, as compared with 1009 in Volume 5, which was the largest previously published. The registration of four imported bulls and twelve imported cows in this Volume is proof of the confidence which the breeders responsible for the importations have in the future of the breed in Australia.

By arrangement with this Association and with the co-operation of the Red Poll Society in England, your Council was enabled to secure the services of Mr. J. G. Gray, of Coombe Abbey, Coventry, England, as judge of the Red Poll section at the Centenary Royal Show. Mr. Gray's work in the ring, together with his subsequent interviews with breeders and his visits to their studs, should prove of great value to breeders and the breed alike. Prizes in this section were considerably augmented by the Association and the parent Society in England, and the animals exhibited established new records, both in numbers and quality.

The Dairy Shorthorn Association of Australia.

As the merits of the Dairy Shorthorn as a dual-purpose animal are becoming more widely known, the membership of this Association is gradually increasing. This increase in membership is in no small measure due to the publicity campaign inaugurated during the year, as the result of which a large number of enquiries for information regarding the breed were received.

In accordance with a resolution adopted at the 1933 Annual Meeting of members, the sum of £50 was donated in additional prizes in the various classes at the Centenary Royal Show, and, although showing no increase in numbers, the display of Dairy Shorthorns was maintained at the high standard set in previous years.

During the year printers' proofs of the second portion of the first Volume of the Herd Book were reviewed by the Committee, and further proofs will be available for inspection at its next meeting.

The Ayrshire Cattle Herd Book Society of Australasia.

This Society has maintained its membership at a high level, and the registrations received for the Herd Book and Calf Register show a considerable increase over last year.

The Federal Council issued Vol. XXVI. of the Herd Book and a further edition of the test record booklet during the year, and copies were forwarded to all members.

The Victorian Branch voted the sum of £100 as additional prize money at the Centenary Royal Show, and doubtless this was one of the factors in the large increase in the number of entries in the section.

The Society joined with other dairy breed societies in forming a Herd Test Advisory Committee, which has received official recognition by the Minister of Agriculture, and will in future act in a consultant and advisory capacity to him.

The Federal Council, in its belief that herd testing is necessary and desirable in the best interests of the breed, decided that in future grants will be made to Branches for this purpose only.

The Friesian Cattle Club of Australia.

The twelfth volume of this Club's Herd Book was published during the year. Increased support was noticeable, Victorian members being particularly well represented.

Very satisfactory progress was made with the negotiations for the re-entry of the Queensland Friesian Cattle Club on its original basis as the Queensland Branch of the Australian Club, and these should be satisfactorily concluded at an early date.

The efforts of the Victorian Branch to increase the entry of Friesians at our Show were successful, and resulted in a splendid representation of the breed.

The Guernsey Cattle Society of Australasia (Victorian Branch).

This Branch has experienced a truly fruitful year as a result of the enthusiasm of the Committee and members. This was clearly reflected in the increased Victorian representation in Volume 10 of the Herd Book, which was published by the Federal Council.

The Branch fully utilised its financial resources to commemorate Centenary year at our Show and to further the interests of the breed. An increase of over 50 per cent. in entries was the result.

The Branch has concentrated its publicity work on promoting sales of the actual milk. In this it has been assisted by the good milk and butter fat tests of the cattle; also by the formation by breeders of a company for the marketing of Guernsey milk as such. A milk bar for guaranteed Guernsey milk was successfully conducted at our Show. The publicity gained was exceedingly useful, and was greatly assisted by the issue of two types of literature, one of general information for the dairy farmer and the other dealing specially with Guernsey milk. The issue of this literature was financed by the Federal Council of the Society, which gave its whole-hearted support to the scheme.

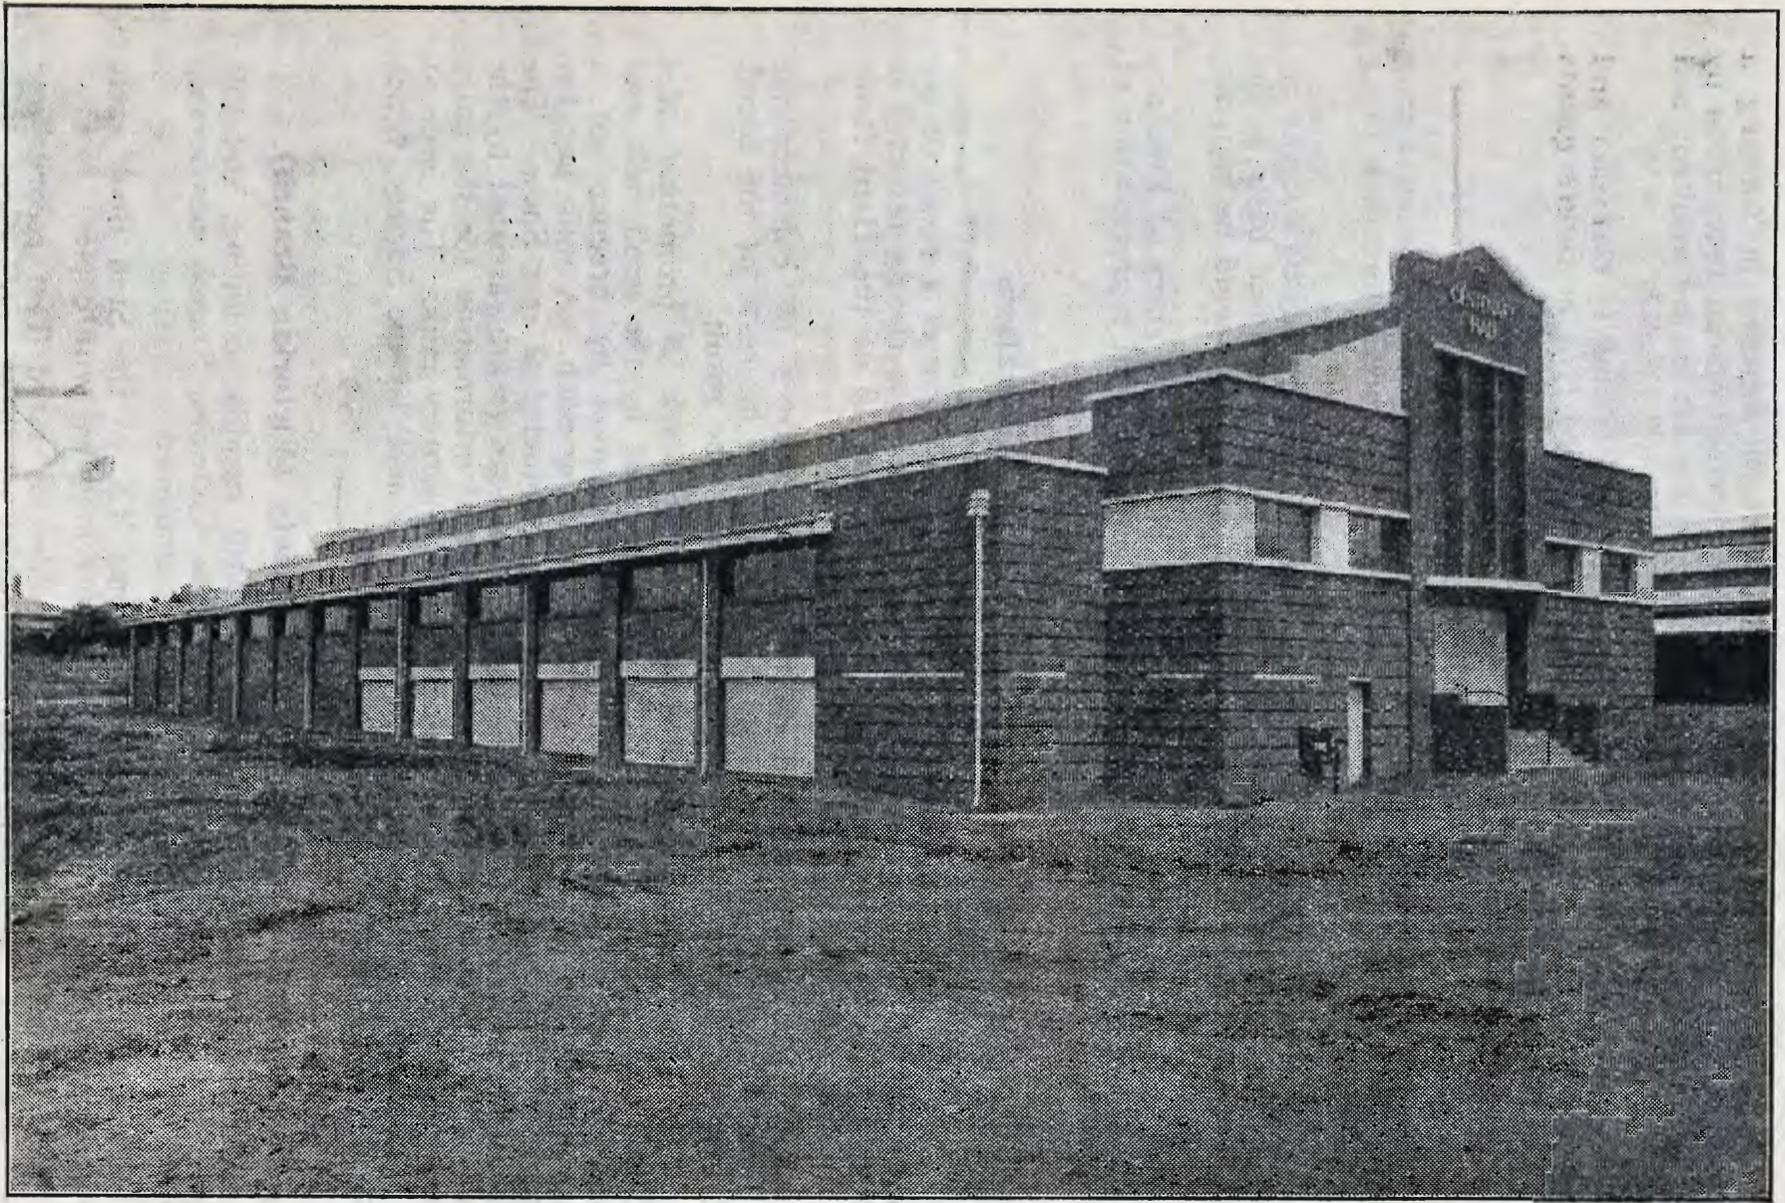

The Australasian Jersey Herd Society (Victorian Branch).

The membership of this Branch is still steadily mounting, and this year passed the record set up in 1933. The Victorian Branch membership is greater than that of the other Branches combined.

The Federal Council published Volume XX. of the Stud Book early in the year, and all financial members were supplied with copies.

The Branch again published its booklet of Herd Test records and other pamphlets, and applications for copies of these publications have been received from every State of the Commonwealth.

To suitably mark the occasion, the Committee decided to request your Council to appoint a judge from Jersey Island for the Centenary Royal Show, and offered to pay up to £200 towards his expenses. As a consequence, Mr. A. G. Le Brun was invited, and he accepted the position.

The Centenary Hall, erected during 1934, to accommodate District Exhibits and Agricultural Produce, etc.

There can be no doubt that his visit will be of lasting benefit to the breed and breeders in this State. The Branch also expended almost £200 in trophies for competition in the various classes, and these were keenly competed for.

It was at the suggestion of the Committee of this Branch that your Council included in the prize schedule a regulation to the effect that stock not in reasonable Show condition would be removed from the Show Grounds, and there is every reason to believe that this regulation met with the approval of exhibitors generally, as never previously has the standard of the stock exhibited been so uniform in quality.

The Australian Illawarra Shorthorn Society (Victorian Branch).

Steady progress is still being maintained by the Victorian Branch of this Society, and breeders are confident that there is a bright future for the breed in Victoria.

Excellent entries were received for the Centenary Royal Show, and the interstate judge favourably commented on the quality of the animals placed before him and the condition in which they were shown.

The prize money in the various classes at the recent Show was increased by the donation of 30 guineas by the Branch.

The publication by the Federal Council of a 500-page booklet and the inauguration of a publicity campaign by this Branch has materially assisted in making more widely known the dairying capabilities of the breed, and will no doubt result in the enrolment of many new members.

The Victorian United Cow Test Association.

Despite the unusually bad season and the low price of butter fat, the herd-testing movement has been well supported by the progressive and determined dairy farmers, and 93 District Associations, representing 127 units, have continued affiliation with the central body. Approximately 95,000 cows, representing about 3100 herds, were under test during the year, and the satisfactory increase in butter-fat production is attested by the ever-increasing number of R.A.S. of V. Production Certificates issued by this Society to Association members whose herds average 300 lbs. fat or over in 273 days.

The Calf Marking Scheme is steadily making progress, and its practicability may be gauged from the decision of the Agricultural Ministers' Conference at Hobart, when the general application of this scheme to the whole of the Commonwealth was recommended.

Good support has been accorded the Dairy Farm Competition annually conducted by this Association, the conditions for which have been altered to include the State Championship prize, of 20 guineas.

There has probably never been any educational work in the dairy industry to equal the splendid service rendered by the field days held under the auspices of the V.U.C.T.A.; whilst the practice of forwarding to all members of affiliated Associations printed reports of all meetings, conferences, etc., is also a valuable factor in maintaining live interest in herd-testing.

The Australian Dairy Cattle Research Association (Victorian Branch).

Continued activity during the year resulted in the Commonwealth Government agreeing to make available £1000 per annum for five years towards the cost of investigating Contagious Mastitis, on condition that a similar sum was provided by the States. In response to a deputation, the Victorian Government agreed to provide £500 per annum for a period of five years if the remaining £500 was contributed by other States, and the proposed investigation was carried out in Victoria. The promised financial support, in addition to that mentioned in last year's report, prompted a confident anticipation of an early commencement of the proposed investigation, and, to that end, a number of properties were inspected by a sub-committee appointed for the purpose, and subsequent to receiving its report the Victorian Branch Committee has made recommendations to the Federal Council which, if adopted, will enable this very desirable work to be taken in hand without further delay.

The Australian Stud Pig Breeders' Society.

After several rather lean years this Society is again able to report that an increasing number of members are being enrolled. During the last few months prices for stud pigs have gradually improved and those breeders who carried on despite the low prices being obtained for stud pigs are now deservedly reaping the benefit.

The Twenty-fourth Volume of the Herd Book was published during the year, and, despite the bad year experienced, contained the pedigrees of 1493 pigs, as compared with 1536 in the previous volume. Volume XXV. of the Herd Book is now in course of publication and it will be the largest yet published.

A record entry of pigs was received for the Centenary Show, the quality in the various breeds being of a high standard. The excellent entries received in the different carcass competitions proved conclusively the value placed on them by exhibitors. The usual donations towards the prize money in these classes were again made this year and, in addition, the prize money throughout the section was increased by a donation of £100 from the Victorian Branch of the Society.

With the improved prices for stud pigs the prospects for breeders are now much brighter and the Society is looking forward to continued advancement.

The Victorian Working Sheep Dog Association.

Steady progress has been made by this Association during the past year. Several new members have been enrolled and some excellent trials have been conducted by affiliated bodies throughout Victoria.

The fourth competition for the 50-guinea "Captain Payne Trophy" was held at Baxter's Flat, Frankston, in conjunction with the local Agricultural Society. Good entries were received and the ground proved so suitable for field trial purposes that it has been suggested that future competitions be conducted thereon.

On the recommendation of the Committee, your Council decided that dogs entered in the Open and Juvenile Trials at the Centenary Royal Show should compete in preliminary trials on the Ascot Racecourse. This innovation, which proved of benefit to the Society, was received with satisfaction by competitors and can therefore be continued.

The Kennel Control Council of Victoria.

Each of the three reports submitted in the past on the activities of this Council since its foundation has been a record of unchecked and rapid progress. Equally satisfactory advancement has taken place during 1934. The membership of the Council is the truest barometer of its actions. For the three years the progressive figures were 402, 894 and 1195, and at the close of its fourth year 1647 members were financial. In each case the increase has been reflected in the support received at our Show in the Dog Section. The figures are 1025, 1165, 1338, and this year 1507 entries.

As the roots of sound government have spread, so has the welfare and unity of the dog world progressed.

The most noteworthy and desirable act in the year's work was the amicable and entirely satisfactory agreement reached with the hitherto opposing controlling body, the Victorian Poultry and Kennel Club. Following several conferences, this body relinquished complete control to the K.C.C. and received the sincere welcome of all as one of the Council's 44 affiliated clubs.

The Chamber of Agriculture of Victoria.

The Thirty-second Annual Convention of this Chamber, held at Shepparton on the 20th, 21st and 22nd March, 1934, was officially opened by His Excellency, the Lieut.-Governor, the Hon. Sir William Irvine, K.C.M.G., and was attended by a large and representative gathering of delegates and invited guests from all parts of the State. During the Convention several most interesting addresses were delivered and were greatly appreciated by the delegates. Items on a lengthy agenda were keenly discussed, and the resolutions passed have since been brought prominently under the notice of the authorities concerned. One session of the Convention was confined to delegates from societies in the wheat-growing areas, and the problems confronting the wheat industry were discussed at length with a view to assisting the Executive in its representations to the Royal Commission appointed by the Commonwealth Government.

At the conclusion of the Convention, delegates were entertained at a complimentary concert, and on the following day were shown over the extensive cannery of the Shepparton Fruit Preserving Company, motored through the surrounding orchards, etc., and subsequently taken to the Dookie Agricultural College, where, after an inspection of the property and stock, under the personal guidance of the Principal and his Staff, all were entertained at afternoon tea. Your Council accorded a hearty vote of thanks to the people of Shepparton for the many courtesies extended to this Society's delegates during the Convention.

It was at the instance of this Chamber that the Hon. C. A. S. Hawker appeared before the Royal Commission on Wheat; that Mr. W. H. Kendell was appointed to the Transport Board and Mr. A. C. Bennett to the Farmers' Relief Board, and it is particularly gratifying to the Executive that legislation has at long last been passed to introduce the system of handling wheat in bulk in this State. Bulk handling of wheat has been urged by the Chamber of Agriculture for many years, and adoption of the system is a full justification for its persistent advocacy of this economic method of handling that product.

The Victorian Young Farmers' Clubs' Association.

The Provisional Committee appointed at the inaugural conference held during the 1933 Show adopted a constitution under which an Association of Young Farmers' Clubs in Victoria could function on right lines. Although copies of this constitution could not be circulated until February, the Provisional Committee was able to report to a further conference, held during the Centenary Show, that 105 of the 220 clubs known to exist in Victoria had already affiliated. Since then additional affiliations have been effected, and it is confidently anticipated that the Association will ere long be one hundred per cent. representative of the Young Farmers' Clubs in this State.

As intimated in last year's report, your Council was desirous of affording every encouragement to the movement and, in view of the support being accorded the newly-established Association, felt justified in making £100 available for the purposes of a camp for Young Farmers during the Centenary Show. This action was greatly appreciated by the Provisional Committee, which co-operated to the fullest extent to ensure success.

Five boys from Queensland and five from New South Wales, nominated by the controlling bodies in those States, took part in the Camp, together with twenty Victorian boys selected from nominations made by clubs affiliated with the Association. The Camp, which was supervised by two officers whose services were made available by the Education Department, was quite successful and many who have the best interests of the movement at heart have urged that the Camp be made an annual event, as is the case in both Sydney and Brisbane.

It is pleasing to note that in connection with this Camp the Association was afforded not only the co-operation and assistance of the Departments of Education and Agriculture, but that of the Railways Department, which transported the Victorian boys to the Camp free of charge, and the Interstate boys at considerably reduced rates.

Commonwealth Fertilisers and Chemicals Ltd. bore the expense of providing distinctive caps for the boys, and the proprietors of the Sun News Pictorial provided them with a full day's entertainment.

The competition for "The Argus" and "The Australasian" Shield, which was restricted to affiliated clubs, was keenly contested and resulted in a win for Scotsburn by the narrow margin of two points.

The Association is keenly appreciative of the secretarial work carried out on its behalf by the Society's staff, and is confident that a continuation of its activities will result in a further extension of the movement and ensure uniformity in the activities of local clubs.

The Journal.

As a result of a satisfactory increase in the circulation of the "Australian Farm and Home," in which this Society's official journal is incorporated, the proceedings at the monthly meetings of your Council, which have been regularly reported therein, together with other matters of interest concerning the Society, have received much wider publicity throughout the Commonwealth than has been the case in recent years.

Membership.

It is gratifying to report that during the past year the membership of the Society showed a considerable increase, the total being 4352, as compared with 3962 in 1933. The present membership is the highest it has been since 1929.

Centenary Celebrations.

In last year's report mention was made of the fact that your Council had placed the Show Grounds at the disposal of the Centenary Celebrations Council to be used for any of the special entertainments and demonstrations arranged during the period of the celebrations. Reference has already been made to the installation of lights in the grandstands, and from there to the turnstile and railway entrances to facilitate the use of the grounds for night entertainments. From a steel tower, especially erected adjacent to the public grandstand, the arena was flood-lit for the purposes of the unique and excellent pageant presented by the Navy during the week immediately following the Show. This system of lighting, supplemented by flood lights on poles erected around the arena, enabled the Services Centenary Committee to stage its comprehensive Tattoo, which included a very realistic air raid.

In addition to these evening entertainments, a Military Gymkhana was held on the afternoon of Saturday, 10th November, on which occasion H.R.H. the Duke of Gloucester was present. Shortly afterwards the grounds resounded with the activity of workmen, who erected an immense and beautiful altar and virtually covered the arena with seats in preparation for the three services to be conducted in connection with the Eucharistic Congress. No charge was made for admission to these services, each of which was wonderfully well attended, and on at least one occasion it is estimated that approximately 100,000 people were congregated on and around the arena.

It is by no means unimportant that the Society revenue benefited by the arrangement made with the Centenary Celebrations Council, but it is most important that, with its fine arena and spacious grandstands, together with the unrivalled facilities for transport by both train and tram, the suitability of the Show Grounds for outdoor entertainments has been demonstrated to so many thousands of people.

Your Council is hopeful that, as a result, much greater use will be made of the Show Grounds in the future and the Society's revenue increase accordingly.

In accordance with a request from the organising Committee, your Council resolved to support the Centenary Floral Parade and Pageant, and entered a float which symbolised "Agriculture." Though not eligible for either of the classifications under which prizes were offered, the judges considered the Society's float worthy of an Honourable Mention.

Council.

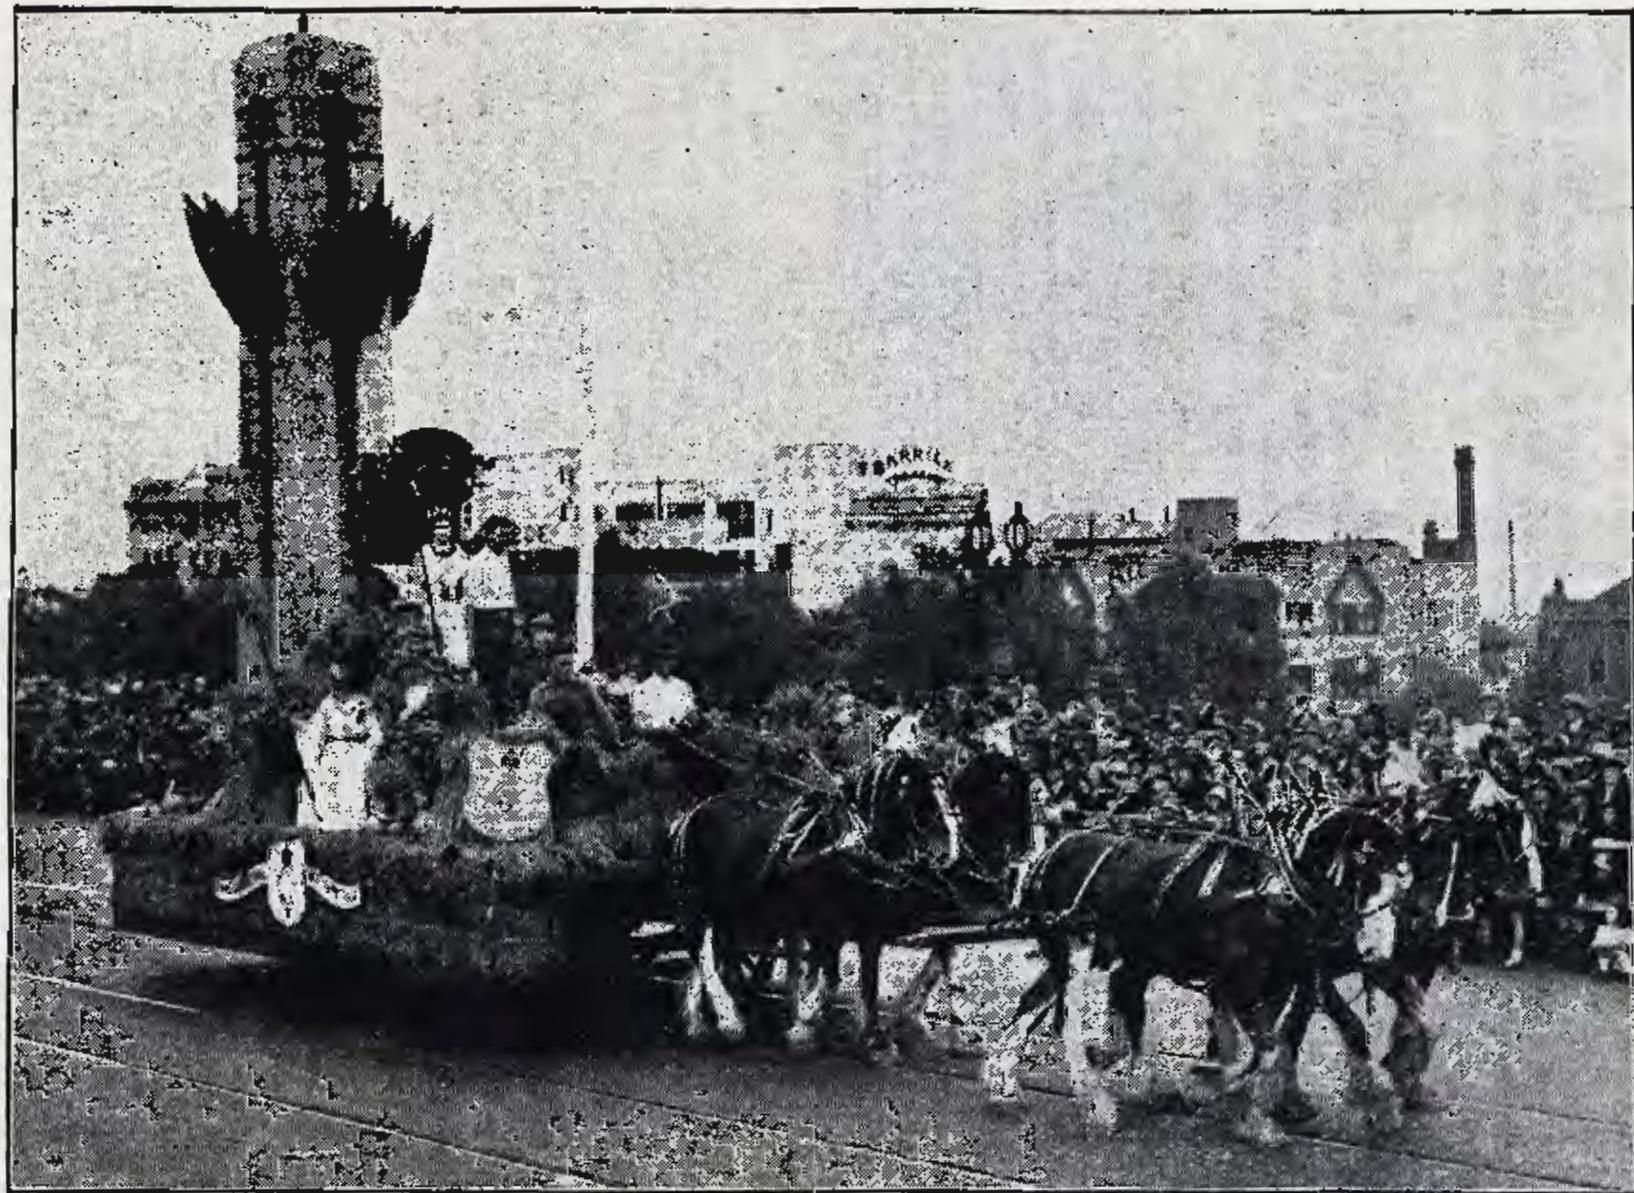

Your Council was particularly pleased when the New Year Honours were announced and it was learned that His Majesty the King had conferred a Knighthood on the Society's President. This gratification was shared by the members of the Society, and Sir Charles was heartily congratulated on receiving this well-earned recognition of his long and valuable public service. The honour was the more appreciated because it was conferred primarily for services rendered in the cause of Agriculture, and, therefore, an honour both for the Society and its indefatigable President.

As the nominations for election at the annual meeting were in excess of the vacancies on the Council, a poll was held, at which the whole of the retiring members were re-elected and Mr. A. H. Moore, of "Tooloonook," Yarram, was elected to the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. W. D. Leslie.

In accordance with the provisions of Rule 8, Mr. H. A. Mullett, Director of Agriculture, was, by Order-in-Council, appointed a Trustee of the Society, vice Dr. S. S. Cameron, deceased.

Extended leave of absence was granted to Mr. C. N. McKay during his tour abroad, and to Mr. P. Tuckett, who visited America.

Mr. Duncan McLennan was prevented from attending several meetings of the Council owing to the necessity for him to undergo a serious operation, which was quite successful and from which, happily he has made an excellent recovery.

The float, symbolical of "Agriculture," entered by the Society in the Centenary Floral Parade.

Acknowledgments.

Your Council desires to acknowledge with keen appreciation the signal honour conferred on the Society by H.R.H. the Duke of Gloucester in officially opening the Centenary Show, and also his acceptance of the Society's illuminated Address of Loyalty and Welcome.

Your Council also gratefully acknowledges the interest displayed by His Excellency the Governor and Lady Huntingfield, not only in the work of the Society but in the welfare of primary producers generally.

The best thanks of your Council are due to the State Government for its continued support in making possible that wonderful display in the Government Pavilion, which was so favourably commented on by Show patrons, and for in other ways assisting the Society, more especially in connection with the legislation desired to close Watson's Terrace and to alter the Show Public Holiday.

Your Council deeply appreciates the services rendered by the judges, stewards and stewardesses at the Show, and the assistance given by the Departments of Railways, Police and Defence, the Tramways Board, the Metropolitan Fire Brigade, and the Melbourne and Metropolitan Board of Works, and it especially desires to acknowledge the co-operation of the various stud stock breeders' societies, both in Great Britain and Australia, for their whole-hearted co-operation with the Society in ensuring the success of the Show by offering valuable trophies and cash prizes for competition thereat; assisting in securing the services of outstanding judges; and also urging their respective members to maintain a high standard in the stock entered for exhibition.

Your Council also takes the opportunity to place on record its keen appreciation of the liberal support of Mr. A. M. Nicholas and those other generous donors to the prize fund, and also to again acknowledge its indebtedness to exhibitors and standholders for their co-operation in ensuring the success of the Show.

Your Council further desires to make special mention of the very real assistance given by the Press in keeping prominently before the public the activities of the Society, more particularly at Show time, and, in conclusion, to thank all others who, in any way, assisted in furthering the interests of the Society throughout the year.

Finance.

After having carefully investigated the possibilities of funding the Society's indebtedness, your Council resolved to take advantage of the offer of the Commercial Banking Company of Sydney to grant the Society an overdraft sufficiently large to enable it to continue its activities and to meet its commitments in connection with works carried out prior to the Show. Your Council was very pleased to make this arrangement, as it was loth to withdraw the account from the bank which had for so many years handled the Society's business in such a satisfactory manner. Under the arrangement referred to the Society will be charged interest at most favoured overdraft rate and will be able to continue to receive from its members deposits at short call which, as in former years, will make possible a saving in interest in proportion to the difference between the total of such deposits and the amount of the overdraft.

On reference to the financial statement it will be seen that the revenue for the year was £40,425/17/8, which shows an increase of £1313/16/8 on that of last year. The expenditure (including £9550/5/- in prizes and £23,306/14/2 for buildings and improvements) amounted to £64,371/19/8, the bank overdraft being increased from £37,831/16/6 to £61,777/18/6, and the Society's indebtedness to the Government, inclusive of interest, decreased during the year from £38,660/7/2 to £37,106/15/-.

Taking the expenditure in permanent improvements as assets, the working expenses for the year show a loss of £639/7/10, as against last year's profit of £1979/12/4, but, of course, the Show being held one month later than usual, receipts during the first month of the new financial year, which, of course, could not be taken into account in the audited statement, reverse that position.

Whilst naturally very disappointed with the financial result of the Centenary Show, your Council feels that the Society can congratulate itself, not only on having faithfully carried out its part in the Centenary Celebrations, but on having consolidated and materially increased its assets as a basis on which to work for the further development of the primary industries and industrial resources of the State during the second century of its history.

“Haig and — / —”

The reason for Haig popularity is inside the bottle.
