From the Premier

It is a pleasure to welcome you to the Melbourne Showgrounds for the fun and excitement of the 2012 Royal Melbourne Show.

For more than 155 years, the Show has provided an opportunity for the young, and young at heart, to celebrate this unique and iconic event.

Conducted by the Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria, the Show is Victoria's largest annual community event. Visitors have the chance to see thousands of animals up close, taste some of Victoria's finest food and beverages, view the many art and craft exhibitions, and interact with fun and educational activities.

The much-loved animal exhibits at the Show give children a taste of rural life. With the Animal Nursery, and many alpacas, horses, dogs, goats and lambs, there is something at this year's Show for all animal lovers.

Celebrate Victorian food excellence in the new Tastes of Victoria Pavilion, which brings to life all of the wonderful food and beverages that make Victoria the home of fine food.

Enjoy a gastronomic journey, learn about seasonal produce and locality and indulge in the excellence of Victorian food. The new Paddock to Plate Pavilion brings the journey of food to our plates to life, by explaining the origins of our food.

You can visit the Victorian Government exhibitions, which include a variety of activities in the Kids Zone for children of all ages to enjoy. The State Emergency Service, Victoria Police Force and Emergency Services Telecommunications Agency are also providing free activities.

Visitors can learn about saving lives with the Metropolitan Fire and Emergency Services Board, about sustainability with the Department of Sustainability and Environment, and about fire safety with the Country Fire Authority.

These exhibits give people an opportunity to find out more about how these services work together to keep Victoria safe.

I encourage you to attend this year's Show, which provides great family entertainment, spectacular fireworks displays, carnival rides and so much more, ensuring an amazing variety of memorable experiences that you can enjoy with family and friends.

I wish everyone an exciting and memorable 2012 Royal Melbourne Show.

From the President

The Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria (RASV) looks forward to welcoming visitors to Melbourne Showgrounds for the 157th Royal Melbourne Show, to be held from Saturday, September 22 to Tuesday, October 2.

For sheer fun, discovery and excitement, there's nothing like the Royal Melbourne Show. From thousands of animals to see up close, award-winning food and wine to taste, along with arts and crafts, fun interactive educational activities, new entertainment and attractions, spectacular fireworks and much more, there's an amazing variety of unique and memorable experiences to enjoy with family and friends.

The Royal Melbourne Show is Victoria's largest annual community event. It promotes and celebrates agriculture and, importantly, is the state's premier event for agricultural competitions.

This year we are celebrating two milestone events - the 60th presentation of the Borthwick Trophy, which is widely recognised as the most prestigious beef carcass award in Australia, and the 50th anniversary of the Murray Grey breed exhibiting in the Beef Cattle competition.

In addition, more than 600 horses will be competing for blue ribbon glory in the Horses in Action program which includes a World Cup show jumping qualifying event, exhibition eventing and the prestigious Garryowen Equestrienne Turnout, one of the highest national horse riding accolades for women.

For foodies and budding chefs, there's an amazing range of food experiences to enjoy this year. The new Tastes of Victoria Pavilion features the very best in Victorian fine food, wines, craft beers and ciders.

Enjoy mouth-watering cooking demonstrations, mini masterclasses, the Royal Melbourne Fine Food Deli and a variety of regional food producers, growers and makers.

Try out fun and educational free activities such as the new Paddock to Plate Pavilion which hosts the Pura Milking Barn, and My Backyard which features veggie picking, seed planting and flower arranging activities.

In addition, we are delighted that for the first time one of Australia's favourite home cooking shows, My Kitchen Rules, will be at the Show.

Hosted by celebrity chef Karen Martini, you can see celebrity chefs Guy Grossi and Martin Boetz as well as past MKR contestants in a very entertaining show. There are three sessions a day and tickets for this attraction are sold separately.

I encourage you to take advantage of the great value ticket packages available and buy your tickets before the Show starts.

From the exclusive early bird offer for RASV members (who can save up to 30 per cent on general admission), and the super value Ticket to Ride (which includes entry and rides), to the Entry and Travel Saver (which includes admission and the convenience of all-day use of public transport), there are great savings on offer.

On behalf of the RASV, I would like to thank our principal partners: Commonwealth Bank, Coca Cola, Mars Petcare and Woolworths along with all our other valued sponsors, members, exhibitors, staff and volunteers for their involvement in the Royal Melbourne Show.

I trust everyone involved in the 2012 Royal Melbourne Show has an enjoyable experience and a great day out with family and friends.

Youth in Agriculture Weekend

The Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria will celebrate the outstanding contribution and skill of young people in agriculture and agribusiness in an exciting Youth in Agriculture Weekend on the first two days of the Show (September 22-23).

Highlights include the Emerging Leaders in Victorian Agriculture Presentation Evening and Careers Sessions, as well as the Rural Ambassador Awards State Final, Young Farmers Challenge, Steers and Careers Program and the ALPA Young Auctioneer Award.

Don't miss the exciting Young Farmers Challenge action on the Coca Cola Arena at 5pm on Saturday, September 22.

Four teams will compete in a skills-based competition to secure a place in the national finals, to be held at the 2013 Sydney Royal Easter Show.

local, seasonal and delicious, the pavilion is the destination for foodies and lovers of specialty produce.

Prepare to be taken on a journey of Victoria's prime food-producing regions and enjoy cooking demos from some of Australia's top chefs and TV personalities.

While you are in the pavilion, make sure you visit the Royal Melbourne Fine Food Deli which will offer award-winning products including coffee, meats, relishes, cheese and wine from the Royal Melbourne Fine Food Awards to sample and buy. And check out the great-value Royal Melbourne Fine Food Deli bags.

Celebrating real food with real people, the Show brings to Melbourne for the first time the My Kitchen Rules LIVE Contestant Cook-off.

Hosted by celebrity chef Karen Martini, with appearances from celebrity chefs Guy Grossi and Martin Boetz, the popular TV cooking show will go live: as your favourite contestants showcase their culinary skills. An additional ticket is required for the My Kitchen Rules LIVE event.

Direct from the US to the Show, clowning genius Bello Nock will make his Australian debut in the Entertainment Dome on Town Square.

Winner of the Golden Clown (2011) at the Monaco International Circus Festival, Bello's world-class routines mixed with daredevil stunts are sure to amaze you.

TASTES OF VICTORIA PAVILION

New for 2012, the Tastes of Victoria Pavilion is a food lover's dream. This dedicated pavilion celebrates all things local, seasonal and delicious and is the destination for specialty produce at the Show.

Prepare to be taken on a journey through Victorian food-producing regions including the Yarra Valley and Sun Country on the Murray.

Visit the Tastes of Victoria Stage to see cooking demonstrations from Melbourne and regional chefs.

Leading Australian chef, presenter and media personality Guy Grossi will feature in the stage line-up, along with MasterChef Allstars Chris Badenoch and Dani Venn, and Alice Zaslavsky and Beau Cook from the latest series, as well as the ever popular MasterChef Kids.

The Tastes of Victoria Stage will also host hot Melbourne chefs including Matt Wilkinson from Pope Joan and Michael Patrick from San Telmo, Nicky Riemer from Union Dining and Travis McCauley from Hellenic Republic. Cooking demonstrations will be on the hour each day of the Show.

An intimate experience is on offer at the Mini Masterclass Stage where audiences can learn the finer points of coffee, ice cream, chocolate, wine, craft beer, cider, olive oil and cheese.

The Royal Melbourne Fine Food Deli is a must, offering a gastronomical journey of award-winning Victorian products from the Royal Melbourne Fine Food Awards and Royal Melbourne Wine Show.

Whet your palate with a glass of wine, or try a medal-winning sausage or a delicious cheese plate. Enjoy a glass of Victorian craft beer or cider in the new beer and cider garden, a perfect accompaniment to the high-end street food offerings from the funky food trucks parked outside.

One of them, the Cornutopia taco food truck will serve delicious tacos with a choice of fillings and accompaniments plus a great selection of other Mexican street food.

Guy Grossi

Guy Grossi heads a stellar line-up of celebrity chefs appearing at the Royal Melbourne Show.

Delighted with the enthusiasm for food that has engulfed Victorians, Grossi will demonstrate recipes from his most recent book Recipes From My Mother's Kitchen.

"The foodie revolution has made preparing good food a primary concern and it's great to see people thinking more about their choice of produce and ingredients and how they treat it," he says.

He says people are becoming more adventurous, not just in the restaurant meals they order but in the ingredients they choose and the meals they cook at home.

"They are not just more adventurous but also taking the time to learn more about the ingredients and what to do with them," he says.

"That's why it is such a good idea to come along to a demo if you can - particularly in a fun and casual environment where everyone feels comfortable."

Grossi says those who attend his demonstrations at the Show will learn some fundamental cooking skills that are part of the core of knowledge to preparing a good meal, as well as how to prepare recipes they can do at home.

September 22, 28 and 29.

Royal Melbourne Fine Food Deli

MY KITCHEN RULES

Live

CONTESTANT COOKOFF

For the first time, Australia's favourite cooking show My Kitchen Rules goes live at the Royal Melbourne Show.

From September 22 to October 2, celebrity chef Karen Martini will host the My Kitchen Rules LIVE Contestant Cook-off in the purpose-built venue inside the Show's new Entertainment Dome.

Your favourite MKR contestants, including this year's South Australian finalists Nic and Rocco, NSW siblings Helen and Steve, Tasmania's Megan and Andy, WA scientists Emma and Andrew, in-laws-to-be Sam and Jillian and season two winners Sammy and Bella, will once again showcase their culinary skills.

Joining them at selected events will be special celebrity chefs - such as Karen's fellow guest judge Guy Grossi from Grossi Florentino, Longrain's Martin Boetz, and others.

For the MKR contestants line-up, go to mykitchenrules.com.au

"This is the first time MKR has undertaken live shows so everyone is incredibly excited," Martini says. "It's a slightly different format but remains true to the essence of this hugely successful show."

As well as watching the MKR contestants battle the MKR clock, audience members will also have the chance to join their favourite contestants on stage, and everyone will have the opportunity to meet their favourite celebrity chefs and MKR contestants at meet-and-greet and book signing events.

"The My Kitchen Rules LIVE

Contestant Cook-off will offer the unique opportunity to showcase the expertise of the MKR contestants at their best and the audience will get a real sense of how much pressure the average home cook can be under in the MKR HQ scenario," Martini says.

The shows are 40 minutes of pure cooking entertainment, and the audience will walk away with new skills and plenty of tips.

TICKETS

You'll need to buy an extra ticket, in addition to the Show entry, to be part of My Kitchen Rules LIVE Contestant Cook-off at the Show.

My Kitchen Rules LIVE Contestant Cook-off tickets are adults $15, children $5 and VIP package $35. Head online to get great value packages that include entry to the Show and My Kitchen Rules LIVE Contestant Cook-off. They are adults $39, children $16, or family (2+2) for only $95.

For an extra-special MKR experience, the VIP package includes entry to My Kitchen Rules LIVE Contestant Cook-off, reserved seating and access to the VIP pavilion to enjoy a complimentary glass of champagne while you mingle with celebrity chefs and MKR contestants.

Buy your tickets online at www.royalshow.com.au or call Ticketek on 132 849.

ACTIVITIES

Milk a cow, plant a seedling and dig up vegies at this year's Show - there's a new experience around every corner for those who like to get involved.

With so many activities to take part in you're sure to have a blast and learn something new.

These fun, educational activities promote farming, sustainability, healthy living and teach children about the origins of their food.

Paddock to Plate Pavilion

The Paddock to Plate Pavilion is a fun, interactive and educational exhibit at the Royal Melbourne Show that tells the story of where your food comes from.

Find out all about beef and lamb, what happens on a farm, how to make great meals and more. There's something for everyone.

Test your skills on games, ask a butcher about the best cut of meat for your favourite recipe or hear from farmers on how they look after their cattle and sheep and the environment.

BUTCHER AND THE CHEF

Do you know where your favourite meat comes from? Learn about different cuts of meat, what part of the animal they come from and how to use them.

On stage at the Meat and Livestock Australia Kitchen in the Paddock to Plate Pavilion, the Butcher and the Chef explore the world of Aussie meat and how to turn different cuts into a delicious meal.

Don't miss The Great Aussie Steak Sandwich Celebrity Cook-off - who will you see at the Show?

Butcher and the Chef times
10.30am, 11.10am, noon,
12.40pm, 2.15pm, 3.30pm and
4.10pm daily.

LIVESTOCK IN THE ROUND

Located in the Paddock to Plate Pavilion, Livestock in the Round teaches visitors about the Australian beef cattle industry. See different breeds and learn all about the world of beef cattle, from the way they are reared to the different cuts of meat.

Sessions run at 10.50am, 12.20pm, 2pm, 2.45pm, 3.50pm and 5pm daily.

PURA MILKING BARN

The Paddock to Plate Pavilion is home to the Pura Milking Barn, a free, hands-on educational activity for the whole family.

Hand-milk a cow or watch a cow being milked by a farmer. Learn about the dairy industry and how butter is made. This interactive, entertaining and unique activity is sure to be great fun and prizes are on offer every day of the show.

Visit Farmer Neville at the Dairy Experience to see different breeds of dairy cattle and learn about Australia's dairy industry.

Animal Nursery

For many children, it's their first encounter with baby animals.

This year the Animal Nursery will feature more than 450 animals of 18 different varieties to meet and cuddle.

It will house a large indoor and outdoor patting pen with calves, lambs, kids (baby goats) and chickens - just to name a few.

The Piglet Patting Pen is where you can get close to pigs and their newborn piglets. And in the Birthing Centre you can see sheep, goats and llamas give birth. You can also feed a baby animal at one of the scheduled Animal Nursery feeding times.

New this year is the Animal Nursery Education Hub where you can talk to a farmer and find out more about your favourite farm animal and what life is like on a farm. Come, listen and learn about farming.

Animal Nursery Educational Hub times:
10.30am, 12.30pm, 2.30pm, 4.30pm and 6.30pm daily.

The Weekly Times Livestock Pavilion

FEEDING TIMES

There are lots of hungry baby animals to feed at the Show.

Get along to Feeding Time in the Animal Nursery or The Weekly Times Livestock Pavilion to feed lambs, calves, kids (the goat kind) from either bottles or hand.

Feeding Time at the Animal Nursery takes place daily at 11am, 1pm, 3pm, 5pm and 6.30pm.

Feeding Time at The Weekly Times Livestock Pavilion takes place daily at 10am, 11.30am, 1pm, 2.30pm and 4pm.

Don't miss The Weekly Times Livestock Pavilion which will be home to the largest exhibition of blue-ribbon quality livestock in Victoria. Livestock from all around Australia will travel to Melbourne to compete for a prestigious blue ribbon, and only the best of the best will take home the glory.

With more than 250 apacas, 800 beef cattle and more than 20 different breeds of sheep and goats, the competition rings viewing is not to be missed.

Show visitors will have an opportunity to not only watch the alpaca judging but will also be invited inside the ring and see first-hand what makes a blue ribbon alpaca.

Murray Greys will be celebrated as the feature this year in the beef cattle competition, to honour their 50 years of showing at the Royal Melbourne Show.

Sheep and alpaca fleeces will be displayed in The Weekly Times Livestock Pavilion as part of an exciting celebration and extensive display of fibre. Donated fleeces will be sold after the Show with the proceeds of their sale going to Epilepsy Australia.

See sheep being shorn and the fleece being spun at the Click Go the Shears demonstration daily.

YEAR OF THE FARMER

Open daily 9.30am-5pm
2012 is the year of the farmer.

Celebrate by visiting the Australian Year of the Farmer display at the Royal Melbourne Show.

Learn how important farmers are to the wider community - how they feed, clothe and provide building supplies across the nation and around the globe.

The year-long celebration will feature more than 900 events, showing Australians that our farmers are among the best in the world!

ACTIVITIES

Kids Zone

Open 9.30am-7.30pm daily.

The Kids Zone is a vibrant, interactive pavilion catering specifically to families with young children.

This year the Government Exhibition will showcase the frontline vehicles and equipment of our emergency services. The theme for 2012 is "Working together to keep Victoria safe".

Meet and have your photo taken with firefighters, policemen and see the impressive State Emergency Services rescue boat.

Try your skills through the twists and turns of the challenging maze, play on the interactive computer games, get a cool temporary tattoo and grab some fantastic giveaways.

Heritage Trail

The Heritage Trail is a new activity for 2012. This is a fun way for children and parents to learn the proud history behind the Melbourne Showgrounds and its strong relationship with Victorian farming.

Pick up a booklet to navigate your way to five sites around the venue and write answers to questions about the Show.

Drop your answers off before you head home and you'll go in the draw to win an MP3 player. There are three MP3 players up for grabs daily.

BEEF CATTLE

Get close to some of the Show's heavyweight competitors when more than 800 of Australia's largest, strongest and best looking cattle move in to The Weekly Times Livestock Pavilion at the Show.

Many of these big bovines weigh more than a small car! Handlers from across the country will travel to Melbourne with their prized cattle to compete for a prestigious blue ribbon.

The Beef Cattle and Beef Carcase competitions run across the opening weekend of the Show and daily from Wednesday, September 26 in The Weekly Times Livestock Pavilion.

GOATS

Sunday, September 23 to Wednesday, September 26 in The Weekly Times Livestock Pavilion

SHEEP

The finest rams, ewes and lambs will vie for a blue ribbon in The Weekly Times Livestock Pavilion.

The feature breed this year is the Suffolk, which was developed hundreds of years ago in England. Suffolks are black-faced sheep well regarded as caring mothers and for excellent meat production. The sheep judging event has a proud history and showcases more than 20 different breeds.

Suffolk feature, Saturday, September 22 at 2.30pm

Breed judging will take place on Saturday, September 22 and from 1.30pm on Sunday, September 23.

SHEARING

See sheep being shorn and learn about wool and the art of shearing at Click Go the Shears each day in The Weekly Times Livestock Pavilion.

Professional shearer Brett will don a microphone and talk crowds through the shearing process, stroke for stroke. Once the wool has been clipped Marion will spin the fleece into yarn, highlighting the process of turning wool into clothing.

Shearing times are 10.30am, noon, 1.30pm, 3pm and 4.30pm daily.

GOATS

Goats' milk is a wonderful source of calcium and is commonly used to make products as various as feta cheese and soap.

It is also a substitute for cow's milk for people who are lactose intolerant.

Learn more about dairy goats at My Backyard and enjoy feeding a baby goat (known as a kid) at Feeding Time.

The dairy goats begin arriving in time for the first day of the Show, and the Dairy Goat Competition breed judging is on Tuesday, September 25.

POULTRY

More than 1000 birds of all colours and sizes will be on display at this year's Show. Hens, bantams, ducks, geese, guinea fowl and turkeys will be judged on Saturday, September 22 and remain on display in the Pets and Poultry Pavilion throughout the Show.

Make sure you visit to pat a chook and learn more about the different breeds and species. If you've thought about keeping chickens, chat to the experts and learn more.

Pets and Poultry Pavilion is open daily from 9.30am-6.30pm.

ALPACAS

These soft, long-necked creatures can be found in The Weekly Times Livestock Pavilion during the first three days of the Royal Melbourne Show - Saturday, September 22 to Monday, September 24.

Alpacas come in two breeds - Huacaya and Suri - with more than 200 in the pavilion alongside the beef cattle, goats and sheep.

Show visitors can watch the judging and have the opportunity to be invited inside the ring to get a closer view of what makes a blue ribbon alpaca.

FLEECE

This year the Sheep and Alpaca Fleece competitions will be conducted as one with judging, awards and presentation taking place before the Show - on Friday, August 31.

Fleeces will be displayed throughout the Show in The Weekly Times Livestock Pavilion as part of a celebration and extensive display of fibre.

Donated fleeces will be sold after the Show with the proceeds of their sale going to Epilepsy Australia. The fleece competition features the Australasian Lamb's Wool competition as well as Suri and Huacaya classes and championships, and the District fleece sections.

Horses In Action

Some of the finest horses and riders in Australia will compete in the Horses in Action competition at the Royal Melbourne Show.

The Horses in Action competition celebrates the best of the best with more than 600 horses competing for a prestigious blue ribbon over the 11 days of the Show.

Some of the country's finest female riders will meticulously prepare for the prestigious Garryowen Equestrienne Turnout, where they are judged on horse conformation, their manner and paces, saddlery, costume, riding ability and general appearance.

You will be thrilled by the showjumping events as local riders attempt to qualify for the World Cup Final as they steer their mounts over jumps more than 1.6m high.

And don't miss the speed and skill of Mounted Games when the Royal Melbourne Show hosts the Southern Hemisphere

ANIMALS GALORE HORSES

Championships. This exciting event will see teams from Australia, South Africa and New Zealand compete in up to 20 different games which test athletic ability, riding skills, hand-eye coordination, determination, competitive spirit and the bond between horse and rider.

Games include the Five Flag Race in which flags must be retrieved from witches' hats at high speed, and the Stepping Stone Dash Race in which the rider dismounts, runs across a set of upturned buckets and leaps back into the saddle to complete the race.

Exhibition Eventing also returns to the Show after its popular debut last year. The competition combines the grace of dressage followed by a course of cross-country and showjump fences ridden against the clock.

But the Horses in Action program is not just about leaping, racing and speed with hundreds of horses and riders of all ages – some riders as young as four – competing in the many different competitions across 11 days.

DOGS

Dogs of all shapes and sizes will put their best paws forward to compete at the Royal Melbourne Show - home of the southern hemisphere's biggest dog show.

More than 200 dog breeds will be judged before the competition culminates with the Best in Show on Saturday, September 29. Look out for the Azawakh breed, a rare breed which will make its first appearance at the Show. This year will also see the return of more rare breeds such as the Portuguese Podengo and the Anatolian Shepherd.

The dog judging competition will take place from Saturday, September 22 to Saturday, September 29.

Once the judges have decided on Melbourne's top dog, the energy levels will leap as the action dogs arrive to compete in the K9 Olympics, which includes a range of competitions and events such as flyball, agility, jumping and the dog high jump.

The K9 Olympics also provides the opportunity to see some of the country's best trained and most obedient pooches as all types of breeds are put through their paces during two days of obedience competitions.

PETS

PETS & POULTRY PAVILION

The Pets and Poultry Pavilion is home to furry friends and those with feathers.

Visit the Patting Pen to pat chooks and hold chicks. Watch rabbits jumping hurdles (September 22, 29 and 30 at 11am, 1pm and 3pm) and vote for your favourite cats, kittens, puppies and dogs in the people's choice awards.

Don't miss the Whiskas and Pedigree displays to see cute and friendly cats and dogs.

Members of the Poultry Stud Breeders and Exhibitors of Victoria will be available to direct people to their local poultry club where they can learn valuable information about the benefits of backyard hens, how to look after them and home-grown eggs.

You can also find great deals on pet food, toys and accessories in the Pets and Poultry Pavilion, the ultimate pet lover's destination.

K9 ENTERTAINMENT RING

Visit the K9 Entertainment Ring (located near the Animal Nursery Pavilion) and see the amazing Canine Disc Dogs as they jump high in the air, perform tricks and catch Frisbees in this incredible show.

See working dogs doing what they were born to do with the Pedigree Working Dogs display. Some of Australia's best kelpie working dogs will be in action with informative and entertaining herding demonstrations.

The show features a young dog still learning how to work sheep through to a fully trained dog that can make the sheep do what his master wants.

Other highlights include demonstrations of Rally O, Have a Go at Herding and the All Breeds Sledding Club. Daily from 10am-5pm.

CATS

Feline fans are in for a treat with the Royal Melbourne Championship Cat Show being held on Monday, October 1 and Tuesday, October 2 - the final two days of the Show.

The cats will be primed, preened and groomed to look their best for the judges.

The competition features an array of cats including the enormous Maine coons and the cuddly ragdolls as well as the wild-looking Bengal cats with their leopard-like coats.

You can even see the only "Australian-made" cat, the beautiful Australian Mist.

The Supreme Exhibit will be judged on stage each day in the Advance Cat Pavilion.

Flashing axes

The chips will fly when the big men wield their axes in the Isuzu D-Max Woodchop Pavilion at the Royal Melbourne Show.

For the first nine days of the show, some of the world's best axemen will showcase their unbelievable strength and power as they compete for glory.

The woodchopping competition has been a feature of the Royal Melbourne Show for more than 100 years.

This year will see the introduction of some new and exciting events, including a State of Origin Teams Race, a family teams race and axe throwing.

Unique woodchop events such as the exciting standing block, sawing and tree-felling all have their roots in the timber industry.

Woodchop is a traditional favourite of Show crowds and a family tradition for many competitors. Some families have been sharpening their axes for the Royal Melbourne Show for decades.

The woodchop competition will run from September 22 to September 30 with the final two days showcasing woodchop demonstrations such as hot saw demos and chainsaw racing.

DON'T MISS

Family Teams Race: Thursday, September 27 in the Isuzu D-Max Woodchop Pavilion
Vic Forest Tree Felling Championship: Friday, September 28 in the Isuzu D-Max Woodchop Pavilion
Under 21 State of Origin Teams Race: Sunday, September 23 in the Isuzu D-Max Woodchop Pavilion

FAMILY TEAMS RACE

Woodchop is a unique family sport with many competitors at the Royal Melbourne Show competing with and against family members from different generations.

Some of the families involved in woodchop have had members competing in the sport for more than three generations.

For them, flying woodchips are in their blood and woodchop is a way of life.

Families taking part in the four-member Family Teams Race include the O'Tooles (with family members aged 31 to 65), the Beams (ranging in age from 16 to 47), the Meyers (aged 16 to 47), the Knights (aged 16 to 50) and the Hansfords (aged 20 to 74).

Each of these families has been training hard in a bid to be crowned Victoria's 2012 most outstanding woodchopping dynasty.

The Meyer family is one of those with a long history in woodchop. Seven Meyers will take part in woodchop events at the Royal Melbourne Show with the four-man family team likely to consist of Brad Meyer, 41, and one of his sons Blake, 18, or Kyle, 16; Brad's brother Rod, 47, and his son Brayden, 17.

Brad says competition is likely to be fierce against the other families in the Family Teams Race.

"It's very competitive when the event starts, but at the end of the day we're all friends and can share a beer," Brad says.

KIDS' DAY!

The Mac and Jan 1954.

The final day of the Show - Tuesday, October 2 - is all for the kids.

Officially designated as Kids' Day at the Show, there will be even more extra special activities for little ones to enjoy as well as loads of prizes and giveaways.

Don't miss the free Shaun the Sheep activity centre in the Art, Craft & Cookery Pavilion. And Shaun will be there at selected times so you can show him your work of art!

The Kids' Day Fun Pass is a special entry and rides combo available for all children aged 5-14 years. The pass costs $26 and includes Show entry and a $20 rides voucher. Buy your Kids' Day Fun Pass at www.royalshow.com.au or call Ticketek on 132 849.

The Kids' Day Fun Pass is only valid on Tuesday, October 2.

To make sure you keep up to date with everything at the Show for kids, sign up for the Royal Melbourne Show Kids' Club at royalshow.com.au. This year Shaun the Sheep leads the Kids' Club and you will find plenty of free activities to do as well as have the chance to win some fun and exciting prizes.

Heritage Trail

The Heritage Trail is a new activity for 2012. This is a free and fun way for children to learn the proud history behind the Royal Melbourne Show and agriculture in Victoria.

Heritage Trail Activity Passports are small booklets available from the Pie in the Sky information booth inside the Melbourne Showgrounds.

Use your Activity Passport to navigate five historical sites around the venue and answer multiple choice questions about each location.

These cool Activity Passports are full of fun facts about the heritage sites. Tear off the back page containing your answers and drop it in the box located next to the Girl Guides exhibit in Kids Zone.

If you've answered all five questions correctly, you will go in the draw to win a 2013 Royal Melbourne Show Family ticket or an iPod Shuffle 2G. There's one of each up for grabs daily throughout the Show.

Don't forget to bring a pen or pencil to write your answers.

RIDES & AMUSEMENTS

Thrills Extreme

Thrills, exhilaration, adventure and fun await in the SmokeFree Carnival Precincts.

There are more than 20 fantastic rides and amusements to choose from in the SmokeFree Thrill Seekers Carnival - an adrenalin junkie's paradise.

If you are looking for rides the whole family can enjoy, make your way to the SmokeFree Family Carnival which boasts a unique mix of quality rides for families with children aged 6-14 years.

Littlies under six will find all their fun and excitement in the SmokeFree Kids Carnival adjacent to the Animal Nursery.

As well as the three SmokeFree Carnival areas, the towering giant ferris wheel offers spectacular views across the Showgrounds and greater Melbourne, while rock climbing, water balls and much more are part of the Adventure Zone in the Town Square.

There's a ride for everyone at this year's Royal Melbourne Show.

SmokeFree Thrill Seekers Carnival

You'll find the extreme experiences of the fastest, highest, maddest rides in the SmokeFree Thrill Seekers Carnival.

Scare yourself silly with the Hollywood Horrors where some of the silver screen's most terrifying characters come to life.

Experience the spinning rush of the Extreme or be taken 40m high and travel 100km/h with the heart-stopping Freestyle ride.

Choose from more than 20 rides which are sure to satisfy even the most extreme adrenalin addict.

SmokeFree Kids Carnival

The SmokeFree Kids Carnival is perfect for little show visitors aged under six.

For a truly memorable experience, take a spin on the Cup and Saucer, ride the Kids Coaster or explore three levels of colour and fun in the Magic Circus.

This year there is even more to do in the SmokeFree Kids Carnival precinct because the the Animal Nursery is just next door.

SmokeFree Family Carnival

A mix of fun rides makes the SmokeFree Family Carnival a great place for families with children aged 6-14.

The family favourite aquatic roller-coaster, Pirates Revenge, is there along with classics such as the Taipan Roller Coaster Flashdance which will have you in a spin to the beat of some high-energy disco music.

The Jurassic coaster will whiz you up and down, round and round. There's a ride for everyone to enjoy in the SmokeFree Family Carnival.

Visit the SmokeFree Family Carnival after 6pm when all rides are just $5!

There's nothing like

FRESH FOOD PAVILION

No visit to the Royal Melbourne Show is complete without a visit to the Woolworths Fresh Food Pavilion, which has lots of products to try and buy this year.

The Woolworths Fresh Food Pavilion will showcase a variety of food and wine as well as homewares.

Visit the Fresh Fair to sample some delicious fresh food and exciting Woolworths brand Macro and Select products.

New this year, the Woolworths site will feature Fresh Food Kids farmer photos as well as the giant Paddock to Plate Wheel where kids can collect fresh food stickers and win a prize.

Get ready to have some fresh food fun and don't forget you can buy your Show entry tickets at any Victorian Woolworths store.

Visit the Royal Flying Doctors Service site and jump on board the life-sized model of one of its planes.

Kids can enjoy all the fun of colouring and badge making while parents receive a free health check to assess their cardiovascular disease, obesity and diabetes risk.

The Royal Flying Doctors Service will also have showbags available to buy.

Visit the Commonwealth Bank stand and explore the latest in banking technology with the Commbank Kaching App for Iphone and Android smart phones.

Friendly demonstrators will be on hand to walk you through this amazing new technology and open up a whole new world of mobile banking.

Take a break at the Pura Café and indulge in a hot coffee or hot drink made by professional baristas, an ice-cold Pura milkshake, a tub of delicious Yoplait yogurt, or a 100 per cent natural Coon Cheese toasted sandwich for a bargain $2.

Take the kids to the Red Energy stand for an amazing interactive adventure and photo opportunity. Parents can also enter the Red Energy competition to win great prizes.

The Woolworths Fresh Food Pavilion will also be home to Victorian Government departments including the Department of Education and Early Childhood Development, Department of Business and Innovation and the Department of Primary Industries.

At the Department of Primary Industries stand, see Bob Hart barbecue fresh produce, sample his dishes and take home some free recipe cards.

Listen to Bob talk about the Victorian farmers he met while filming his new television show Hart of the Barbecue.

CWA Tea Rooms

The Country Women's Association is a Show institution.

For more than 70 years, hundreds of faithful CWA volunteers have manned the CWA Tea Rooms and fed hundreds of thousands of show exhibitors and visitors.

The CWA offers a full cooked breakfast, which is a favourite of exhibitors staying on site, as well as for visitors arriving early.

They also draw crowds for their hearty home-cooked lunch menu, but the women of the CWA have become truly famous for their afternoon tea, scones with jam and cream. Dozens of batches of scones are cooked every day of the Show.

A team of up to 50 CWA members is on hand most days of the Show to serve breakfast, lunch, dinner and snacks to hungry visitors.

The CWA Tea Rooms are open until 7.30pm.

Royal Cafe

The Royal Café is conveniently located on the Grand Boulevard not far from the Showbag Pavilion and Coca-Cola Arena.

Have a rest after the frenetic activities on the Coca-Cola Arena, or after visiting the Showbag Pavilion, and refuel from the Royal Café's selection of hot food and sandwiches, wraps and snacks.

The Royal Café is an indoor dining area where you can relax and enjoy your meal.

The Royal Café is open daily from 8am to 7.30pm.

Eateries AND

Show food is much more than battered hot dogs and fairy floss. Visitors to the Royal Melbourne

Cattleman's Bar

The Cattleman's Bar has relocated this year and is now closer to all the action on the Coca-Cola Arena.

Enjoy the rustic atmosphere as you take a break from the hubbub of the Show.

With tables and chairs outside and refreshing beverages available, the Cattleman's Bar will be the perfect place to rest and unwind without missing any of the action.

Open daily from 11am to 9pm.
