President's welcome

FAMILIES from the city, the country and our rural centres will come together for the 2008 Royal Melbourne Show, an event which is marked as a "must attend" on the calendars of hundreds of thousands of Victorians.

The Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria welcomes you to its 153rd Show, the only family event in the state that unites city dwellers and country folk for 11 days of fun, festivity, entertainment, education and participation. Generations have taken home a lifetime of memories to treasure and share with family members and friends.

Society patron, the Governor of Victoria David de Kretser, will officially open the Show at noon on Saturday, September 20.

If you have not been to the Show for a couple of years you will be amazed by the great design and layout of the indoor and outside spaces at the Showgrounds — the results of a vast overhaul undertaken during 2005-2006. This people-friendly site has spacious walkways linking well-appointed pavilions with areas to relax, listen to music or watch amazing demonstrations while enjoying fine food and beverages.

The return of horses to the Show this year will restore a crucial balance to the event, enhancing the activities on the Coca-Cola Arena with competitions and entertainment. Last year the horse events had to be cancelled at the last minute due to the devastating outbreak of equine influenza in Queensland and New South Wales, which threatened Victorian livestock.

Everyone involved has worked towards creating unique and memorable experiences for all patrons and exhibitors, with a stronger animal and rural influence mixed with hands-on experiences, education and entertainment.

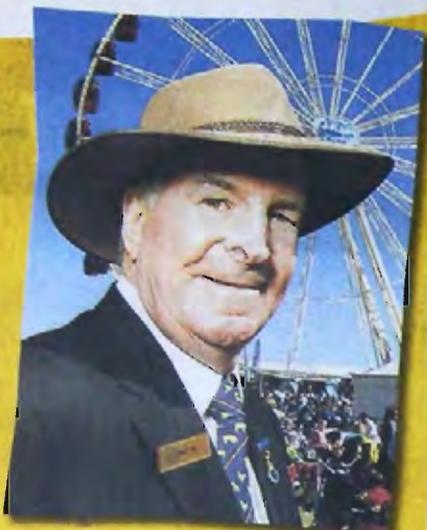

Many of our competitions are renowned for attracting and displaying the best quality and talent Australia has to offer — they will be gathered and presented at the Show for your appreciation.

The Show is put together over many months, its constituent parts forming a mosaic, carefully moulded by people with skills and interests in specific areas. Many of our supporters are part of our dedicated volunteer army.

Don't miss the NAB Animal Nursery Discovery Farm and companion animals, art, crafts, rides, showbags, displays and education, a showcase arena and entertainment, fine food and fun. It's on all day, from 9.30am until late. We have something for every member of the family, no matter what age, providing wonderful experiences and memories.

This is your event. Bring all the family to join us during September 18-28 at the Royal Melbourne Show.

JOHN FOX
President, Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria

Let the

THERE'S nothing like the value and variety of the Royal Melbourne Show.

The Show is also part of Victoria's history and an integral part of the history of thousands of families who love to visit and compete.

A day at the Show is a true country to city experience, with kids of all ages able to experience the animals, agriculture, competitions, attractions and entertainment.

This year the favourite horse events, including the prestigious Garryowen competition, return after missing last year due to horse 'flu — the first year there were no horses at the Show in its 152-year history.

help all visitors make the most of their day, whatever their interest. There's the Farm Discovery Trail for kids, the Great Tasting Trail for adults and a trail featuring the top must-see attractions.

The Show is great value for all, with a huge range of free activities and fun.

Competitions as diverse as cattle breeding and woodchopping, prize poultry and champion show dogs, cake decorating, craft and cooking, will feature on each of the 11-day event — Victoria's largest and longest-running annual public entertainment event.

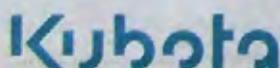

The Show gives patrons the chance to experience the best Victoria has in agricultural competitions and displays, rural lifestyle, leisure activities, entertainment, food, wine, horticulture, showbags, rides and much more.

Animal

ANIMALS big and small, short and tall, furry or feathered, two legs or four are the soul of the Royal Melbourne Show.

This year more than 10,000 animals are on display, from newborn chicks to gentle giant clydesdale horses and everything in between.

A trip to the Show is the perfect opportunity for city kids to get up close to the farm animals they rarely see.

There are even animal athletics for those with a competitive streak. Cheer on your favourite pig in the pig racing or meet some of the more exotic beasts in the Wonderful World of Pets.

The Show is home to the Royal Melbourne Championship Dog Show, the biggest dog show in Australia. As well as almost 200 dog breeds taking up residence at the Showgrounds, the polished precision of dog obedience and the fun race against the clock agility competition show how well dogs can be trained. It's fun and it's free.

A family favourite, the NAB Animal Nursery Discovery Farm returns bigger and better this year and combines with the adjoining Animal Nursery Lawn to give children the full experience of farm life.

NAB ANIMAL NURSERY DISCOVERY FARM

THE NAB Animal Nursery Discovery Farm is a highlight for all visitors.

No visit to the Show is complete without a visit to the farm, home to all that is cute and cuddly.

As well as enjoying puppies, rabbits, quail, emus and more, you can get up close and personal with your favourite baby animals.

A focal point of the farm is the birthing suite, which last year saw the birth of 100 lambs, including nine sets of triplets and two sets of quadruplets.

NAB has been involved with the Show for more than 20 years. The NAB Animal Nursery Discovery Farm is open 9.30am to 8pm daily, except Thursday, September 18, when all pavilions close at 6pm.

Nursery lawn

THE NAB Animal Nursery Lawn is home to a variety of demonstrations and activities throughout the Show. Goats, sheep, alpacas and ducks — among other animals — are on display to give children an insight into farm life.

The Horse Expo features horse demonstrations including fresians and palomino breeds plus animal wranglers, horse farriers, working dogs and duck herding.

Pat a weaner pig at the new Pigs 'n' People display, where you watch sows and their piglets wallow in mud.

The lawn also features sustainability activities to teach kids about the environment, as well as Melbourne Water's Waterwatch Trailer, potato sack races to celebrate 2008 as the International Year of the Potato, and the VAFI Working with Wood activity using recycled timber. Gardening experts from Chris and Marie's Plant Farm will help kids pot their own sunflowers which they can take home.

PROCAL DAIRIES MILKING BARN

NEW this year is the PROCAL Dairies Milking Barn, which will provide a hands-on, real-life farm experience for kids. Children can hand-milk a cow or watch a farmer do the job. The Milking Barn is part of the Farm Discovery Trail and all those taking part get a sample of milk from PROCAL Dairies. It's on the lawn adjacent to the Poultry and Alpaca Pavilion.

WEEKLY TIMES LIVESTOCK PAVILION

THE Weekly Times Livestock Pavilion is home to about 2000 animals during the Show. Come face-to-face with sheep, dairy and boer goats and, depending on which day you visit, watch the beef and dairy cattle judging. See the Daily Planner from Page 22 for details.

WONDERFUL WORLD OF PETS PAVILION

THE Show is not only about big animals. There will be plenty of pocket-sized ones to meet, too. The Wonderful World of Pets Pavilion is home to ferrets, cats, miniature horses, mice, rabbits, pigeons, rats and more. See one or more of the daily demonstrations including detector dogs from the Australian Quarantine and Inspection Service, Responsible Pet Ownership and RACV Wildlife presentations. Cavies, often referred to as guinea pigs, will be on show on Sunday, as will rabbits. The unusual sport of ferret racing will take to the stage from September 25-27. Pigeon fanciers should head to the Wonderful World of Pets on September 26-27 for the pigeon competition. TV vet Dr Katrina Warren's Talking Pets sessions will also be a highlight. Catch her from September 20-27.

SHEARING DEMONSTRATIONS

ENJOY the spectacle of traditional sheep-shearing demonstrations every hour from 11am-4pm daily on Show Park, adjacent to the Poultry and Alpaca Pavilion. As well as marvelling at the skill required, you can feel the fleece of a newly-shorn sheep.

SNAKE-HANDLER STAGE SHOW

FRED the snake handler will delight audiences with snake demonstrations. Those who are game may even get the chance to touch the scaly characters. Shows are at 11am, 12.30pm, 2pm and 3.30pm.

DIVING AND RACING PIGS

PIGS really do fly. And they race as well. The racing pigs are always a crowd favourite. The most "glamorous" of all Show performers, these amazing animal entertainers will race, leap and fly through the air in an attempt to score a perfect 10. This year the diving and racing pigs will perform five shows daily at 10am, 11.30am, 1pm, 2.30pm and 4pm.

MEET THE BREEDERS AND CHAMPIONS

A VISIT to the Weekly Times Livestock Pavilion will bring you face-to-face with champions. You'll also meet the breeders and handlers who have worked hard to have their beasts ready for competition.

Competitors

THE Show is an important and historic competition for all Victorians. More than a day out, it is a competition for everything from cake decorating, arts, crafts and cooking to prize bulls, goats and majestic horses.

Competitors are drawn from across the state and two of the most prestigious competitions both involve horses — the Garryowen Trophy and World Cup Showjumping. Both return this year after events were cancelled last year because of the horse 'flu outbreak.

The Garryowen Trophy has been run since 1934 in honour of popular equestrians Bill and Violet Murrell, who died with their horses in a fire at their Mentone stables. Violet Murrell's prize horse Garryowen was one of those killed.

Judging covers many facets of show riding including horse conformation, soundness, manners, pace, equipment, saddlery, costume and riding ability.

The World Cup Showjumping qualifier will be held under lights at night on the Coca-Cola Arena.

ALPACAS

FEATHERS make way for fine hair when about 450 alpacas invade the Poultry and Alpaca Pavilion for the final four days of the Show. These graceful animals will be judged to find the best in Show. Suri judging takes place on Thursday, September 25, with a general showcase the following day. Huacayas will be on display during the final four days of the Show, September 25-28.

ART, CRAFT & COOKERY

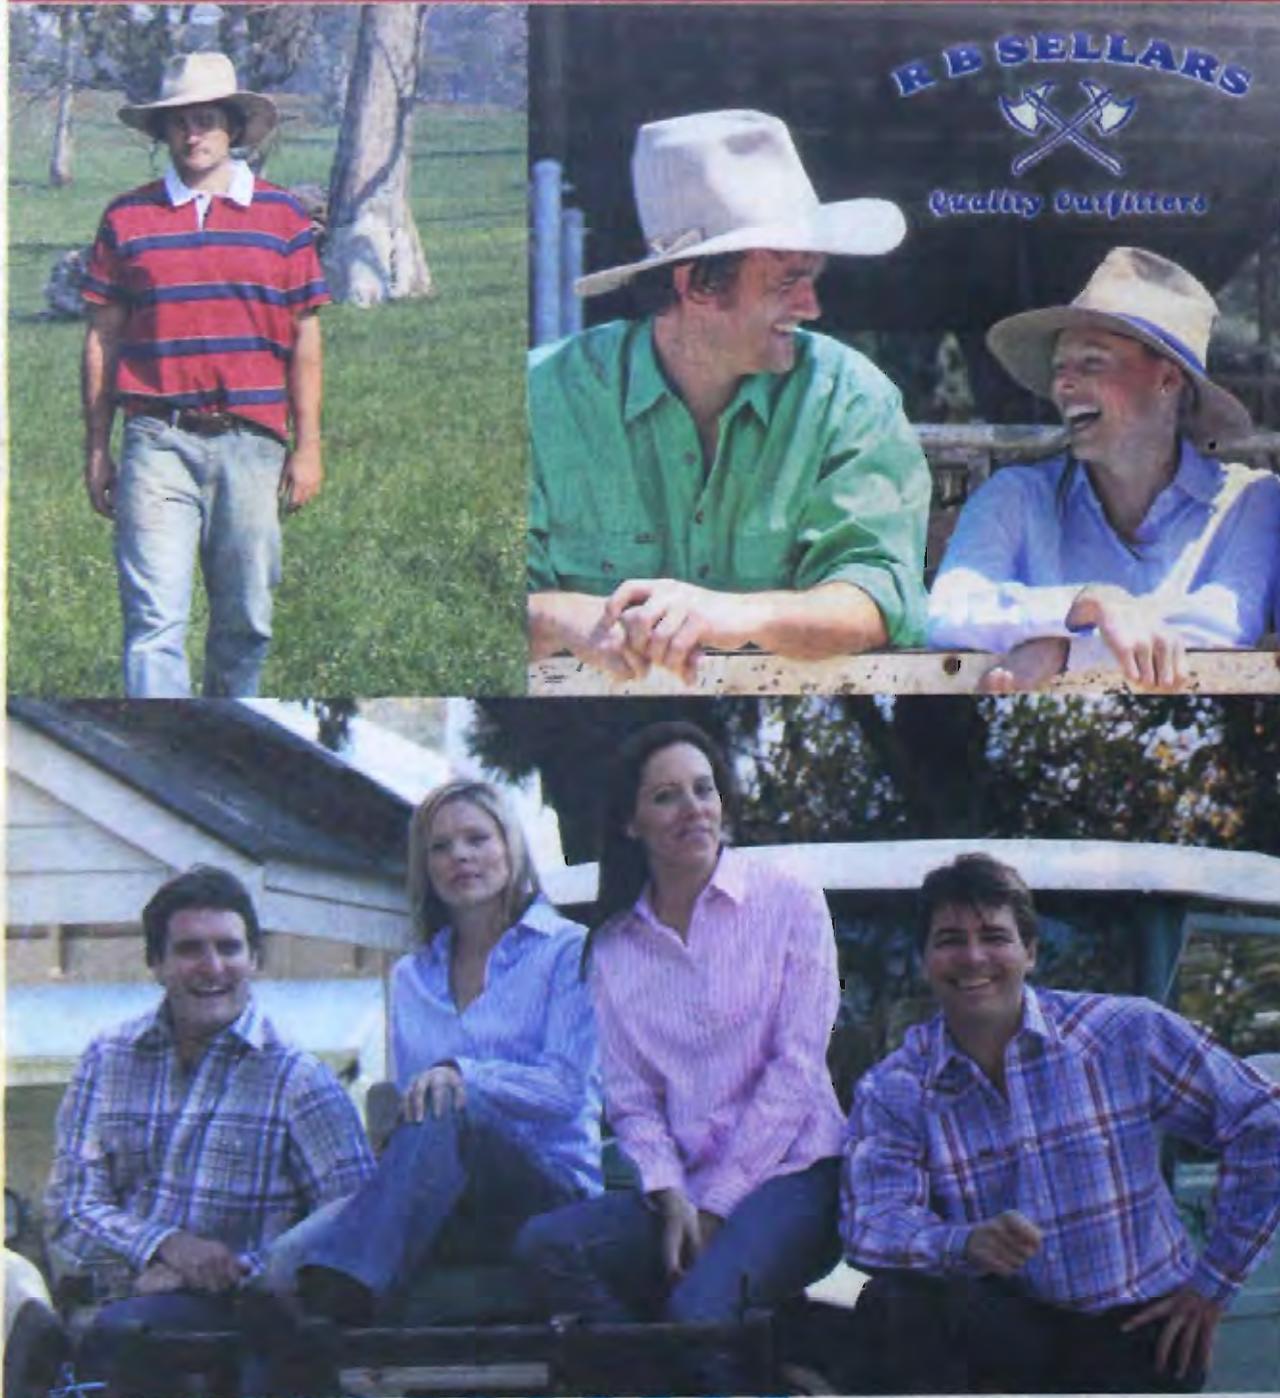

MARVEL every day at the talent and colour of more than 3000 exhibits while listening to the music of Africa on selected days, and view the cultural demonstrations from Turkey, Africa and Polynesia. See demonstrations every day or tempt your tastebuds at the novice cookery public judging on Saturday, September 20. Buy your craft supplies and take up a new hobby.

BEEF CATTLE & CARCASS

WELSH Blacks are the feature breed of the Beef Cattle program. The school steer and heifer competition kicks off on Monday, September 22, with the start of the beef cattle judging to be heralded by a Welsh male choir on Thursday, September 25 at 4pm.

Carcass and steers judging is on Monday and Tuesday, September 22-23. Cattle judging is September 24-28.

Wielding an axe a family affair

THERE are woodchips flowing in Lawrence O'Toole's veins. The world champion woodchopper is the third generation of his family to compete in the woodchop at the Show.

Despite the changing generations, O'Toole insists the Show and competition is as relevant as ever. His grandfather, the great Jack O'Toole, was a world champion woodchopper and his father, uncles and cousins are all heavily involved in the sport. Though woodchopping keeps his family close together, O'Toole enjoys competing for himself.

"I don't think about the family stuff that much during competition," he says. "It's an individual sport. I'm not really a team sport kind of person, but I like competition."

O'Toole says challenging himself in competition will never go out of fashion.

"I got in to woodchopping and got pretty good at it at a young age," he says. "When you are good at something you show an interest and want to be the best. Then you don't want to stop when you get to be the best because you don't want to get beaten."

CATS

CATS big and small will purr their way through a day at the Show in the Wonderful World of Pets Pavilion presented by Channel 7. Common breeds and rare, cats and kittens will form a showcase for their respective breeds in an exhibition on Thursday, September 18. Competition judging runs from September 19-21.

DAIRY CATTLE

THE Dairy Cattle program will highlight youth participation in agriculture with the Kubota Dairy Youth Classic and a public youth seminar focusing on animal husbandry and dairy industry topics. Judging is from September 18-20.

HORSES

HORSE competitions will be a daily highlight in the Coca-Cola Arena, with renowned UK judge Ann Hooley adjudicating in several events. All competitors will be on show in the Horse Precinct, so you can see just how much effort is put into preparing a horse for the Show.

DOGS

THE Royal Melbourne Championship Dog Show is the biggest of its kind in the Southern Hemisphere. Held in Pavilions 18 and 19 at the western end of the Showgrounds, the Dog Pavilions are home to more than 150 breeds. Watch the dogs being put through their paces on the adjacent outdoor rings, including judging by international judges from Chile, South Africa and Japan.

The exciting dog agility competition — a timed obstacle course — will also wow the crowds on Saturday, September 20, as will the precision of dog obedience the previous two days.

WOODCHOP

CATCH the live axe-welding excitement in the Woodchop Pavilion every day. Australia's best axemen battle it out in events including tree-felling, standing block, sawing, team relay and the ultimate Trans-Tasman encounter, the Australia v New Zealand under-21 Test Series. The popular Echo Chainsaw Carving Competition will be held on September 27-28.

GOATS

BLOCK, dairy and angora goats will be judged in the Weekly Times Livestock Pavilion, including the goat car race competition, running for its second year at the Show. Judging is from September 18-21.

FLEECE

SHEEP and alpaca fleeces will be on display in the Art, Craft and Cookery Pavilion, with the connection to finished garments and creative pieces explained.

POULTRY PAVILION

VISIT the Poultry Pavilion to meet an array of feathered friends and watch an entertaining ebook-washing demonstration or learn about backyard poultry. The featured breed of poultry this year is the Old English Game Black Red/Partridge Dark Leg (standard and fantail). Judging is from September 18-24.

SHEEP

SHEEP are a feature of the Show highlights including the White Suffolk Feature Show, Tops of the Troop Ram Sale and Belt Dresher National Show and Sale, where the adjudicator will be Keri Neville Greenward. Judging will be from September 18-21.

See the saw: catch our best axemen as they battle it out in events including tree felling and sawing in the Woodchop Pavilion.

Get on your goats: boer, dairy and angora goats will be on show in the Weekly Times Livestock Pavilion from September 18-21.

Tickle your taste buds

INDULGE your senses of taste and smell with some of the country's premier food and wine producers.

The new Great Tasting Trail will take you on a tasty journey through the centrepiece of the Showgrounds, the Grand Pavilion.

The Great Tasting Trail is your chance to experience the highest quality produce available, including some from the Show's feature region, the Grampians Pyrenees.

The Grand Pavilion is also home to the Safeway Fresh Food Showcase, which is a highlight for all budding chefs and food lovers.

The Showcase will feature regular demonstrations, quick tips and giveaways throughout the day.

Farmers' markets have become popular in recent years among people keen to get their fruit, vegetables and other produce straight from the source.

Visit the new Victorian Farmers' Market Association stand featuring a splendid array of farmers' market produce which you can take home in a fantastic value showbag.

And be sure to visit the Victorian Apiarists Association to learn about bees and taste their delicious honey products.

GRAMPIANS PYRENEES

VICTORIA'S beautiful Grampians Pyrenees area is one of the prime gourmet regions of the state and a great place to live.

This year it takes pride of place in a showcase inside the Grand Pavilion as the Show's feature region.

Taking in Beaufort and Avoca, Ararat and the Northern Grampians, St Arnaud, Stawell and Halls Gap, the region is also one of the most picturesque areas of Victoria.

Region spokeswoman Angela Hunt says the showcase will highlight "a little something from all of our towns".

"We are well-known for our food and wines, with some great wineries in our region and delicious gourmet goods from our Grampians producers group," she says.

The flavours of the Grampians Pyrenees will be available to taste in preserves, jams, chutneys, olives and olive oil, herbs, organic foods, ice cream, cheese and other delicious morsels.

Some 21 wineries from the region will also be involved during the 11 days of the Show.

Visitors to the showcase will also learn about the adventures and activities available in the region. A rock-climbing wall will give a taste of what it's like to climb in the Grampians, and an interactive mountain bike exhibit will have you feeling like you're whizzing through the national park.

Whet your appetite: the Safeway Fresh Food Showcase is a highlight for all budding chefs and food lovers.

Watch it: don't miss the cooking demonstrations.

The vow factor: check out the quality displays.

Ale and hearty: food is not the only thing on show.

Air sports including gliding and hang-gliding will also be featured as record altitudes can be reached in the region.

More land-locked pastimes including golf, sporting activities, walking and other pursuits are also available.

Hunt says the Grampians Pyrenees is a great place to visit with everything from national parks and wildflowers to adventure activities, food and great wine. It is also a great place to live, with little traffic and extra family time.

"A lot of us walk to work and even go home for lunch sometimes," she says. "But we've still got very busy, stimulating jobs and we have more time because we don't have that travel.

"There's an opportunity for a more relaxed lifestyle while still plenty of exciting job opportunities."

The region is particularly keen to recruit health professionals and has vacancies in other skilled professions.

To make moving to a new regional area easier, they also organise social functions, activities and regular get-togethers for people new to town to help them make friends.

The Grampians Pyrenees showcase is the perfect opportunity to learn more about this delightful Victorian region.

The chance to change your life

THE Pyrenees Shire Council and Grampians Pyrenees Regional Development Board are giving Showgoers the chance to change their life and build their dream home in beautiful Avoca.

A competition to win a $60,000 block of land at Avoca will be launched at the Show on Thursday, September 18, when the Grampians Pyrenees opens their regional showcase in the Grand Pavilion.

The land is prime real estate, part of a recent subdivision next to the bowls and golf clubs, close to the Avoca River and a short walk to the town centre.

To enter, collect a ticket from the Grampians Pyrenees stand during the Show. The ticket must then be physically lodged at a Visitor Information Centre in the Grampians Pyrenees (St Arnaud, Stawell, Halls Gap, Ararat, Beaufort or Avoca) before January 31, 2009.

The winner will be announced in February next year. www.grampianspyrenees.com.au

Flying high

SCREAMS, thrills and spills are all part of the fun at the Show and the big news is the super value two-for-one deal from 9.30am-11am every weekday.

There's nothing like getting two goes for the price of one on almost every ride, giving you twice the fun and adrenaline for half the price. Go to royalshow.com for details.

Get turned inside out, upside down and every other way on some of the best thrill rides at the Show.

Action junkies will be well catered for, but there is also the Drumstick

Kids' Carnival with loads of gentle, fun rides.

New this year is the Power Surge. The moment the ride starts you are swept and rotated horizontally to 20m above the ground.

Each seat rotates freely, spinning upside down, round and round. No ride is ever the same.

And don't forget to check out the spectacular views from the top of the Skyview Ferris wheel — one of the largest in the southern hemisphere. The Skyview will be located on the Herald Sun Town Square in the heart of the Showgrounds.

From the top you can see all the activity across the Showgrounds and back to the city's beautiful skyline.

There are four types of rides at the Show. Extreme rides such as the Thunderbolt (E); high G-force rides such as No Limit/Speed (G); family rides such as Techno Jump (F); and kids' rides such as the Cup and Saucer (K). Go to royalshow.com for details.

SKYVIEW FERRIS WHEEL (F)

MAKE a circuit of the Skyview Ferris wheel for a sight to remember. Take the trip in air-conditioned luxury gondolas and marvel at the view usually only birds get to enjoy.

NO LIMIT (G)

WITH two outstretched arms, No Limit sends riders high into the air and spins with five times the force of gravity — close to the force a fighter pilot experiences. Then prepare for the tummy-tingling straight drop from 30m with a force of 5G.

From coaster to coaster: a new two-for-one deal at the Show this year means you can have twice the rush for half the price. The special ride offer is valid on weekdays. Go to royalshow.com for details.

Let it ride: thrillseekers will be in their element.

HANGOVER (E)

HANGOVER will leave you suspended upside down in a hanging car until it brings you swooping back around for more and more and more.

RAUPEN BAHN (E)

THIS heart-starter hurtles you 120km/h through a darkened tunnel — you don't know what's around the next corner or down the next dip.

THUNDERBOLT (E)

BE PROPELLED along a track at 120km/h with the suspended cars giving you the feeling of weightlessness and flying through the air.

Come in spinners: there are suitable rides for all ages.

CRAZY COASTER (F) (E)

NOT only a rollercoaster, the Crazy Coaster takes you around the tracks and then the cart starts spinning.

F1 EUROSLIDE (F)

THE biggest slide in the southern hemisphere. Launch yourself down the 25m slide and pick up speed as you coast along for almost 60m.

SPACE ROLLER (E)

SITTING on one of five arms, the Space Roller spins you upside down and around on every axis.

NUMERO UNO DODGEMS (F)

DRIVE, bump and jive to the music as you make your way around the track.

KIDS RIDES (K)

Dino Ride, Jurassic inflatable, Cup and Saucer, Rockin Tug, Dodgems, Elephants, Merry go Rounds, Convoy, Tiger inflatable, Miniature train, Model Cars, Star Jets, Jumping Castle, Gold Mine Coaster, Samba Balloon Ride, Aladdin Mini Jets, Underside mini ferris wheel, City Bridge Convoy, Outback Pony Rides, Outback Rattlers, Grand Carousel, Cars Disney inflatable, Circus Circus and Musical Train.

Big show-offs

THERE'S nothing like the sensational free entertainment at the Show with so much fun for the family available for nothing.

Kids can see their favourite cartoon characters, mum and dad can groove to sounds of the legends of Australian rock and the entire family will be on the edge of their seats watching men and their motorbikes flip through the air.

A highlight of the Show's entertainment schedule is the twice-daily program in the Coca-Cola Arena.

This exhilarating 45-minute features the car-crushing power of Sampson the Monster Truck, the gravity-defying feats of Ukrainian Cossack rider Sergiy Khimich, and the daredevil antics of the Showtime FMX Stunt Riders as they launch their bikes off huge jumps and flip through the air. Hey, they even let go.

The nightly entertainment also includes a featured horse event. Look for the Shetland Steeplechase or World Cup Showjumping Qualifier, which will precede the scheduled entertainment block.

Let the kids meet their favourite Showtime characters including Kung Fu Panda Po, Garfield, the Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles and the Tweenies, who will parade several times a day on stage in the Herald Sun Town Square.

The main entertainment precincts are the Coca-Cola Arena and Herald Sun Town Square. Many pavilions will also be home to demonstrations throughout the day.

Check the daily planner for all the entertainment details.

FIREWORKS

A TRADITIONAL Show favourite, the fireworks displays return this year and will mark the finale of the Show each day (except for September 18).

In an exciting new format, the 10-minute display will be set off from different locations instead of just one point as in previous years, creating an exciting spectacle from the Herald Sun Town Square.

Visitors all around the grounds will have a great view just before closing time of the colourful aerial display to be launched from the public stand, RASV administration building and western end of the Showgrounds.

BJORN AGAIN

THE tunes of ABBA are guaranteed to get even the most reluctant jivers up and dancing.

Bring out your flares and platform shoes as Bjorn Again, the world's hottest ABBA tribute act, rock the showgrounds on Saturday nights, September 20 and 27.

SHOWTIME CHARACTERS

POPULAR Showtime kids characters come to life daily in the Herald Sun Town Square.

One of the newest kids on the block, Kung-Fu Panda Po, will star in the action-packed shows.

He will be joined by old favourites Garfield, the world's laziest cat, the high-octane Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles and colourful Tweenies Bella, Fizz, Jake and Milo for songs, stories and adventures. Fans of the characters will even get the chance to meet their cartoon idols after the show.

VIC UNI BANDS

SOME of Melbourne's hottest young bands get the chance to strut their stuff during the Show.

Student bands from Victoria University's music courses hit the live stage in the Herald Sun Town Square.

The pressure is on for the students, who are completing a TAFE diploma course in degree, to get the crowd rocking. These live performances and organizing a tour, in this case the Show series, accounts for about 25 per cent of their marks.

Air apparent: don't miss the daredevil antics of the Showtime FMX Stunt Riders in the Coca-Cola Arena.

What a blast: the Fireworks Spectacular in the Herald Sun Town Square is a crowd favourite.

Teacher Stephen Rando says about 52 students will be involved over nine nights, with music ranging from standard rock and pop to funk, blues, covers and originals.

Band will play 45-minute sets, except for an eight-piece funk band who will play for two hours.

"Most haven't really experienced playing on such a big stage so they're all pretty excited," Rando says.

Some of the groups have been put together just for the Show, while other students have formed their own groups and play professional gigs around Melbourne — your chance to see some of our best up-and-coming bands performing from Friday, September 19 to Saturday, September 25 at 6.30pm.

Sunday sessions

AS YOUNGER generations discover Daryl Braithwaite's music, he is becoming popular all over again.

It is another incarnation for a man who has spent almost 40 years in the music industry as he returns to the Show's popular Sunday Sessions, playing the hits that made him famous.

"The ones they want to hear are Rise, One Summer, As the Days Go By and The Horses," Braithwaite says.

"The Horses" has turned into something that's quite extraordinary.

"Over the past three or four years... the majority of people coming to gigs are from that 18-25 age bracket. They don't know anything about Sherbet or what happened then, but they make a difference to the audience with great enthusiasm."

Last year, Braithwaite's rendition of The Horses went for more than 11 minutes — and audiences just couldn't get enough.

Braithwaite will be joined on Sunday, September 21 by fellow Australian rock legends Russell Morris and Brian Cadd.

The Sunday Sessions are one of the hits of the Show. With more than 120 years combined experience in the music industry, the trio is behind some of the most famous and enduring Australian rock songs and ballads.

Joe Camilleri and the Black Sorrows will inject a little soul into the Show on September 28 in their Sunday Session with rocker James Reyne.

Super troupers: bring out your platform shoes and jive the night away with ABBA tribute band Bjorn Again.

There's nothing like a huge day of value-packed fun!

Plan your best Show ever

THERE is so much to do at the Show you need to plan to make the most of your day.

With highlights spread across the 19ha Showgrounds, you will need to decide your must-sees.

Study the daily planner so you know when and where everything is happening and you can make sure you won't miss your favourite free events.

Some attractions are on at set times, other exhibitors run all day, so keep an eye on your watch and enjoy as much as you can.

A day could easily be spent in the pavilions, inspecting art and crafts, sampling local foods, beers and wine, working up a sweat at the Herald Sun Sports Hub, enjoying the latest in lifestyle products and services and, of course, getting close to animals of all shapes and sizes.

Whether your best friend wears fur, feathers or fins, the Wonderful World of Pets Pavilion has everything you need to keep your pet happy and healthy. Demonstrations include the Pedigree Dog Show, Whiskas FOC Car Show, RACV wildlife presentations, Ferret Society, Responsible Pet Ownership, the Australian Quarantine and Inspection Service, and pigeons.

A highlight will be appearances by TV vet Dr Katrina Warren, who will be on stage three times a day for most of the Show.

Warren will be teaching visitors how to look after and train their animals.

The Grand Pavilion is the home of food, wine and produce and this year will introduce the Great Tasting Trail — a tantalising journey of Victorian produce including goods from the 2008 Show feature region, the Grampians Pyrenees, plus Dairy Australia, Yarra Valley wines and the Baking Industry Association pie-making exhibition.

Burn off some energy at the Herald Sun Sports Hub by trying your hand at interactive sports, games and challenges for all ages. There's a basketball three-on-three competition, indoor skating rink and a bungee trampoline for the brave.

The Victorian Government Expo is the place to learn what Victoria has to offer, with interactive fun for families at the Victoria Police, Metropolitan Fire Brigade and Victorian State Emergency Services stands.

The Art, Craft and Cookery Pavilion is a world of creativity and colour and includes exhibits of art, photography, decorated cakes, new media, junior and school competitions, craft, toy-making and millinery.

Other highlights include the Home, Garden and Living Pavilion, the Woodchop Pavilion — home to the world-class woodchop competition, and the Weekly Times Livestock Pavilion, home to some of the biggest competition animals.

Thursday September 18

THE first day of the Show has something for everyone.

Earlybirds can see the duck-herding demonstration on the NAB Nursery Lawn or the working dog demonstrations.

Sack races will be held on the NAB Nursery Lawn all day.

In the Arts, Crafts and Cookery Pavilion, kids can create their own works of art with the Paint Pot People, and adults can indulge in some wine tasting in the Grand Pavilion.

For something a bit unusual, see the chook-washing display at 12.30pm in the Herald Sun Town Square.

Friday September 19

HORSES, dairy cattle and sheep are under the judges' eyes today.

In the Woodchop Pavilion, the chips will fly in the first finals of the woodchopping competitions.

The graceful sport of showjumping will take over the Coca-Cola Arena for much of the afternoon.

Horse competitions of a different kind, the light harness, tradesman and delivery categories, will be on show.

Show visitors can groove the night away at the first of the Victoria University band performances at the Herald Sun Town Square.

The night will end with a fireworks display at 9pm.

Saturday September 20

MAJESTIC clydesdale horses are out of the drawcards today.

At noon the official opening of the Show will take place, along with the clydesdale dressage and parade.

From 12.30pm, popular TV vet Dr Katrina Warren will be at the Wonderful World of Pets Pavilion to discuss pet care and licensing.

Female and junior woodchop competitors sharpen their axes, along with entrants in the Jack and Jill double-handed saw event, which is always fun.

In the afternoon, one of the world's most popular cover bands, Bjorn Again, will have visitors bobbing to ABBA songs when they take the stage at the Herald Sun Town Square.

Sunday September 21

THE popular Sunday sessions return with three legends of Australian rock, Daryl Braithwaite, Brian Cadd and Russell Morris, on stage at the Herald Sun Town Square belting out great Aussie rock classics from 3.30pm.

At the Woody Finns Livestock Pavilion, experience the excitement and fast trades of the Top of the Drop lam sale and National Roll Downer Sale as farmers bid for stock in the auction.

In the Woodchop Pavilion, trans-Tasman rivalries are reignited in the first of the Australia v New Zealand woodchop Test series from 2pm.

The Arts, Crafts and Cookery Pavilion will keep the kids busy with two craft activities — painting a canvas and making bead jewellery.

And if you've ever thought of keeping chooks in your back yard, don't miss the talk on backyard poultry in the Healthy and Alpha Pavilion at 11.30am and 2.30pm, and the chook-washing display at

Monday September 22

12.30pm. MINIATURE horses will be centre of attention today at the Wonderful World of Pets Pavilion and young riders will be on display in the junior riding competitions at the Coca-Cola Arena.

The daily Pedigree dog show, Whiskas on Show, Responsible Pet Ownership, RSPCA detector dogs and RACV wildlife shows are also must-sees at the Wonderful World of Pets.

Beer and wine appreciation sessions in the Grand Pavilion are sure to be popular.

The twice-daily high-octane entertainment package continues with the Showtime FMX Street Riders whizzing through the air, the Champion Gosack stunt rider and his death-defying tricks and the destructive force of Stampy the Monster Truck in the Coca-Cola Arena at 12.15pm and 7.45pm.

Laura K. Clarke and Megatron Attack, from Victoria University, will showcase their music talents before the fireworks take flight at 9pm.

Tuesday September 23

MORE unusual transport will feature at the Show with the Australian Carriage Driving Society putting on a carriage-driving demonstration in the Coca-Cola Arena during evening action.

The arena is home to many entertainment highlights of the day including the hunting board parade and hunting horses in action.

Dr Katrina Warren continues her entertaining talks on pet care, training and having fun with your furry family members in the Wonderful World of Pets Pavilion.

Across the grounds in the Woodchop Pavilion, the second Australia v New Zealand woodchop Test will be held.

Can one country win the Test series in two outings or will it come down to a nail-biting third-test decider?

One of the most popular children's attractions — the Showtime characters — will be on stage at the Herald Sun Town Square with Tweenies, Garfield, King Fu Panda, and Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles taking their turn in the spotlight during the day.

Wednesday September 24

CATCH the thrills and spills of the exciting Shetland Steeplechase as champion Shetland pony race around Coca-Cola Arena at 7.15pm.

Champion athletes of a different kind, the woodchoppers, compete in some of the most exciting events on their woodchop agenda with the tree-killing handicap, father and son combination handicap, the underhand and standing block relay and the veteran's standing block handicap for choppers aged 60 and over.

For something you don't see every day, the rat show will be held during the day at the Wonderful World of Pets.

Some of the biggest competitors will also be under the judge's eyes today with beef cattle judging of Australian Lowline, Brahman, Braugus, Charbray, Dexter, Limousin, Binzauer, Red Angus and Santa Gertrudis cattle.

And check out the activities and demonstrations on the NAB Animal

Thursday September 25

TODAY the alpacas move into the Showgrounds for their days of fame.

And some of the smallest animal competitors of the Show — ferrets, rats and mice — will have their turn in front of the judges.

The nailbiting third Test in the Australia v New Zealand woodchop international championship will start at 2pm and an exciting day of woodchop competition.

For something a little more sedate, there will be cake-decorating demonstrations and machine knitting at the Art, Craft and Cookery Pavilion and a chance to inspect all the great handwork and craft expertise of many clever Victorians.

Victoria University bands will continue to wow the audiences with performances from Simone and Garfunkel and the Quinn Band.

Friday September 26

THE historic Garryowen Equestrienne Turnout is the standout of the day as horsewomen and their steeds strive to look their best and work together as a well-drilled machine in this true test of equestrian ability.

The Garryowen and all horse events were cancelled last year because of the horse flu outbreak, so the return of the Garryowen is an important feature this year.

In more horse action in the Coca-Cola Arena, the J. Penherton and K.G. Luke Equestrian Turnouts will be held after the Garryowen.

The Wonderful World of Pets will host a ferret show and a pigeon show as well as the usual daily program of talks and demonstrations.

And don't forget that kids can take on a competition among themselves with sack races and other fun activities every day on the NAB Animal Nursery Lawn.

Saturday September 27

THE best of the thousands of dogs who have competed during the past nine days of the Show will be judged to find the Best in Show today. Junior dog handlers will find out who is the master junior showman, and the well-trained dogs of Victoria will compete for the dog obedience titles.

The smart working dogs will show their skills on the NAB Nursery Lawn.

If you wanted to go to one of their gigs, you'd have to buy tickets weeks in advance, but if you are at the Royal Melbourne Show you can enjoy the best of ABBA tribute artists Bjorn Again, who return to the Show with their high-energy tribute to that great '70s band in a musical highlight of the Show from 5.30pm.

Soon after is a two-hour set from Victoria University funk band Funk'dified, who will have Show visitors of all ages dancing around the Herald Sun Town Square.

Sunday September 28

THE final day of the Show is full of highlights.

Watch the dogs running through the obstacles of the dog-agility course in an attempt to be crowned agility champion.

Call out at the second of the popular Sunday Sessions with toe-tapping performances from James Keene and the funky sounds of Joe Camilleri and the Black Sorrows.

Rabbits, cavies (guinea pigs), alpacas, and beef cattle will be the last animals judged.

And, of course, the final fireworks display at 9pm will herald the end of the 2008 Royal Melbourne Show.
