PREMIER'S WELCOME

There is nothing quite like the fun and excitement of the Royal Melbourne Show, and it is a pleasure to welcome you to this year's event.

The Show is a unique and iconic celebration that has been embraced by Victorians and visitors alike for more than 155 years. With a wide range of exhibitions and activities on offer, there is something for everyone to enjoy.

For animal lovers, there are the animal nursery and equestrian displays. For thrill seekers, the rides and attractions, including escape artist Dean Gunnarson and the Show Time Freestyle Moto X Team, are sure to excite.

Food and wine connoisseurs can enjoy the Taste of Victoria Stage with celebrity chefs, the Royal Melbourne Fine Food Deli and gourmet Victorian Cheese and Dairy showcases - and not to mention scones with jam and cream from the Country Women's Association.

The Show brings the best of the country to the city and offers visitors a chance to discover and enjoy new things. It is no wonder the Show is Victoria's most popular family-friendly community event.

Last year's Show attracted around 500,000 people - an increase of over 10 per cent on the previous year.

Being held from late September until early October, the Show complements the Victorian school holiday period, making it easy for families to attend. Whether you are a kid or simply a kid at heart, there is a range of ticketing options available to help you enjoy this year's event.

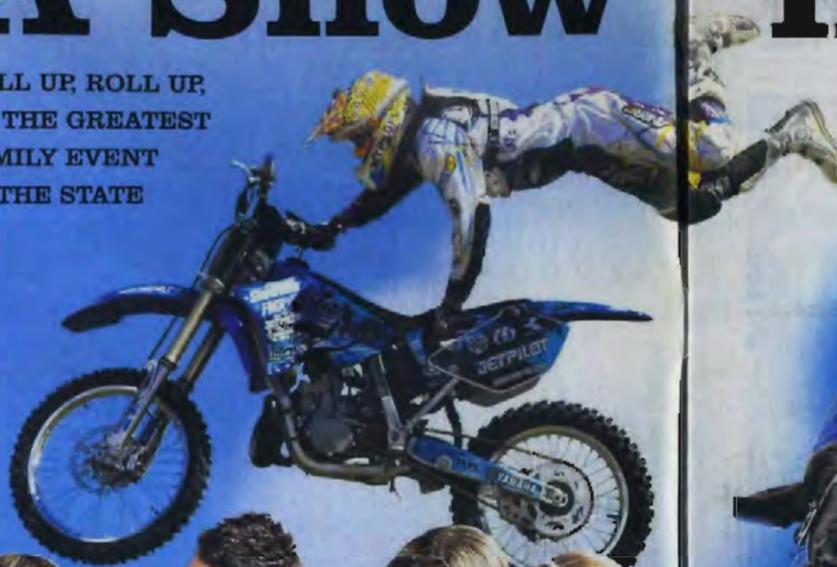

I congratulate the Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria on bringing this spectacular event together. For those visiting from interstate and overseas, I encourage you to take part in what Victoria has to offer, and look forward to welcoming you back again in the future.

I wish everyone a successful and enjoyable 2011 Royal Melbourne Show.

ROLL UP, ROLL UP,
TO THE GREATEST
FAMILY EVENT
IN THE STATE

PRESIDENT'S WELCOME

On behalf of the Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria (RASV), I would like to welcome you to the 156th Royal Melbourne Show, Victoria's largest annual community entertainment event.

Held at Melbourne Showgrounds from Saturday September 24 to Tuesday, October 4, the Show brings the very best of the country to the city for 11 days of fun, wonder and discovery.

Attracting 500,000 people on average each year, the Show offers a wide variety of great entertainment, fun interactive and educational activities and prestigious agricultural competitions.

Continuing to celebrate Victorian produce, the Show's Epicurean Centre, the Grand Pavilion, will have a dedicated Taste of Victoria precinct taking patrons on a gastronomic journey around Victoria.

Equestrian enthusiasts will have plenty to enjoy with world class show jumping and eventing on offer. The exciting Horses in Action program will this year include World Cup and Olympic qualifying showjumping and a new exhibition eventing competition, showcasing some of Australia's best eventers.

From Angus to Jersey, Dorper to Tall Game, there's nothing like watching exhibitors compete for blue-ribbon prizes in one of the Show's many agricultural pavilions. Experience the excitement of a live cattle auction in the Australian Livestock and Property Agents Young Auctioneers competition - a must-see at this year's Show.

Keep the family entertained with a new and improved entertainment program including the world's greatest escape artist, live music, kids' shows and spectacular nightly fireworks.

Be amazed in the Art, Craft and Cookery Pavilion with thousands of exhibits of award-winning art, design, fashion and cakes or get up close and personal with baby animals in the Animal Nursery, which this year includes a new educational hub.

With amazing new attractions and entertainment, thousands of animals and even more free interactive activities and displays on offer, there's nothing like the 2011 Royal Melbourne Show for a great-value day out with friends and family.

STEPHEN SPARGO
President, Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria

like no other

With amazing new attractions and entertainment, thousands of animals and even more free activities and displays, the 2011 Royal Melbourne Show is a great value day of fun, discovery and excitement.

The Royal Melbourne Show, conducted by the Royal Agricultural Society of Victoria, is Victoria's largest and most iconic family event. It brings the very best of the country to the city for 11 days of unforgettable experiences.

This year's Show is packed with great entertainment, educational activities, animal games, agricultural and horticultural displays, art and craft, food and wine, carnival rides, showcases, spectacular fireworks and much more.

For a flavour-filled journey, head to the Grand Pavilion. From food, beer, wine and coffee tasting to cooking demonstrations and celebrations, the program will ensure the Grand Pavilion lives up to its name as the Epicurean Centre of the Show.

You can take the governing experience home with you this year, with the new Royal Melbourne Fine Food Deli offering showcases full of award-winning produce from around the state.

For the first time in Australia, the world's greatest escape artist, Dean Gunnarson, will perform his mastery each day, while the Lumberjack Show will enthrall crowds with feats of skill and daring.

The Coca-Cola Arena will come alive this year with the new Toyota V6 F1 Le Mans precision driving team, Extreme Master Truck and a great line-up of live music joining old favourites, the Showtime Freestyle Moto X Team and spectacular, nightly fireworks.

The kids will be kept entertained with the chance to meet Mack from the Disney/Pixar movie CARS, while other new and exciting stage shows include characters from the smash movie hit RIO and the children's television show Fifi and the Flowerbuds Show favourite, the Annual Nursery will allow children to get up close and personal with baby animals. Enjoy the new educational hub, a colourful aviary display, a sheep, goat and alpaca birthing centre and experience feeding baby animals at scheduled times.

In the exciting Horses in Action program, showgoers will be treated to a Victorian first with Australia's best equine eventing riders competing in the final qualifying event for the prestigious EQUITANA competition.

Patrons can also witness the thrills and spills of world-class showjumping with riders competing to qualify for the World Cup and 2012 London Olympics.

For those who enjoy exhilarating carnival rides, there are more than 50 to choose from in three precincts designed to suit thrill seekers and families with kids of all ages - even toddlers.

A day at the show is not complete without taking home a showcase or two and this year there will be hundreds of value-packed showcases to suit all tastes. A new showcase precinct in the Smokefree Family Carpark will operate in addition to the Showtime Pavilion.

From animals and livestock to award-winning food and wine, art and craft, carnival rides and showcases, live stage shows and more, spectacular entertainment and fireworks, don't miss the 2011 Royal Melbourne Show.

Fun for the whole family

THERE'S ALWAYS A STACK OF FREE ACTIVITIES AT THE SHOW

ANIMAL NURSERY

★ This year the popular Animal Nursery will feature more than 450 animals of 18 different varieties to meet and cuddle. It will house a large indoor and outdoor patting pen with calves, lambs, kids (baby goats) and chickens – to name just a few.

The Piglet Patting Pen is where you can get close to pigs and their newborn piglets. And in the Birthing Centre you can see sheep, goats and llamas give birth. You can also feed a baby animal at one of the scheduled Animal Nursery feeding times.

New in 2011 is the Education Hub where you can talk to a farmer and find out more about your favourite farm animal and what life is like on a farm. Outside the nursery is the Animal Nursery Farmyard. There you will find even more animals including alpacas, horses, ducklings and donkeys.

The Animal Nursery Farmyard is also where you'll find Animals of Oz, an interactive show about Australia's native wildlife where you can even pat a baby crocodile.

PURA NEW MILKING BARN

★ The Pura New Milking Barn in The Weekly Times Livestock Pavilion gives you the unique opportunity to hand milk a cow. Learn about the dairy industry and how butter is made and maybe even win a prize. The Pura New Milking Barn is an interactive, entertaining and hands-on activity that is heaps of fun for the whole family. Next to the Pura New Milking Barn is the Dairy Experience where you can talk to dairy farmer Neville and see different breeds of dairy cows.

CHANNEL 9 WEATHER

★ Ever wanted to be a TV weather presenter? In a truly interactive experience, visitors to the Channel 9 Royal Melbourne Show site in the Kids Zone can try their hand at presenting the forecast in front of the camera. With the weather map behind you and an autocue to read from, your TV debut will be recorded and emailed to you.

COMMONWEALTH BANK FARM DISCOVERY TRAIL

★ Designed for kids of all ages, the Commonwealth Bank Farm Discovery Trail is a great way to see the Show. All the activities on the trail are educational and interactive and lots of fun.

Make your way to at least five of the seven stations, try something hands-on, learn about agricultural industries, answer a simple question in the free Commonwealth Bank Farm Discovery Trail passport and collect your prize at the Commonwealth Bank stand in the Grand Pavilion.

THE STATIONS INCLUDE

- ★ START POINT: The Dairy Experience in The Weekly Times Livestock Pavilion – where you can hand milk a cow and learn about the dairy industry.

- ★ THE Potato Patch in Flowers, Gardening & Pets Pavilion – dig up some spuds and learn about the growing cycle of a potato.

- LITTLE Green Thumbs in the NGIV Discovery Garden – pot your own plant and take it home.
- HAPPY Hen House: Match the Eggs in the Sustainable Backyard to discover which breeds of poultry lay different eggs.
- FEEDING Time in the Shearing Shed – there are lots of hungry baby animals waiting for you to feed them.
- BEEF Experience in The Weekly Times Livestock Pavilion – learn more about the beef cattle industry and why farmers come to the Show.
- FINISH POINT: The Commonwealth Bank stand in the Grand Pavilion, where you can collect your prize.

VICTORIAN GOVERNMENT PAVILION

★ Your Victoria. Strong Families, Vibrant Communities, Healthy Environment.

Visit the Victorian Government Exhibition for a free fun, interactive and educational experience at this year's Show. Daily performances include arts workshops, interactive kids' games and live performances.

Meet the emergency services teams and climb in the back of a police van, fire truck or the SES rescue truck. Get close to a real MFB firefighter or watch SES volunteers slice through steel with the Jaws of Life in live rescue demonstrations.

The fishing game is back. Stand on the pier and measure your catch to make sure it's big enough to keep. Have your photo taken with your fish which you can take home with you.

The National Gallery of Victoria celebrates 150 years this year. Using assorted materials, children can get creative as they design and make a diorama of what they imagine a perfect room to be.

DISNEY/PIXAR CARS TRUCK TOUR

★ Get set to rev those engines as Mack the Transporter rolls into the 2011 Royal Melbourne Show as part of the official Disney-Pixar CARS Truck Tour. This themed experience provides fans and families with the ultimate CARS treat as they ride, race and play their way through a world of entertainment.

The larger-than-life Mack the Transporter is a world of entertainment zones and themed activity stations for the whole family - from Doc Hudson's Driver Training Track to the ultimate Cars PS3 Racing Championship which promises to be fun for kids and parents alike.

Learn about endangered animals during special mask painting workshops. Add paint, feathers and fun to create your very own mask of these special endangered animals.

Discover the Electric Vehicle and learn how to plug your car into a power outlet to power it. This car is cheaper to run, more convenient, less polluting, innovative and better suited to the way we drive every day.

SUSTAINABLE BACKYARD

★ New this year is the Sustainable Backyard which features a range of activities that all relate to you and your home.

Learn how to incorporate different components into your backyard to become more self-sufficient and environmentally friendly.

Be inspired by achievable garden designs or learn more about worm farms and composting as well as other practical ideas for your garden such as water tanks and solar-powered watering systems. See how easy it is to have dairy goats and poultry in your backyard and try your best to match the eggs with the hens in the Happy Hen House: Match the Eggs activity.

Take some time out in the Nursery & Garden Industry Victoria Discovery Garden and enjoy the family chill-out area as well as getting some gardening hints and tips.

FOOD &amp; WINE

Taste the flavour

FINE FOOD AND FANTASTIC FRESH LOCAL PRODUCE IS A HIGHLIGHT AT THE SHOW

TASTES OF VICTORIA PRECINCT

★ Gourmet Victorian produce will feature in a new designated area in the Grand Pavilion this year. The Tastes of Victoria Precinct will showcase producers and exhibitors from around the state.

From smallgoods to cheese, dairy to sweets and wine to beer, showgoers will be able to sample and savour Victoria's finest.

Open every day, the Tastes of Victoria Precinct will also host a stage program of celebrity chefs, regional and seasonal foods, enlightening foodies and budding masterchefs with their own tips and tricks.

TASTES OF VICTORIA STAGE

★ The new Tastes of Victoria Stage will give showgoers the opportunity to learn from some of Victoria's leading chefs, local producers and food industry experts in half-hour cooking demonstrations.

This year the Tastes of Victoria stage will highlight some of Melbourne's best including Ian Curley (Executive Chef The European, TV show Conviction Kitchen), Matt Wilkinson (Pope Joan), Philippa Sibley (renowned Michelin star dessert chef), Chris Badenoch (Josie Bones) and MasterChef contestant Dani Venn.

Audiences will have the unique opportunity to taste some of their idol's dishes and win fantastic prizes.

The Tastes of Victoria Stage will also feature demonstrations from some of Victoria's top regional chefs including Michael Ryan (Provenance, Beechworth), Stuart Bell (Ten Minutes by Tractor, Mornington Peninsula), Annie Smithers (Kyneton) and Tom O'Toole (Beechworth Bakery).

KIDS COOKING

★ There's also cooking entertainment for the kids with sessions hosted by Junior MasterChef contestants Cassidy, Nick and Siena. Join in with Bubble Muffin Kid's Cooking Club and create an edible garden.

Kids over the age of four will have a chance to experiment with a wide range of ingredients, learn about healthy foods and have lots of fun.

MASTERCLASSES

★ Located beside the Tastes of Victoria Stage is the Mini Masterclass Stage where Victoria's finest producers will take you through free, guided half-hour tasting of coffee, cheese, beer, wine, chocolates and ice-cream.

Each day audiences will learn from only the best as this stage hosts winners from the Royal Melbourne Fine Food Awards, Royal Melbourne Wine Show and the Australian International Beer Awards.

ROYAL MELBOURNE FINE FOOD DELI

★ Located opposite the Tastes of Victoria stage, the new Royal Melbourne Fine Food Deli will make its debut at the Royal Melbourne Show. The Deli will offer a tasty gourmet experience and even lets you take it home.

The Fine Food Deli will showcase medal-winning products from the 2010-11 Royal Melbourne Fine Food Awards. Showgoers will be able to buy award-winning roasted espresso coffee, nibble on tasting plates of award winning beef and sample medal-winning wines from the 2010 Royal Melbourne Wine Show.

70 AND STILL GOING STRONG

One constant at the show is the presence of the Country Women's Association - and this year marks the 70th anniversary of the CWA's involvement with the Royal Melbourne Show.

CWA state president Carol Clay says the CWA rooms originally acted as a tea room for CWA members visiting the show, but has since grown to offer meals and facilities for all show visitors.

A team of up to 50 CWA members is on hand most days of the show to serve meals and snacks to hungry show visitors.

Perhaps best known for their scones, Carol is keen to point out the CWA is much more than that.

The CWA at Royal Melbourne Show offer a full cooked breakfast - a favourite of exhibitors staying on-site at the showgrounds as well as early show visitors - and every day, just before lunch, a massive queue lines up inside and outside the CWA area for the traditional corned beef lunch.

"Sometimes we'd like to change it but it's always so popular. I think there would be a massive outcry if we changed the corned beef lunch," Carol says.

Some of the CWA members have been volunteering for up to 30 years to work for the 11 days of the show - and some of the diners and their families are also regular faces over the decades.

"People always look for us when they come to the show because of the tradition and good food and it's served with a smile," Carol says.

CWA volunteers are on site from as early as 6am and stop serving diners at 7.30pm before cleaning up and preparing for the next day.

"People from all over the state come together for the common purpose of raising money for the association and serving the public," she says.

"The fact we have been there for 70 years is testament to the organisation. That's what you call stepping up to the plate and commitment!"

COMPETITIONS

Battle for the blue

THOUSANDS OF COMPETITORS WILL FACE THE JUDGES' SCRUTINY IN THEIR QUEST TO WIN A SHOW PRIZE

The Royal Melbourne Show is one of the biggest competitive stages in Australia. Thousands of entries have been received for hundreds of different competitions and divisions in categories as diverse as equestrian, arts and crafts, woodchop, beef cattle, sheep, alpacas, dogs and poultry.

Take the chance to see the work and special skills of some of the state's most talented individuals at this year's Royal Melbourne Show.

HORSES IN ACTION

★ The prestigious Horses in Action program is bigger and better this year.

For the first time in Victoria, Exhibition Eventing will take to the Coca-Cola Arena.

Best described as an equine triathlon, the competition brings the skill and excitement of dressage, cross country and showjumping to the Royal Melbourne Show.

Don't miss the thrills and spills of this exciting new competition as riders fight to qualify for EQUITANA.

With the London Olympic Games looming next year, Australia's best showjumpers will also be put to the test on Coca-Cola Arena, battling it out to qualify for the Olympics in world-class showjumping.

One of the country's most celebrated horse showing events, the Garryowen Equestrienne Turnout, will be run for the 77th time. It features the best female riders who will compete for Royal Melbourne Show glory and a place in history.

Horses big and small will strut their stuff at the Show.

Make sure you don't miss out on the majestic Clydesdale and Heavy Harness events during the first three days of the Show or a family favourite, the Shetland Steeplechase, on Sunday, September 25.

EQUINE SHOPPING IN THE HORSE PRECINCT INCLUDES:

- Equissage Therapy
- Knox Equestrian School
- Sporthorse Saddlery & Equipment

  - World Cup Showjumping: Sunday, October 2, 5.30pm
  - The Knox School Six Bar Jumping Contest - Monday, October 3, 6pm
- *All events are in the Coca-Cola Arena

ART, CRAFT AND COOKERY

★ The Art, Craft and Cookery competition showcases just how talented Victorians are. From photography to fashion, embroidery to preserves and fascinating decorated cakes, the Art, Craft and Cookery Pavilion draws thousands of keen spectators every year.

Introduced last year, the Shoe or Boot Art competition is bigger and better in 2011, promising to inspire with amazing designs in both the wearable and fantasy categories.

New to this year's Show is the Apron Challenge, where entrants have transformed the humble apron into a work of art.

Also new is Sew and Show, featuring the work of talented secondary and tertiary-level fashion design students. The imaginative creations will be modelled in fashion parades on Monday, September 26, Thursday, September 29 and Monday, October 3.

Local artisans will take part in the new Makers Alley, selling their hand-made creations direct to Show patrons.

Up and over: fast-paced and new. Exhibition Eventing has brought horse-lover Katja Weimann back to the Royal Melbourne Show competition ring.

We don't get many shows with such a big crowd, that close up and with that sort of atmosphere

A LEAP OF FAITH

★ Katja Weimann lives and breathes horses.

The 28-year-old Upper Beaconsfield rider raises and trains horses for a living and loves nothing more than teaming with her equine loves to compete in eventing.

She last competed at the Royal Melbourne Show half a lifetime ago in the pony showjumping class when she was about 14. This year she returns to the competition ring on her favourite horse BP Gallantry to compete in the new Exhibition Eventing.

Exhibition Eventing combines the traditional three-day eventing disciplines of dressage, cross country and show jumping in a fast-paced, one-day event featuring dressage in the morning and a jumping course of show jumps and cross-country fences in the afternoon.

Horses and riders compete against the clock with penalties for going too fast, too slow, knocking down rails and extra points for some fences.

Katja has been riding since she was about five, and has owned BP Gallantry, now almost 12, since he was a foal.

Preparations for the Exhibition

Eventing competition are part of her training regime for the Victorian equestrian event season, which starts this month.

She is confident that BP Gallantry is up for the big stage of the Royal Melbourne Show.

"We don't get many shows with such a big crowd, that close up and with that sort of atmosphere," she says.

"I really enjoy training and schooling the horses to go to competition, and to have them perform really well is rewarding.

"You have good days and bad days but in the end you always get something back."

BURNING FOR THE HEAT OF BATTLE

★ Helen Blockley is not just battling her cooking competitors at this year's Royal Melbourne Show – a new stove is causing some headaches for this veteran cookery competition entrant!

Already this year the late installation of her new stove delayed early preparations for her fruit cake and plum pudding entries, and when she did get her fruit cake in to the oven it burned.

So she has started again. Helen, 69, spends hours in a hot kitchen preparing her many entries for the Show's cookery competitions.

This year she plans to enter the fruit cake, plum pudding, fruit mince, lemon butter muffins, scones and various cake categories.

And she has been entering for about 15 years.

"My mum put a couple of handcraft things in and we used to like going around looking at cakes, so my interest just sprang from there," she says.

Fruit cake and plum pudding preparations start many weeks before judging takes place, while cooking for the other categories takes place in her Wandin home kitchen in the days before the Show.

"I lose track of how many hours it takes, but it is quite a few. When it's getting close I can work all day."

The lure of competition is simple.

"I enjoy seeing how well I can do. Different people enter and you get to know the different ones, but I just love to see how I go and have a bit of fun."

GRACIE HAS THE WOW FACTOR

★ Portuguese water dog Gracie loves being the centre of attention. Which is just as well given the "extracurricular activities" she enjoys with owner Camilla Sleeth.

Gracie will compete in the flyball relay races at the Royal Melbourne Show, and on Tuesday, October 4 between flyball rounds she will perform a show of tricks.

Camilla has trained Gracie under the guidance of Silvia Trkman, a Slovenian-based agility trainer and multiple agility world champion.

But flyball and tricks are not Gracie's only interests. She also competes in agility competitions and is a trained therapy dog.

Camilla, a medical student, regularly takes Gracie to visit patients in Geelong Hospital where she brings smiles to their faces with her tricks and cuddles.

"I'm a medical student and she's my clown doctor. I started teaching her tricks to entertain the kids in hospital and it sprang from there," Camilla says.

Gracie and her pal Sprocket performed to a crowd of about 400 at the recent Geelong premiere of the movie Red Dog. Gracie and Sprocket will perform their repertoire of tricks – loosely tied together with the story that Gracie is a princess and Sprocket the bad boy – at the Royal Melbourne Show.

Both will also compete in flyball, where dogs hurtle over hurdles, retrieve a ball, then spring back over the hurdles to their team mates. Gracie only took up flyball earlier this year and can now complete the course in about five seconds.

I started teaching Gracie tricks to entertain the kids in hospital and it sprang from there Dancing with Dogs will amaze showgoers as both owners and dogs gracefully dance to music in skillfully choreographed dance routines.

Featuring different breeds, the Dancing with Dogs competition will keep you spellbound on Sunday, October 2 with a demonstration following the competition so you can learn what it takes to teach your dog to dance.

Also new in 2011 are dog grooming demonstrations, which will take place on Sunday, October 2 and Monday, October 3. A variety of breeds will be expertly groomed, showing you how you can achieve results with your own dog at home.

WOODCHOP

Chips will again be flying in the Isuzu D-Max Woodchop Pavilion at this year's Royal Melbourne Show when the world's best axmen compete for glory.

For the first nine days of the Show, competitors will amaze crowds with their power and daring.

The woodchop this year celebrates 100 years since the first competition was held at the Royal Melbourne Show.

The Woodchop Heritage Competition on Wednesday, September 28 will commemorate the milestone with an invitational standing block event.

Returning after a 10-year absence is the Chainsaw Championships, an adrenaline-packed race where competitors test their chainsawing prowess.

Trans-Tasman rivalries will be reignited in the Australia v New Zealand Under 21 Test Series on Coca-Cola Arena. These young woodchoppers will battle it out to see which nation is home to the best woodsmen.

BROKEN ARM HASN'T STOPPED LILLI

For six days the Royal Melbourne Show will be home to Lilli Stewart.

A first-time exhibitor, Lilli (pictured right) will live at the Showgrounds with her 12-month-old Angus heifer Fleur as she cares for and shows her during the cattle competitions.

Lilli, 10, has been caring for and training Fleur for two months in preparation for her show debut.

But much of Lilli's preparation and training has been done one-handed after she broke her arm.

"She's done all the training with a broken arm. She's been looking after the heifer with one arm, feeding her morning and night, walking her, training her all with one arm," mum Belinda says.

Lilli attended the Stud Beef Victoria Cattle Handlers Camp in July to learn how to care for, train and show a heifer.

"We try to get in training once or twice a week," Lilli explains.

"We train to lead them in circles and stand for the judges."

The Stewart family runs about 1000 Angus cattle on their property Araluen at Birregurra.

Lilli will be the first of the family to compete at the Royal Melbourne Show since her late grandfather Colin Campbell.

"It's just an interest of Lilli's," her mum says. "It's something she's been really keen on and everyone is looking forward to it."

She's done all the training with a broken arm. She's been looking after the heifer with one arm, feeding her morning and night, walking her, training her all with one arm

YOUNG FARMER CHALLENGE

For the first time at the Royal Melbourne Show, young farmers will go head to head to be crowned Victoria's Young Farmer Challenge Champions.

Teams of farmers aged 16-30 will test their drafting, driving and drenching skills against the clock in a fast-paced, entertaining competition.

You will find them going head to head at the Herald Sun Animal Entertainment Zone on Sunday, September 25 from 9:30am, 11.15am and 2.30pm.

Family man: Blake Meyers (back row, centre) is the fourth generation of his clan to compete in the woodchop.

WOODCHIPS IN HIS VEINS

★ Few sports or events inspire the kind of family legacies that are present in the Royal Melbourne Show's woodchop competitors.

A love of the sport seems to be passed down through the generations.

The fourth generation of the Meyers clan to take part in woodchop competitions, Blake Meyers, 17, has woodchips in his veins.

The family legacy that began with his great grandfather now sees most of his extended family – up to a dozen or more – involved in woodchop competitions.

"My pop's dad went with one of his mates who introduced him to woodchop and he loved it," Blake says.

"He taught all his sons, then my pop taught his sons and Dad taught me and I plan to teach my kids."

Blake, brother Kyle, 16, and their father Brad train together at their Romsey home – and the extended family of cousins, uncles and others often get together to compete and train.

Blake trains up to two hours a night and up to five hours a day at weekends. But he admits training and travelling to competitions sometimes gets in the way of his year 11 schoolwork.

"I just love the sport, it's something I am very passionate about. I train for it a lot and it's in my blood," he says.

"We do spend much more time on it than a normal hobby."

Woodchop competitions are held mainly at local and capital city agricultural shows from September to April. Blake says the Meyer family clan compete at up to three shows a month during this time.

This will be his eighth year of competition at the Royal Melbourne Show.

"I love the roar of the crowd and it's a great arena there," he says.

Blake will compete in most of the woodchop events and, along his cousin, will represent Australia in the Australia v New Zealand Under 21 Test Series.

I just love the sport, it's something I am very passionate about. I train for it and it's in my blood ... I love the roar of the crowd. It's a great arena at the Show

Take the ride of

SPIN, ZOOM, FALL, TWIST AND SLIDE ... IF YOU DARE

RIDES

★ Following the bright lights and squeals of delight is a sure-fire way to find the biggest and best carnival rides at the Royal Melbourne Show.

But if heart-in-the-mouth drops and thrills aren't quite your scene, there's plenty of excitement to be had on the more sedate carnival rides.

And families with small children have their own dedicated carnival areas full of safe, age-appropriate rides for the little ones.

Rides at the Royal Melbourne Show are separated into three separate carnival areas for riders of all ages.

As well as the three carnival precincts, the favourite Giant Sky Wheel on the Herald Sun Town Square gives showgoers a bird's-eye view of the showgrounds. The Fungee Bungee, the Sky Garden and other rides are also scattered throughout the showgrounds.

For a full list of rides, visit www.royalshow.com.au.

SMOKEFREE FAMILY CARNIVAL

★ With a mix of fun rides, the SmokeFree Family Carnival is a great place for families with children aged six to 14 years to take in the excitement of the carnival atmosphere.

The family-favourite aquatic rollercoaster Pirates Revenge is there along with classics such as the Wave Swinger and the all-new Disk-o, direct from the US, which will have you in a spin to the beat of some high-energy disco music.

Also new for 2011 is the Wacky Worm coaster, which the kids will love as they whizz up and down and round and round.

SMOKEFREE KIDS CARNIVAL

★ The SmokeFree Kids Carnival, next to the Animal Nursery, is perfect for little tuckers aged under six. Take a spin on the Cup and Saucer, enjoy the Carousel, slip and slide your way down the colourful slide or head to the Outback Pony rides for a truly memorable experience.

your life

There are tons of thrills and exciting experiences on offer.

SMOKEFREE THRILL SEEKERS CARNIVAL

★ The fastest, highest and maddest rides of the Show are all in the SmokeFree Thrill Seekers Carnival for some extreme entertainment.

Scare yourself silly with the Hollywood Horrors where some of the silver screen's most terrifying characters come to life. Or try the XXXL where you'll be holding on tight as 6.5Gs of gravity press against you.

The all new Extreme is more thrill seeking fun set to give you a spinning rush, while the Freestyle takes riders on a 40 m high, 100kmh heart-stopping adventure that will satisfy even the most extreme adrenaline addict.

$5 RIDES

For great value, visit the SmokeFree Family Carnival after 6pm when all rides are $5 each.

Your ultimate showbag guide

There's nothing like the variety and value of showbags at this year's Royal Melbourne Show. With more than 350 bags on offer, ranging from novelty, confectionery, gourmet food and all your favourite character bags, there's something for all ages and tastes. Head to the Grand Pavilion for a range of gourmet food bags including the new Victorian Cheese & Dairy Bag and The Deluxe Deli bag, both featuring award-winning products from the best producers. Listed below is every item in every showbag at the Show - make your own wish-list and bring it along with you.

Your favourite showbags now in two locations!

In addition to the Showbag Pavilion, there's an all-new location to buy showbags. Located in the SmokeFree Family Carnival, the Showbag Precinct has the majority of showbags available and is the only place you can buy the Coca-Cola Showbag.

The Showbag Precinct is the perfect place to pick up your favourites after you've had some fun in the SmokeFree Family Carnival.

5 Golden Tickets to be won

Remember when Charlie found the last Golden Ticket to visit Willy Wonka's Chocolate Factory?

Well at this year's Show, five lucky people will find a Golden Ticket of their own! Five Golden Tickets are waiting to be found in five Wonka Showbags and the major prize is a family holiday for four to the Gold Coast, staying at the Sea World Resort and Water Park with unlimited entry to Sea World, Movie World and Wet 'n' Wild.

For your chance to win, buy a Premium Wonka Showbag or Super Wonka Showbag at the Royal Melbourne Show. The Wonka showbags are at the Planet Nettle Stand at the front of the Showbag Pavilion.
