A day at the 2013 Royal Melbourne Show promises worlds of adventure, fun, discovery, excitement and great value for the whole family.

The 2013 Royal Melbourne Show, presented by the Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria (RASV), brings the country to the city for 12 amazing days from Saturday September 21 to Wednesday October 2 to promote and celebrate excellence in Victorian agriculture.

The stars of the show are the thousands of magnificent animals on display from cows, sheep and goats to dogs and horses competing to win Best in Show and be presented with a coveted Royal Melbourne Blue Ribbon.

There are hundreds more animals to see, cuddle and feed inside the popular Animal Nursery.

At the Royal Melbourne Show there's a world of agricultural discovery to be enjoyed from the Paddock to Plate Pavilion where children can hand milk a cow, watch shearing demonstrations, learn about where food comes from and enjoy New MacDonald's Farm stage show to the new improved My Backyard precinct where families can have fun learning about urban agriculture and sustainability and be entertained by the Dirtgirl World stage show.

This year there are even more epicurean wonders and delights to experience as showgrounds fare steps up to delight the palate.

Sample fresh and seasonal local produce and learn cooking tips from some of Victoria's top chefs in the Tastes of Victoria pavilion. For the first time, some of Melbourne's best eateries, including Albert St Food & Wine and Burch & Purchase Sweet Studio, will have pop-up restaurants in the pavilion to provide a unique epicurean experience.

The foodie experience at the Show isn't complete without a visit to the Royal Melbourne Fine Food Deli, which offers a variety of award-winning products including delicious cheeses, sausages, pastries and coffee from the Royal Melbourne Fine Food Awards. There is also the great value Royal Melbourne Fine Food Deli Bags, which are filled with gourmet treats to take home.

And no trip to the Show is complete without a whirl on the rides and other thrilling attractions guaranteed to excite you.

For the first time, the MasterChef Kitchen is located at Melbourne Showgrounds and the doors will be open to the public during the 12 days of the Show.

This is a unique opportunity for fans of Australia's most-loved cooking show to step inside the MasterChef Kitchen and experience the behind-the-scenes workings of a production set.

The stars to come and see at the Royal Melbourne Show are all the magnificent animals competing to win best in show and be presented with a coveted Royal Melbourne blue ribbon.

★ CATTLE ★

Get up close to some of the Show's heavyweight competitors when more than 800 of Australia's largest, strongest and best-looking cattle move in to The Weekly Times Livestock Pavilion.

Many of these big bovines weigh more than your average car!

Producers from across the country will bring their cattle to Melbourne to compete for a prestigious Royal Melbourne Show blue ribbon.

The Feature Breed for the 2013 Royal Melbourne Show is the Hereford – including Herefords, Poll Herefords and Miniature Herefords.

Hereford cattle, distinguished by a white face and a red/brown body, were first developed in Herefordshire in the UK.

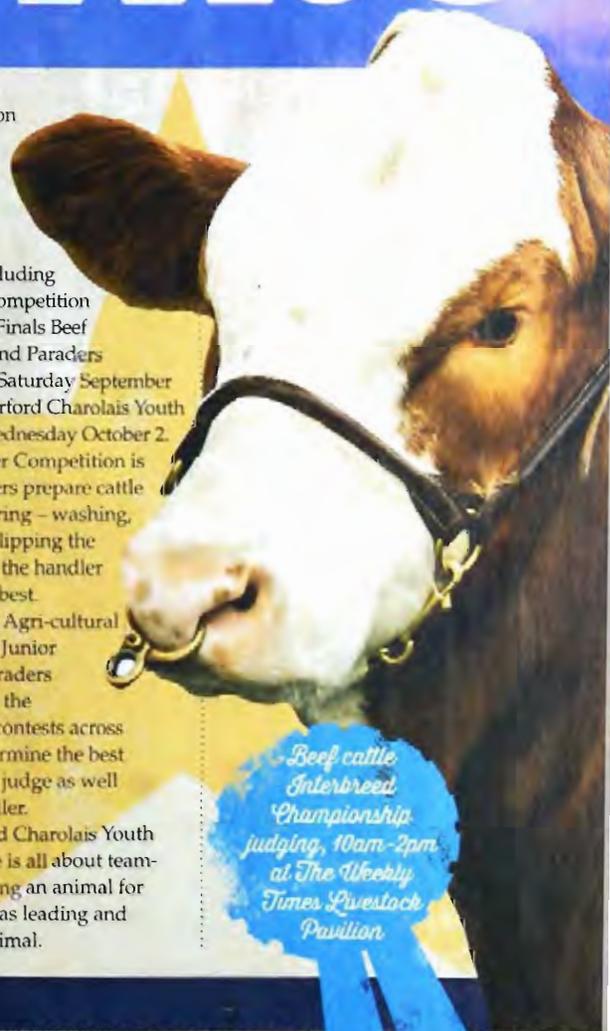

Judging for the Miniature Herefords will take place on Friday September 27 with Poll Herefords and Herefords, and the culmination Supreme White Face Exhibit, on Monday September 30.

The cattle action continues in The Weekly Times Livestock Pavilion with other exciting competitions including the Gun Fitter Competition and VASL State Finals Beef Junior Judging and Paraders Competition on Saturday September 28, and the Waterford Charolais Youth Challenge on Wednesday October 2.

The Gun Fitter Competition is all action as fitters prepare cattle for the judging ring – washing, grooming and clipping the animal to allow the handler to show it at its best.

The Victorian Agri-cultural Shows Ltd Beef Junior Judging and Paraders Competitions is the culmination of contests across the state to determine the best up-and-coming judge as well as the best handler.

The Waterford Charolais Youth Team Challenge is all about teamwork in preparing an animal for judging as well as leading and handling the animal.

★ GOATS ★

Kids can meet kids – of the goat variety – at the Royal Melbourne Show.

There are two different types of goats at the Show – dairy goats who produce milk, and Boer goats who are bred for their meat.

Goat's milk is a wonderful source of calcium and is used to make a number of different products including feta cheese, soap and beauty products. It is also used as a cow's milk substitute for people who may be lactose intolerant.

Learn more about dairy goats at My Backyard and enjoy feeding a baby goat at Feeding Time in The Weekly Times Livestock Pavilion, and the Animal Nursery.

■ Boer Goat Competition
Judging will be held on Saturday September 21 and Dairy Goat Competition Judging will be held on Wednesday September 25 at The Weekly Times Livestock Pavilion.

★ ALPACAS ★

Alpacas come in two breeds – Huacaya and Suri. Can you tell the difference?

Meet and pat these soft, long-necked creatures in The Weekly Times Livestock Pavilion during the Show.

If you want to get up close with an Alpaca, have a go at the Alpaca Novice Parader Competition on Thursday September 26 where you can lead an alpaca through an obstacle course and receive a free t-shirt for participating. See royalshow.com.au for details.

On the same day, see experienced young alpaca paraders vie for the overall Grand Champion title of Youth Parader in the Alpaca Stockmanship and Showmanship Competition.

Alpaca Novice Parader Competition and Stockmanship and Showmanship competition, Thursday, September 26, 3pm, The Weekly Times Livestock Pavilion.

★ SHEEP & LAMBS ★

The finest rams, ewes and lambs will compete for Blue Ribbon glory in The Weekly Times Livestock Pavilion.

The feature sheep breed this year is the Poll Dorset, which is a short-wool, meat-producing breed developed in Australia from 1937 to 1954.

Poll means no horns, so Poll Dorsets are bred with no horns and have a long, lean square body and no wool on their face.

The Show's Sheep Judging will showcase more than 20 different breeds on the first weekend and Monday of the Show.

There's also the chance to learn from the shearing experts with Australian Wool Innovation providing five daily sheep-shearing demonstrations.

Daily at 9.30am, 11.30am, 2pm, 4pm and 5pm.

And you can also get up close to lambs at Feeding Time in The Weekly Times Livestock Pavilion and in the Animal Nursery.

*Poll Dorset Feature Show, 9am-1pm.

★ FLEECE ★

See some of Victoria's top quality sheep and alpaca fleeces at the Royal Melbourne Show.

The award-winning fleeces from the Royal Melbourne Sheep and Alpaca competitions will be on display for all to see in The Weekly Times Livestock Pavilion throughout the show.

Donated fleeces will be sold after the Show with the proceeds of their sale going to BlazeAid, a volunteer organisation that helps rebuild damaged and destroyed fences in rural communities. The fleece competition features the Australasian Lamb's Wool competition as well as skirted fleece, black and coloured and district fleece sections.

Horses in action

The Horses in Action program is one of the highlights of the Royal Melbourne Show and the prestigious Garryowen Equestrienne Turnout is one of the most anticipated events on the nation's equestrian calendar.

The Garryowen is the feature event on Turnout Day, Wednesday September 25 which has been newly created this year at the Royal Melbourne Show. In Turnout events, riders are judged on horse conformation, their manner and paces, saddlery, costume, riding ability and general appearance.

This year is the 79th anniversary of the Garryowen, named in memory of champion horse Garryowen whose owner Violet Murrell, one of Victoria's best Show and cross country horsewomen, died aged 29 trying to save him from a stable fire in 1934.

Other Turnout events include the K.G Luke Equestrian Turnout, J. Pemberton Equestrian Turnout, John Lithgow Equestrienne Turnout and the Esquire Equestrienne Turnout.

There are more than 2000 entries vying for a blue ribbon over the Show's 12 days. Take a seat at Coca Cola Arena for some of the finest equestrian action in the country.

As well as seeing the finest female riders compete in the Garryowen Equestrienne Turnout, you'll be thrilled by the jumping events which see horses jumping up to 1.6m high.

Don't miss the fast paced, action packed Tri-State Mounted Games teams race or some of Australia's best eventing riders as they compete in the Exhibition Eventing competition which combines dressage, and a jumps course of combined show-jumping and cross-country fences.

There's international action too with the Royal Melbourne Show hosting the final round of the Trans-Tasman Jumping Test on Friday September 27 and a World Cup Jumping Qualifying event on Sunday September 29.

For thrills, spills and fast-paced action don't miss the Polocrosse matches on September 29 and 30.

The majestic Clydesdales are always a Show favourite and this year you can meet the gentle giants on a tour of the Clydesdale Pavilion. Tours will be held at 11.30am and 3pm from Saturday September 28 to Wednesday October 2 (except Monday September 30).

Chop!

CHOP!

There's only one place at the Show where axes glint in the sun, muscles bulge and wood chips fly – it's the Woodchop Pavilion.

Some of the world's best woodchop athletes are locals and have been in tough training for the Royal Melbourne Show.

Woodchopping is one of the traditional features of the Royal Melbourne Show, having been held for more than 100 years.

The chips will fly when the woodchoppers compete across the first five days of the show.

The unique woodchop events such as the exciting standing block, sawing, underhand and tree-felling all have their roots in the timber industry.

The wide range of woodchop events shows off brute strength, fitness and fine skills of the axemen and women.

There are speed races, strength contests and precision events as well as those requiring a keen eye and skills.

You'll be amazed at the strength of the woodchoppers with hard-hitting events where choppers aim to split a log with the fewest blows.

Today's woodchop athletes spend hours honing their skills in training for the big event.

This year you can see woodchopping from Saturday September 21 to Wednesday October 2, including hot saw and chain-saw carving.

CHAINSAW RACING

Chainsaw racing is a rapid-fire woodchop event and a true test of a chainsaw operator's ability.

Before each heat, competitors draw for chainsaws and logs. The race starts with the chainsaw on the ground. At the starter's gun, the competitor grabs the saw and makes a sequence of cuts through the log. Precision is key. If a competitor saws outside of the allowed area or fails to saw a complete wheel, they are disqualified.

Don't miss this adrenaline charged race featuring finely trained woodchop athletes, roaring chainsaws and flying woodchips.

FRESH FOOD

Pavilion

Prominently located in the heart of Melbourne Showgrounds, the Woolworths Fresh Food Pavilion is grand central for all things food and lifestyle.

The Woolworths Fresh Food Pavilion is the biggest exhibition space and one of the most visited pavilions at the Show, showcasing homewares and a wide variety of food and wine to sample.

At the Woolworths Showcase you can sample fresh produce, bakery, seafood, meat and deli products as well as tasty items from Woolworth's Macro range which are also available to buy.

There will be lots of fresh food fun at the Woolworths Showcase, and to make it easy for you to get ready for your Show day, tickets for the Royal Melbourne Show can be bought from your local Woolworths Supermarket.

The Pavilion will also be home to the Royal Flying Doctors Service where you can jump on board a life-sized model of one of their planes. Join them as they celebrate the 85th anniversary of the first Flying Doctor flight in 1928.

Channel Nine will be located in the Woolworths Pavilion. Don't miss the daily appearances from Melbourne's Nine News team, plus all your favourite stars from Nine's hit shows.

There will be interactive Nine experiences, giveaways and activities for all the family.

Meet Thomas the Tank engine at the Puffing Billy stand, watch the process of making donuts from start to finish and eat them hot and fresh from Big Lou's Donuts or relish in a freshly baked pie from Vic Baking Industry yum!

Hyundai is giving visitors to their stand a chance to win an iPad and Regional Development Victoria will be there to profile the benefits of living in regional Victoria.

There's also a huge range of lifestyle products to discover and trial, as well as a variety of catering outlets offering international cuisine.

With all kinds of fun, Woolworths food promotions, giveaways and much more, the Woolworths Fresh Food Pavilion is a must-stop destination for your Show visit.

EATERIES -AND- BARS

There's an amazing variety of food available at the 2013 Royal Melbourne Show. Show visitors can enjoy everything from a range of fresh healthy options and gourmet fine foods at the many new and innovative food outlets to treats from some of the traditional Show favourites from food and drink vendors.

BREW BAR & BBQ

The Brew Bar & BBQ provides a fresh and exciting approach to beer and food at the Tastes of Victoria Pavilion.

Enjoy a craft beer or cider from one of 12 rotating local producers including Mountain Goat Brewery, Yarra Valley Cider and 2 Brothers Beer (Sept 21-23), Holgate Brownhouse, St Roman's Cider and Matilda Bay Brewing Company (Sept 24-26), Two Birds Brewing, Pipsqueak Cider and 3 Ravens Brewing Company (Sept 27-29), and Bright Brewery, Napoleone Cider and Boneyard Brewing (Sept 30-Oct 2).

To go with your craft beer or cider, take your pick of the menu from Silver Creek Smokers as Paul lines up "Jack the Ribbar" to create a fantastic Texas barbecue menu straight off the pit, all smoked over seasoned tree bark and oak for a unique flavour.

POP-UP RESTAURANTS

Some of Melbourne's leading restaurants have created special Show menus for the innovative pop-up restaurants at Melbourne Showgrounds over the 12 days.

This exciting concept gives you a chance to try a lunch or dinner from some of Melbourne's big-name eateries including Albert St Food & Wine (Sept 21-25), Fonda Mexican (Sept 24-26), Burch & Purchase Sweet Studio (Sept 27-29), and Union Dining (Sept 30-Oct 2).

Restaurants will use prime Victorian produce to create special dishes which showcase their cuisines.

HARVEST BAR & BISTRO

The Harvest Bar is new for the 2013 Royal Melbourne Show and is open for lunch and dinner daily. Take a break during your day at the Show and catch up with friends at Harvest Bar where bar snacks and beer on tap is available. There will be feature entertainment at Harvest Bar on selected days.

MY BACKYARD

BEEFALICIOUS

The Beefalicious Gourmet Grass Fed Beef BBQ features gourmet Beefalicious sliders, gourmet sausages on a roll and gourmet pies and sausage rolls. But one thing's for sure – this is no sausage sizzle! Sausages are made from real prime beef and are available in flavours such as wild mushroom and garlic, Spanish chorizo, Manuka honey and hickory, cracked pepper and worcestershire as well as the much loved tasty plain snag. Available at The Weekly Times Livestock Pavilion – 10am-6pm daily.

Tetley Tea Cosy Cafe

Relax and enjoy a slice of blue ribbon-winning cake with a nice hot cup of tea in the Tetley Tea Cosy Café at the Art, Craft & Cookery Pavilion. All the tea cosies from The Great Tea Cosy Swap will be displayed in the café to make for an interesting tea break.
